Changes To Note

The Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997 (the "Act") made changes to the tax law for corporations. Some of the changes are discussed below.

- The research credit has been extended for amounts paid or incurred through June 30, 1998. For details, get Form 6765, Credit for Increasing Research Activities.
- The orphan drug credit has been permanently extended. For details, get Form 8820, Orphan Drug Credit.
- The work opportunity credit has been extended for wages paid to qualified individuals who begin work for the employer before July 1, 1998. For details, get Form 5884, Work Opportunity Credit.
- Employers that pay wages to qualified long-term family assistance (AFDC or its successor program) recipients who began work after December 31, 1997, may qualify to claim the welfare-to-work credit under new section 51A. The credit is figured on Form 8861, Welfare-to-Work Credit. See the 1997 instructions for Schedule J, line 4d, Form 1120 (Part I, line 2a, Form 1120-A).
- The penalty for failure to make electronic deposits of depository taxes using the Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS) has been temporarily waived for filers who were required to first use EFTPS on or after July 1, 1997. For more information, see Electronic deposit requirement below.
- The alternative minimum tax (AMT) has been repealed for small corporations that meet certain gross receipts tests. See section 55(e) for more information. Other changes to the AMT rules include:
 - (1) The repeal of the depreciation adjustment for property (including pollution control facilities) placed in service after December 31, 1998. See section 56(a)(1) and 56(a)(5).
 - (2) The use by farmers of the installment method of accounting for tax years beginning after December 31, 1987. See section 56(a).
 - (3) The repeal of the special exception to the 90% foreign tax credit limitation for tax years beginning after August 5, 1997. See section 59(a)(2).
 - (4) The election by corporations to use a simplified foreign tax credit limitation for tax years beginning after December 31, 1997. See section 59(a)(3).

Who Must Make Estimated Tax Payments

- Corporations generally must make installment payments of estimated tax if they expect their estimated tax (income tax less credits) to be $500 or more.
- S corporations must also make estimated tax payments for certain taxes. S corporations should see the instructions for Form 1120S, U.S. Income Tax Return for an S Corporation, to figure the estimated tax payments of an S corporation.
- Tax-exempt organizations subject to the unrelated business income tax and private foundations use Form 990-W, Estimated Tax on Unrelated Business Taxable Income for Tax-Exempt Organizations, to figure the amount of their estimated tax payments.

When To Make Estimated Tax Payments

The installments are due by the 15th day of the 4th, 6th, 9th, and 12th months of the tax year. If any date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the installment is due on the next regular business day.

Underpayment of Estimated Tax

A corporation that does not make estimated tax payments when due may be subject to an underpayment penalty for the period of underpayment (section 6655), using the underpayment rate determined under section 6621(a)(2).

Overpayment of Estimated Tax

A corporation that has overpaid its estimated tax may apply for a quick refund if the overpayment is at least 10% of its expected income tax liability and at least $500.

Quick refund.—To apply for a quick refund, file Form 4466, Corporation Application for Quick Refund of Overpayment of Estimated Tax, before the 16th day of the 3rd month after the end of the tax year, but before the corporation files its income tax return. Do not file Form 4466 before the end of the corporation's tax year.

Depository Method of Tax Payment

Some corporations (described below) are required to electronically deposit all depository taxes, including corporation income tax and estimated tax payments.

Electronic deposit requirement.—The corporation must make electronic deposits of all depository tax liabilities that occur after 1997 if:

- It was required to electronically deposit taxes in prior years,
- It deposited more than $50,000 in social security, Medicare, or withheld income taxes in 1996, or
- It did not deposit social security, Medicare, or withheld income taxes in 1995 or 1996, but deposited more than $50,000 in other taxes under section 6302 (such as the corporate income tax) in either year. (See Regulations section 31.6302-1(h) for more information.)

The Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS) must be used to make electronic deposits. If the corporation is required to make electronic deposits and fails to do so, it may be subject to a 10% penalty. However, no penalty will be imposed prior to July 1, 1998, if the corporation was first required to use EFTPS on or after July 1, 1997. Corporations that are not required to make electronic deposits may voluntarily participate in EFTPS. To enroll in EFTPS, call 1-800-945-8400 or 1-800-555-4477. For general information about EFTPS, call 1-800-829-1040.

