

Hispanic-Targeted Healthy Marriage Programs

THE HEALTHY MARRIAGES PROGRAM OF EL CENTRO

PURPOSE: El Centro de Recursos Para Familias, a program within this Diocese, will implement the El Centro Healthy Marriage Initiative. This project will provide the Prevention and Relationship Enhancement Program (PREP) curriculum in Spanish to 200 Latino couples in the Mercer County area. They propose serving approximately 50 couples during each of the four years of the grant. The model will utilize linguistically and culturally appropriate outreach and intervention services using both bilingual and bicultural staff.

GRANT RECIPIENT: Catholic Charities Diocese of Trenton

PROJECT PERIOD: 9/30/2005 – 9/29/2009

FUNDING: $600,000 ($150,000 per year)

THE MARRIAGE FIRST PROJECT OF ILLINOIS

PURPOSE: The goal of this project is to provide African American and Hispanic unmarried cohabiting couples with a variety of marriage enhancing services to increase the number of marriages before conception, to increase the well-being of children, and to increase public knowledge about the benefits of marriage. The project will also serve low-income, married couples. A multi-faceted approach will be used based on the work of Alan Hawkins, PhD from BYU and his colleagues titled, "A Comprehensive Framework for Marriage Education," which uses the Prevention and Relationship Enhancement Program (PREP) for full-and half-day marriage education seminars. There will be three tiers of service delivery: public awareness campaigns and public service announcements; higher intensity, "Integrated Marriage Education" (which includes services to adolescents in need of preventative services) serving 350 couples per year; and intensive case management (which includes marriage-based information and materials), serving 45 families per year.

GRANT RECIPIENT: Rockford MELD
