

Mean Annual Incidence of Reported Cases of Lyme Disease by Age and Sex United States, 1992-2004

Reported cases of Lyme disease are most common among boys aged 5-9.

Age and sex specific incidence was calculated using US Census Bureau population estimates for July 1, 2000.