COPYRIGHT AND RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted materials. The various state privacy acts govern the use of materials that document private individuals, groups, and corporations.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a reproduction if the document does not infringe the privacy rights of an individual, group, or corporation. These specified conditions of authorized use include:

- non-commercial and non-profit study, scholarship, or research, or teaching
- criticism, commentary, or news reporting
- as a NPS preservation or security copy
- as a research copy for deposit in another institution

If a user later uses a copy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," the user may be personally liable for copyright, privacy, or publicity infringement. This institution's permission to obtain a photographic, xerographic, digital, or other copy of a document doesn't indicate permission to publish, exhibit, perform, reproduce, sell, distribute, or prepare derivative works from this document without first obtaining permission from the copyright holder and from any private individual, group, or corporation shown or otherwise recorded.

Permission to publish, exhibit, perform, reproduce, prepare derivative works from, sell, or otherwise distribute the item must be obtained by the user separately in writing from the holder of the original copyright (or if the creator is dead from his/her heirs) as well as from any individual(s), groups, or corporations whose name, image, recorded words, or private information (e.g., employment information) may be reproduced in the source material. The holder of the original copyright isn't necessarily the National Park Service. The National Park Service is not legally liable for copyright, privacy, or publicity infringement when materials are wrongfully used after being provided to researchers for "fair use."

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if fulfillment of the order is judged in violation of copyright or federal or state privacy or publicity law.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

REEL TO REEL FILM COLLECTION
circa 1920-1980 (bulk dates: 1930-1950)

CATALOG NUMBER YELL 183993

VOLUME 111.00 EA

DESCRIPTION An assorted collection of 8mm and 16mm films from the 1930s to 1980s recorded by various park staff such as naturalists, park rangers, and park photographers. Identified photographers are: Joseph Joffe, W.E. Kearns, David de L. Condon, F. Oberhansley, V. Watson, R. Upton, and W. Alcorn.

Films are of diverse topics such as thermal features, animal behavior, landscapes, general Yellowstone sights and scenes, fires, and both park personnel and tourist activities.

Detailed descriptions of cataloged films can be found in the finding aid and in the accession file. Films that have been reformatted to VHS or DVD have been noted. Any supplementary information about a particular film can be found in the Film Documentation box under the film number.

ORGANIZATION These films have been given arbitrary inventory control numbers which are three digits preceded by an "R", such as "R107". All formats are stored in numerical order by this number.

The finding aid has arranged the films by broad topic. These are as follows: General Yellowstone, pre-1950; General Yellowstone, post-1950; Animals; Thermal Features; Fires; and Donations.

PROVENANCE Filmed by National Park Service employees and held by the naturalist and interpretation divisions. Transferred to the archives from 2005 - 2008 by the current park photographer, Jim Peaco.
