Excellence doesn't happen overnight, but FEMA's training courses will equip you with tools to deliver a knowledgeable plan of action back to your community.

Classroom style training lets you delve deeper into HAZUS-MH.

3 ½ day HAZUS-MH resident training classes are offered at FEMA's Emergency Management Institute (EMI) in Emmitsburg, MD. Course enrollment for the HAZUS-MH EMI curriculum is at no cost for Federal, State, and local community officials. Complimentary housing considerations can be made for state and local community officials. Contact your state training officer to see if you qualify. Course participants are responsible for the cost of meals. Required meal tickets are approximately $20 per day and include breakfast, lunch, and dinner.