Deposits with Form 8109.—If the corporation does not use EFTPS, deposit corporation income tax payments (and estimated tax payments) with Form 8109, Federal Tax Deposit Coupon. Do not send deposits directly to an IRS office. Mail or deliver the completed Form 8109 with the payment to a qualified depository for Federal taxes or to the Federal Reserve bank (FRB) servicing the corporation's geographic area. Make checks or money orders payable to that depository or FRB. To help ensure proper crediting, write the corporation's EIN, the tax period to which the deposit applies, and "Form 1120" on the check or money order. Be sure to darken the "1120" box on the coupon. Records of these deposits will be sent to the IRS.

A penalty may be imposed if the deposits are mailed or delivered to an IRS office rather than to an authorized depository or FRB. For more information on deposits, see the instructions in the coupon booklet (Form 8109) and Pub. 583, Starting a Business and Keeping Records.

Refiguring Estimated Tax

If after the corporation figures and deposits estimated tax, it finds that its tax liability for the year will be more or less than originally estimated, it may have to refigure its required installments. If earlier installments were underpaid, the corporation may owe a penalty for underpayment of estimated tax.

An immediate catchup payment should be made to reduce the amount of any penalty resulting from the underpayment of any earlier installments, whether caused by a change in estimate, failure to make a deposit, or a mistake.

Specific Instructions

Line 1—Qualified Personal Service Corporations

A qualified personal service corporation is taxed at a flat rate of 35% on taxable income. A corporation is a qualified personal service corporation if it meets both of the following tests:

- Substantially all of the corporation's activities involve the performance of services in the fields of health, law, engineering, architecture, accounting, actuarial science, performing arts, or consulting, and
- At least 95% of the corporation's stock, by value, is owned, directly or indirectly, by (1) employees performing the services, (2) retired employees who had performed the services listed above, (3) any estate of an employee or retiree described above, or (4) any person who acquired the stock of the corporation as a result of the death of an employee or retiree (but only for the 2-year period beginning on the date of the employee's or retiree's death). See Temporary Regulations section 1.448-1T(e) for details.

Lines 2, 4, and 6

Members of a controlled group.—Members of a controlled group enter on line 2 the smaller of the amount on line 1 or their share of the $50,000 amount. On line 4, enter the smaller of the amount on line 3 or their share of the $25,000 amount. On line 6, enter the smaller of the amount on line 5 or their share of the $9,925,000 amount.

Equal apportionment plan.—If no apportionment plan is adopted, members of a controlled group must divide the amount in each taxable income bracket equally among themselves. For example, Controlled Group AB consists of Corporation A and Corporation B. They do not elect an apportionment plan. Therefore, each corporation is entitled to:

- $25,000 (one-half of $50,000) on line 2,
- $12,500 (one-half of $25,000) on line 4, and
- $4,962,500 (one-half of $9,925,000) on line 6.

Unequal apportionment plan.—Members of a controlled group may elect an unequal apportionment plan and divide the taxable income brackets as they want. There is no need for consistency among taxable income brackets. Any member may be entitled to all, some, or none of the taxable income bracket. However, the total amount for all members cannot be more than the total amount in each taxable income bracket.

Line 12

Additional 5% tax.—Members of a controlled group are treated as one group to figure the applicability of the additional 5% tax and the additional 3% tax. If an additional tax applies, each member will pay that tax based on the part of the amount used in each taxable income bracket to reduce that member's tax. See section 1561(a). Each member of the group must enter on line 12 its share of the smaller of 5% of the taxable income in excess of $100,000, or $11,750.

Line 13

Additional 3% tax.—If the additional 3% tax applies, each member of the controlled group must enter on line 13 its share of the smaller of 3% of the taxable income in excess of $15 million, or $100,000. See Line 12 above.

Line 15

For information on tax credits the corporation may take, see the discussion of credits in the Instructions for Form 1120, lines 4a through 4e, Schedule J (Form 1120-A, lines 2a and 2b, Part I), or the instructions for the applicable line and schedule of other income tax returns. Also see Changes To Note on page 4.

