A Message From the Commissioner

Dear Taxpayer:

As part of its ongoing efforts to improve customer service, the IRS is working to provide you with even more reliable and helpful assistance for the coming tax filing season. Whether it is in person or on the phone, we want to answer your questions correctly, promptly and courteously. We want to process your return quickly and accurately and make sure that more of you can file by computer and telephone and get information and forms over the Internet. To find out more about the many different services the IRS offers this tax season, see page 6 of this booklet.

Paperless filing is the wave of the future. The IRS is greatly expanding and promoting the use of electronic filing through our e-file program. You can ask a tax professional to e-file your return, or if you prefer, you can file from home using your personal computer. There are also more than 5,000 tax products, including forms, on the IRS Home Page (www.irs.ustreas.gov) that can be downloaded to your computer.

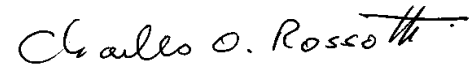

Beginning in January 1999, our phone helpline will also be open for business 24-hours-a-day/seven days a week, all year long. New technology will reduce even further hold time and allow callers to get specific information and help on, for example, the sale of a house, retirement, or job changes.

During the 1998 tax filing season, we offered more walk-in office hours at locations and times convenient to you. We will expand this option beginning in January with walk-in service on 13 Saturdays at 250 sites across the nation.

We will continue to hold Problem Solving Days every month throughout the year when taxpayers can sit down and meet face-to-face with an IRS representative to help resolve a particular problem. When and where a Problem Solving Day will be held near you can be found on the IRS Home Page at www.irs.ustreas.gov and the events are publicized in local newspapers and on radio and television.

We still have a ways to go before we can provide world class customer service but we are taking some important steps in the right direction. We have also begun a multi-year modernization of the IRS with customer service as its focus and the goal of giving America's taxpayers the services they expect and deserve.

Sincerely,

Charles O. Rossotti

The IRS Mission

Provide America's taxpayers top quality service by helping them understand and meet their tax responsibilities and by applying the tax law with integrity and fairness to all.

IRS Customer Service Standards

At the IRS our goal is to continually improve the quality of our services. To achieve that goal, we have developed customer service standards in the following areas:

- Easier filing
- Access to information
- Accuracy

- Prompt refunds
- Initial contact resolution
- Canceling penalties
- Resolving problems
- Simpler forms

If you would like information about the IRS standards and a report of our accomplishments, see Pub. 2183.

IRS e-file. Click. Zip. Fast Round Trip!

Take advantage of the benefits of IRS e-file!

- Get your REFUND in half the time
- Take advantage of the FASTEST and most ACCURATE way possible to file your tax return (thereby reducing your likelihood of receiving an error notice)
- Get PROOF your return has been accepted
- File your Federal and state tax returns together
- New this year—Pay your balance due electronically when you use an authorized IRS e-file provider or when you e-file from your home computer.

IRS e-file means a fast refund—even faster with Direct Deposit!

Look for this sign! An authorized IRS e-file provider can prepare AND e-file your return or e-file a tax return you have prepared yourself.

IRS e-file From Your Personal Computer

File electronically from your home using tax preparation software, a personal computer, and a modem. Check out the IRS web site at www.irs.ustreas.gov for a list of companies who participate in this IRS e-file program. You can also find a listing of partnerships the IRS has with private sector companies offering low-cost IRS e-file options.

IRS e-file By Phone

10 minutes is all it takes to file your tax return with a touch tone phone through TeleFile. This system is FREE, available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week for those taxpayers who receive the TeleFile Tax Package.

Get all the details on page 12.

"People are quickly discovering how easy it is to take care of their taxes by telephone or personal computer. This year millions will file electronically and millions more will get tax information by computer or telephone. Beginning in 1999, if you file electronically you can also pay your balance due electronically. These are some of the ways the IRS is providing the same ease and convenience you have come to expect from firms in the private sector."

Robert E. Barr, Assistant Commissioner, Electronic Tax Administration, IRS

What Is TeleTax?

Call TeleTax at 1-800-829-4477 and you can get:
Refund information. Check the status of your 1998 refund.

Recorded tax information. There are about 150 topics that answer many Federal tax questions. You can listen to up to three topics on each call you make.

Then, call 1-800-829-4477 and follow the recorded instructions.

The IRS updates refund information every 7 days, over the weekend. Refunds are sent out weekly, on Fridays. If you call to check the status of your refund and are not given the date it will be issued, please wait until the next week before calling back.

How Do You Use TeleTax?

Refund Information

Note: Refund information is not available until at least 4 weeks after you file your return (3 weeks if you file electronically), and sometimes is not available for up to 6 weeks. Please wait at least 4 weeks before calling to check on the status of your refund. If it has been more than 6 weeks and TeleTax does not give you a refund issuance date, please call us. See page 10.

