

Media Contact: Dean Campbell
(803) 952-9416

For Immediate Release

2007 WSRC FAMILY SCHOLARSHIPS TO BE AWARDED

AIKEN, S.C (May 21) – Sixteen students have each won a $3,000 Washington Savannah River Company (WSRC) Family Scholarship, and will receive their scholarships at a ceremony on Tuesday, May 22, 2007.

These winners are sons and daughters of WSRC and Washington Safety Management Solutions (WSMS) employees. This program rewards graduating high school students on the basis of general ability, leadership, scholastic assessment and achievement.

WSRC is proud to sponsor this program that rewards graduating high school students of its employees through college scholarships. This year's winners are:

- Matthew Catchpole, Augusta Prep Day School, son of Tim Catchpole, WSMS
- Adam Coffin, Palmetto Independent Educators, son of David Coffin, Liquid Waste Organization, WSRC
- Sarah Edison, North Augusta High School, daughter of Thomas Edison, Management & Operations Organization, WSRC
- Sally Foster, South Aiken High School, daughter of Tom Foster, Management & Operations Organization, WSRC
- Abigail Gall, South Carolina Governor's School for Science and Mathematics, daughter of John Gall, Liquid Waste Organization, WSRC
- John R. Harley, Aiken High School, son of Terry and John P. Harley, Chief Financial Officer Division and Management & Operations Organization, WSRC
- Molly Hook, Dreher High School, daughter of Burney Hook, Management & Operations Organization, WSRC
- David Inouye, Greenbriar High School, son of Mark Inouye, Liquid Waste Organization, WSRC
- Hayley Landis, Davidson Fine Arts, daughter of Doug Landis, Office of the Vice President, WSRC
- Anna Loyal, Aquinas High School, daughter of Chris Loyal, Management & Operations Organization, WSRC
- Tabatha Pilgrim, Greenbriar High School, daughter of Dante Pilgrim, Management & Operations Organization, WSRC

(more)

The WSRC Team:

Washington Savannah River Company LLC • Bechtel Savannah River, Inc. • BNG America Savannah River Corporation
BWXT Savannah River Company • CH2 Savannah River Company

WSRC Family Scholarships

Page 2

- Matthew Reichel, Aiken High School, son of Rick Reichel, Management & Operations Organization, WSRC
- Tyler Shake, South Aiken High School, son of Joe and Tina Shake, Management & Operations Organization and Liquid Waste Organization, WRSC
- Amy Varallo, Aiken High School, daughter of Tom Varallo, Management & Operations Organization, WSRC
- Mason Webb, Westminster of Augusta, son of Roger Webb, Savannah River National Laboratory, WSRC
- Jackson Wyrick, Lexington High School, son of Steven Wyrick, Savannah River National Laboratory, WSRC.

The Savannah River Site is owned by U.S. Department of Energy and operated by a team of companies led by WSRC, a Washington Group International company.

WSRC-07-11