

Registration is just the beginning of the event.

Congressman Ed Pastor, 4th District welcomed the students.

Students and coaches listen to Congressman Pastor.

One of Brophy College Preparatory teams listens to the question.

Linda McVey, one of many volunteers reads a question.

Two teams compete during the competition.

Sabino team prepares to answer a bonus question.

The rules judge follows along while the timekeeper watches the clock. A backup volunteer learns the ropes of the timekeeper.

Phoenix Country Day team waits for their competitor to finish their answer.

This team discusses their answer for the bonus question.

Another team prepares their answer for the bonus question.

Team members ponder their answer.

Lynn Duffy, a room monitor follows along during the competition.

Team B prepares to answer before the buzzer.

Team A works on their answer for the bonus question.

Barry Goldwater team accepts their fourth place trophy from Tyler Carlson, Regional Manager of Western Area Power-DSW.

Desert Vista team accepts their third place trophy from Tyler Carlson, Regional Manager of Western Area Power-DSW.

Tempe Preparatory team accepts their second place trophy from Tyler Carlson, Regional Manager of Western Area Power-DSW.

Chaparral team poses and accepts their first place trophy from Tyler Carlson, Regional Manager of Western Area Power-DSW.