Be sure to have a copy of your 1998 tax return available because you will need to know the first social security number shown on your return, the filing status, and the exact whole-dollar amount of your refund.

Recorded Tax Information

Recorded tax information is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Select the number of the topic you want to hear. Then, call 1-800-829-4477. Have paper and pencil handy to take notes.

Topics by Personal Computer

TeleTax topics are also available using a personal computer and modem (connect to www.irs.ustreas.gov).

Calling the IRS

If you cannot answer your question by using one of the methods listed on page 6, please call us for assistance at 1-800-829-1040. You will not be charged for the call unless your phone company charges you for local calls. This service is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

If you want to check on the status of your 1998 refund, call TeleTax. See page 8 for the number.

Before You Call

IRS representatives care about the quality of the service we provide to you, our customer. You can help us provide accurate, complete answers to your questions by having the following information available.

- The tax form, schedule, or notice to which your question relates.
- The facts about your particular situation. The answer to the same question often varies from one taxpayer to another because of differences in their age, income, whether they can be claimed as a dependent, etc.
- The name of any IRS publication or other source of information that you used to look for the answer.

To maintain your account security, you may be asked for the following information, which you should also have available.

- Your social security number, date of birth, or personal identification number (PIN) if you have one.
- The amount of refund and filing status shown on your tax return, the "Caller ID Number" shown at the top of any notice you received, the numbers in your street address, or your ZIP code.

If you are asking for an installment agreement to pay your tax, you will be asked for the highest amount you can pay each month and the date on which you can pay it.

Evaluation of Services Provided. The IRS uses several methods to evaluate the quality of this telephone service. One method is for a second IRS representative to sometimes listen in on or record telephone calls. Another is to ask some callers to complete a short survey at the end of the call.

Making the Call

Call 1-800-829-1040. (For TTY/TDD help, call 1-800-829-4059.) If you have a pulse or rotary dial phone, stay on the line and one of our assisters will answer.

If you have a touch-tone phone, press 1 to enter our automated system. You can press the number for your topic as soon as you hear it. The system will direct you to the appropriate assistance. You may not need to speak to a representative to get your answers. You can do the following within the system.

- Order tax forms and publications.
  - Find out the status of your refund or what you owe.
  - Determine if we have adjusted your account or received payments you made.
  - Request a transcript of your account.

Before You Hang Up

If you do not fully understand the answer you receive, or you feel our representative may not fully understand your question, our representative needs to know this. He or she will be happy to take additional time to be sure your question is answered fully.

By law, you are responsible for paying your share of Federal income tax. If we should make an error in answering your question, you are still responsible for the payment of the correct tax. Should this occur, however, you will not be charged any penalty.

Before You Fill In Form 1040A

For details on these and other changes, see Pub. 553 or see What's Hot at www.irs.ustreas.gov.

What's New for 1998?

Put Your Social Security Number on Form 1040A!

To protect your privacy, your social security number (SSN) is not printed on the peel-off label that came in the mail with this booklet. This means that you must now enter your SSN in the space provided on page 1 of Form 1040A. If you are married filing a joint return, also enter your spouse's SSN. Be sure to list the SSNs in the same order as the first names.

If you are married filing a joint return, make sure you list the names and SSNs in the same order each year.

New Child Tax Credits

Do you have a child who was under age 17 at the end of 1998?

If so, you may be able to claim either or both of these new credits:

- The Child Tax Credit
- The Additional Child Tax Credit

The total of these credits cannot be more than $400 for each qualifying child. Figure the child tax credit first. If you have three or more qualifying children and you are not able to claim the full $400 child tax credit for each child, you may be able to claim the additional credit.

The additional child tax credit is refundable; that is, it may give you a refund even if you do not owe any tax.

These credits are in addition to the child and dependent care credit and the earned income credit that you may be able to claim.

Who Is a Qualifying Child? The child must be your dependent and must meet certain other requirements. See Qualifying Child for Child Tax Credit in the instructions for line 6c, column (4), on page 22.

Caution: If the child meets those requirements, check the box in column (4) on line 6c of your return.

Where Do You Claim These Credits?

Child Tax Credit. If you have at least one qualifying child, follow the instructions on page 32 and figure the credit on the Child Tax Credit Worksheet. Do not attach the worksheet to your return. Enter the credit on Form 1040A, line 28.

Additional Child Tax Credit. Use Form 8812 to figure this credit and attach it to your return. Enter the additional child tax credit on Form 1040A, line 38.

Student Loan Interest Deduction

If you paid interest on a qualified student loan, you may be able to deduct up to $1,000 of the interest on line 16. See the instructions for line 16 on page 28.

