Wayne National Forest Hosts Nature Hikes this Weekend

PEDRO, OH – The Wayne National Forest is hosting three nature hikes this weekend. On Friday, May 18, district botanist Chad Kirschbaum will be leading a “Celebrating Wildflowers” walk. This hike will start at 4:00 pm at the Lake Vesuvius boat dock parking lot. Zac Allen and Kari Kirschbaum will be leading bird hike on Saturday, May 19 in celebration of International Migratory Bird Day. This hike along the Rock House trail will begin at 7:00 am at the Vesuvius Boat Dock parking lot. Later that morning, Chad Kirschbaum will be leading a second wildflower hike along the Lake Shore Trail. Participants should meet at the Lake Vesuvius Dam parking lot at 10:00 am.

All participants should wear comfortable, sturdy hiking shoes or boots, and bring light snacks and water or drinks, binoculars, and a digital camera if they desire, for the walks.

Please contact Chad Kirschbaum with any questions: 740-534-6535.
