Dear Sir or Madam:

I am a socially responsible investor, and a strong supporter of the Community Reinvestment Act, which has helped combat redlining by lending institutions and provided vitally needed capital to struggling communities.

I urge you to withdraw your proposed changes to CRA regulations, which would seriously weaken the Act by allowing thrifts to obtain CRA credits by financing community development in affluent neighborhoods rather than lower-income neighborhoods, and depriving community organizations of the opportunity to express their concerns in required meetings when two thrifts merge.

It seems as though this administration is all about making the rich richer. Please take this opportunity to reverse this trend.

Yours Sincerely,

Terry Troha