Education Credits

You may be able to take the Hope credit for tuition and related expenses paid for yourself, your spouse, or dependents to enroll at or attend an eligible educational institution. For qualified expenses paid after June 30, 1998, you may be able to take the lifetime learning credit. These credits are reported on line 29. The Hope credit only applies to the first 2 years of postsecondary education. Use Form 8863 to figure the credits.

IRA Deduction Restored for Some People Covered by Retirement Plans

You may be able to take an IRA deduction if you were covered by a retirement plan and your modified AGI (adjusted gross income) is less than: $40,000 if single, head of household, or married filing separately and you lived apart from your spouse for all of 1998; $60,000 if married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er). If you are married filing jointly and you were not covered by a plan but your spouse was, you may be able take a deduction if the modified AGI on the joint return is less than $160,000. See the instructions for line 15 on page 28.

Roth Conversion IRAs

If you converted part or all of a traditional, SEP, or SIMPLE IRA to a Roth IRA in 1998, you may have to file Form 8606. See Form 8606 and its instructions for details.

Penalty-Free IRA Distributions

The additional tax on an early distribution from an IRA may not apply if you paid higher education expenses for yourself, your spouse, or your children or grandchildren. The tax also may not apply if you paid expenses related to the purchase of a home by a first-time homebuyer. See Form 5329 and its instructions for details.

Estimated Tax Penalty

You generally will not owe an estimated tax penalty if the amount you owe on line 43 is less than $1,000. See the instructions for line 44 on page 44.

Household Employment Taxes

You cannot file Form 1040A if you owe household employment taxes on wages you paid to a household employee. Instead, you must file Form 1040 and Schedule H. To find out if you owe these taxes, use TeleTax topic 756 (see page 8).

Earned Income Credit (EIC)

You may be able to take this credit if you earned less than $30,095 (less than $10,030 if you do not have any qualifying children). See the instructions for lines 37a and 37b that begin on page 36.

Credit for Federal Tax Paid on Kerosene

If you bought undyed kerosene after June 30, 1998, for heating or certain other nonhighway uses, you may be able to take a credit of 24.4 cents for each gallon. But you must use Form 4136 and Form 1040 to do so. You can get a refund even if you do not owe tax.

Payment of Tax

If you owe tax, make your check or money order payable to the "United States Treasury." See the instructions for line 43 on page 44 for more details.

Daytime Phone Number on Form 1040A

We have added a space on page 2 of Form 1040A for your daytime phone number. Providing your phone number may help speed the processing of your return if we have a question that can be answered over the phone. However, you do not have to enter your number. If you are filing a joint return, you may enter either your or your spouse's daytime phone number.

What To Look for in 1999

Child Tax Credit

The total of the child tax credit and the additional child tax credit can be as much as $500 for each qualifying child.

Student Loan Interest Deduction

You may be able to deduct up to $1,500 of the interest you pay on a qualified student loan.

IRA Deductions Allowed to More People Covered by Retirement Plans

You may be able to take an IRA deduction if you are covered by a retirement plan and your 1999 modified adjusted gross income is less than: $41,000 if single, head of household, or married filing separately and you live apart from your spouse for all of 1999; $61,000 if married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er).

Explore IRS e-file!

Millions of people just like you file their tax returns electronically using an IRS e-file option because they offer:

- A fast refund in half the time — even faster with Direct Deposit.
- Faster processing and increased accuracy.
- An acknowledgment of IRS receipt within 48 hours.
- The ability to pay your balance due electronically and specify the date the money is debited from your bank account.

In many cases, IRS e-file options allow you to file your state tax return with your Federal return. What's more, with IRS e-file, your return is less likely to have errors therefore lessening your chances of receiving a letter from IRS. Here's how you can participate with IRS e-file:

Use an Authorized IRS e-file Provider

Many tax professionals file returns electronically for their clients. You can prepare your own return and have a professional transmit it electronically or you can have your return both prepared AND transmitted electronically. Look for the "AUTHORIZED IRS e-file PROVIDER" sign. Tax professionals may charge a fee to e-file your return and fees may vary depending on the professional and the specific services requested.

This year, if you owe money with your return, you may take advantage of paying your balance due electronically. This option allows you to file your return electronically now and authorize the debit of your bank account on the date you select—any time up to April 15th.

Use A Personal Computer

If you have a modem, personal computer, and tax preparation software, you can e-file your tax return from the convenience of your home. Tax preparation software is available at your local computer retailer or through various web sites over the Internet. Through a tax return transmitter, you can file 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. A tax return transmitter may charge a fee for transmitting your return.

Check out the IRS web site at www.irs.ustreas.gov for a list of companies who participate in this IRS e-file program. You can also find a listing of partnerships that the IRS has entered into with private sector companies to provide low-cost IRS e-file options. You may also take advantage of paying your balance due electronically now and authorize the debit of your bank account on the date you select—any time up to April 15th.

Visit a VITA/TCE Site

The IRS offers FREE Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) and Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE) programs. Many of these sites also offer IRS e-file. See page 46 for details on these programs.