Line 18

Alternative minimum tax (AMT) is generally the excess of tentative minimum tax for the tax year over the regular tax for the tax year. See section 55 for definitions of tentative minimum tax and regular tax. A limited amount of the foreign tax credit may be used to offset the minimum tax. See Changes To Note and sections 55 through 59 for more information on AMT.

Line 20

Complete Form 4136, Credit for Federal Tax Paid on Fuels, if the corporation qualifies to take this credit. Include on line 20 any credit the corporation is claiming under section 4682(g)(4) for tax on ozone-depleting chemicals.

Line 22a

Figure the corporation's 1997 tax in the same way that line 21 of this worksheet was figured, using the taxes and credits from the 1997 income tax return.

If a return was not filed for the 1997 tax year showing a liability for at least some amount of tax, or if the 1997 tax year was for less than 12 months, do not complete line 22a. Instead, skip line 22a and enter the amount from line 21 on line 22b. Large corporations, see the instructions for line 24 below.

Line 23

Calendar year taxpayers: Enter 4-15-98, 6-15-98, 9-15-98, and 12-15-98, respectively, in columns (a) through (d).

Fiscal year taxpayers: Enter the 15th day of the 4th, 6th, 9th, and 12th months of your tax year in columns (a) through (d). If the regular due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, enter the next business day.

Line 24

Payments of estimated tax should reflect any 1997 overpayment that the corporation chose to credit against its 1998 tax. The overpayment is credited against unpaid required installments in the order in which the installments are required to be paid.

Annualized income installment method and/or adjusted seasonal installment method.—If the corporation's income is expected to vary during the year because, for example, it operates its business on a seasonal basis, it may be able to lower the amount of one or more required installments by using the annualized income installment method and/or the adjusted seasonal installment method. For example, a ski shop, which receives most of its income during the winter months, may be able to benefit from using one or both of these methods in figuring one or more of its required installments.

To use one or both of these methods to figure one or more required installments, use Schedule A on pages 2 and 3. If Schedule A is used for any payment date, it must be used for all payment due dates. To arrive at the amount of each required installment, Schedule A automatically selects the smallest of (a) the annualized income installment, (b) the adjusted seasonal installment (if applicable), or (c) the regular installment under section 6655(d)(1) (increased by any recapture of a reduction in a required installment under section 6655(e)(1)(B)).

Large corporations.—A large corporation is a corporation that had, or its predecessor had, taxable income of $1 million or more for any of the 3 tax years immediately preceding the 1998 tax year. For this purpose, taxable income is modified to exclude net operating loss or capital loss carrybacks or carryovers. Members of a controlled group, as defined in section 1563, must divide the $1 million amount among themselves according to rules similar to those in section 1561.

If the annualized income installment method or adjusted seasonal installment method is not used, follow the instructions below to figure the amounts to enter on line 24. (If the annualized income installment method and/or the adjusted seasonal installment method are used, these instructions apply to line 37 of Schedule A.)

- If line 21 is smaller than line 22a: Enter 25% of line 21 in columns (a) through (d) of line 24.
- If line 22a is smaller than line 21: Enter 25% of line 22a in column (a) of line 24. In column (b), determine the amount to enter as follows:
 1. Subtract line 22a from line 21,
 2. Add the result to the amount on line 21, and
 3. Multiply the result in 2 above by 25% and enter the result in column (b).
 Enter 25% of line 21 in columns (c) and (d).

Schedule A

If only the annualized income installment method (Part I) is used, complete Parts I and III of Schedule A. If only the adjusted seasonal installment method (Part II) is used, complete Parts II and III. If both methods are used, complete all three parts. Enter in each column on line 24, page 1, the amounts from the corresponding column of line 41.

Caution: Do not figure any required installment until after the end of the month preceding the due date for that installment.

Part I—Annualized Income Installment Method

Line 1

Annualization periods.—Enter in the space on line 1, columns (a) through (d), respectively, the annualization periods that the corporation is using, based on the options listed below. For example, if the corporation elects Option 1, enter on line 1 the annualization periods 2, 4, 7, and 10, in columns (a) through (d), respectively.

