

Shirl R. Eastep
Strategic Workforce Division Director
Southeast Region – Division of Human Resources

Ms. Eastep graduated from the University of Central Oklahoma in Sociology/with an emphasis on counseling. She obtained a Masters in Human Relations/Organizational Development in 1998 from the University of Oklahoma.

Her experience includes Human Resource Officer/Consultant with TComlyCo. LLC, Oklahoma City; Adjunct Professor, Business Division, St. Gregory's University, Shawnee; and a number of position with the Citizen Band Potawatomi Nation including; Director of Human Resources; Community and Family Services Assistant Director; and Substance Abuse Prevention Coordinator.

Ms. Eastep is an enrolled member of the Creek Nation and is also part Choctaw. She currently works as the Strategic Workforce Division Director for the Southeast Region; her office is located in the Oklahoma City Area Office.