Caution: Use Option 1 or Option 2 only if the corporation elected to use one of these options by filing Form 8842, Election To Use Different Annualization Periods for Corporate Estimated Tax, on or before the due date of the first required installment payment. Once made, the election is irrevocable for the particular tax year.

	1st Installment	2nd Installment	3rd Installment	4th Installment
Standard option	3	3	6	9
Option 1 . . .	2	4	7	10
Option 2 . . .	3	5	8	11

Line 2

If a corporation has income includible under section 936(h) (Puerto Rico and possessions tax credits) or section 951(a) (controlled foreign corporation income), special rules apply.

Amounts includible in income under section 936(h) or 951(a) (and allocable credits) generally must be taken into account in figuring the amount of any annualized income installment as the income is earned. The amounts are figured in a manner similar to the way in which partnership income inclusions (and allocable credits) are taken into account in figuring a partner's annualized income installments as provided in Regulations section 1.6654-2(d)(2).

Safe harbor election.—Corporations may be able to elect a prior year safe harbor election. Under the election, an eligible corporation is treated as having received ratably during the tax year items of income under sections 936(h) and 951(a) (and allocable credits) equal to a specified percentage of the amounts shown on the corporation's return for the first preceding tax year (the second preceding tax year for the first and second required installments).

For more information, see section 6655(e)(4) and Rev. Proc. 95-23, 1995-1 C.B. 693.

Line 3

Annualization amounts.—Enter the annualization amounts for the option used on line 1. For example, if the corporation elects Option 1, enter on line 3 the annualization amounts 6, 3, 1.71429, and 1.2, in columns (a) through (d), respectively.

	1st Installment	2nd Installment	3rd Installment	4th Installment
Standard option	4	4	2	1.33333
Option 1 . . .	6	3	1.71429	1.2
Option 2 . . .	4	2.4	1.5	1.09091

Line 6

Enter any other taxes the corporation owed for the months shown in the headings used to figure annualized taxable income. Include the same taxes used to figure lines 17 and 18 of Form 1120-W.

Alternative minimum tax.—Compute the AMT by figuring alternative minimum taxable income under section 55. Alternative minimum taxable income is based on the corporation's income and deductions for the annualization period entered in each column on line 1. Multiply alternative minimum taxable income by the annualization amounts (line 3) used to figure annualized taxable income. Subtract the exemption amount under section 55(d)(2). See Changes To Note for AMT tax law changes.

Line 8

Enter the credits to which the corporation is entitled for the months shown in each column on line 1. Do not annualize any credit. However, when figuring the credits, annualize any item of income or deduction used to figure the credit. For more details, see Rev. Rul. 79-179, 1979-1 C.B. 436. Also see Changes To Note.

Line 12

Before completing line 12 in columns (b) through (d), complete the following items in each of the preceding columns: line 13; Part II (if applicable); and Part III. For example, complete line 13, Part II (if using the adjusted seasonal installment method), and Part III, in column (a) before completing line 12 in column (b).

Part II—Adjusted Seasonal Installment Method

Complete this part only if the corporation's base period percentage for any 6 consecutive months of the tax year equals or exceeds 70%. The base period percentage for any period of 6 consecutive months is the average of the three percentages figured by dividing the taxable income for the corresponding 6-consecutive-month period in each of the 3 preceding tax years by the taxable income for each of their respective tax years.

Example. An amusement park with a calendar year tax year receives the largest part of its taxable income during a 6-month period, May through October. To compute its base period percentage for this 6-month period, the amusement park figures its taxable income for each May–October period in 1995, 1996, and 1997. It then divides the taxable income for each May–October period by the total taxable income for that particular tax year. The resulting percentages are 69% (.69) for May–October 1995, 74% (.74) for May–October 1996, and 67% (.67) for May–October 1997. Because the average of 69%, 74%, and 67% is 70%, the base period percentage for May through October 1998 is 70%. Therefore, the amusement park qualifies for the adjusted seasonal installment method.

Line 30

Enter any other taxes the corporation owed for the months shown in the column headings above line 14 of Part II. Include the same taxes used to figure lines 17 and 18 of Form 1120-W.

Alternative minimum tax.—Compute the AMT by figuring alternative minimum taxable income under section 55.