Ask Your Employer or Financial Institution

Some businesses offer IRS e-file FREE to their employees as a benefit. Others offer it for a fee to customers. Ask your employer or financial institution if they offer electronic filing. If they don't, why not suggest that they offer it as a benefit or service?

Use a Phone

For millions of eligible taxpayers, TeleFile is the easiest way to file. The call only takes about 10 minutes! It allows taxpayers to file simple Federal tax returns using a touch-tone telephone. It's completely paperless. Eligible taxpayers will automatically receive the TeleFile Tax Package in the mail. Parents!: If your children receive a TeleFile Tax Package, please encourage them to use TeleFile!

What if a Taxpayer Died?

If a taxpayer died before filing a return for 1998, the taxpayer's spouse or personal representative may have to file and sign a return for that taxpayer. A personal representative can be an executor, administrator, or anyone who is in charge of the deceased taxpayer's property.

If the deceased taxpayer did not have to file a return but had tax withheld, a return must be filed to get a refund. The person who files the return should enter "DECEASED," the deceased taxpayer's name, and the date of death across the top of the return.

If your spouse died in 1998 and you did not remarry in 1998, or if your spouse died in 1999 before filing a return for 1998, you can file a joint return. A joint return should show your spouse's 1998 income before death and your income for all of 1998. Enter "Filing as surviving spouse" in the area where you sign the return. If someone else is the personal representative, he or she must also sign.

The surviving spouse or personal representative should promptly notify all payers of income, including financial institutions, of the taxpayer's death. This will ensure the proper reporting of income earned by the taxpayer's estate or heirs. A deceased taxpayer's social security number should not be used for tax years after the year of death, except for estate tax return purposes.

Claiming a Refund for a Deceased Taxpayer. If you are filing a joint return as a surviving spouse, you only need to file the tax return to claim the refund. If you are a court-appointed representative, file the return and attach a copy of the certificate that shows your appointment. All other filers requesting the deceased taxpayer's refund must file the return and attach Form 1310.

For more details, use TeleTax topic 356 (see page 8) or see Pub. 559.

What Are the Filing Dates, Penalties, and Extensions?

If you were a participant in Operation Joint Guard or Operation Joint Forge or you were in the Persian Gulf area combat zone, see Pub. 3.

When Is Your Tax Return Due?

Not later than April 15, 1999.

What if You Cannot File on Time?

You can get an automatic 4-month extension by filing Form 4868 with the IRS by April 15, 1999. If you later find that you still need more time, Form 2688 may get you an additional extension. However, even if you get an extension, the tax you owe is still due April 15, 1999. If you make a payment with Form 4868 or Form 2688, see the instructions for line 39 on page 43.

What if You File or Pay Late?

The IRS can charge you interest and penalties on the amount you owe.

If you file late, the penalty is usually 5% of the amount due for each month or part of a month your return is late, unless you have a reasonable explanation. If you do, attach it to your return. The penalty cannot usually be more than 25% of the tax due. We will charge you interest on the penalty from the due date of the return (including extensions). If your return is more than 60 days late, the minimum penalty will be $100 or the amount of any tax you owe, whichever is smaller.

If you pay your taxes late, the penalty is usually 1/2 of 1% of the unpaid amount for each month or part of a month the tax is not paid. The penalty cannot be more than 25% of the unpaid amount. It applies to any unpaid tax on the return.

Are There Other Penalties?

Yes. Other penalties can be imposed for negligence, substantial understatement of tax, and fraud. We will charge you interest on these penalties from the due date of the return (including extensions). Criminal penalties may be imposed for willful failure to file, tax evasion, or making a false statement. See Pub. 17 for details.

In addition to any other penalties, the law imposes a penalty of $500 for filing a frivolous return. A frivolous return is one that does not contain information needed to figure the correct tax or shows a substantially incorrect tax, because you take a frivolous position or desire to delay or interfere with the tax laws. This includes altering or striking out the preprinted language above the space where you sign.

Where Do You File?

See the back cover for filing instructions and addresses.

Private Delivery Services. You can use certain private delivery services designated by the IRS to meet the "timely mailing as timely filing/paying" rule for tax returns and payments. The IRS publishes a list of the designated private delivery services in September of each year. The list published in September 1998 includes only the following:

- Airborne Express (Airborne): Overnight Air Express Service, Next Afternoon Service, and Second Day Service.
- DHL Worldwide Express (DHL): DHL "Same Day" Service, and DHL USA Overnight.
- Federal Express (FedEx): FedEx Priority Overnight, FedEx Standard Overnight, and FedEx 2Day.
- United Parcel Service (UPS): UPS Next Day Air, UPS Next Day Air Saver, UPS 2nd Day Air, and UPS 2nd Day Air A.M.

The private delivery service can tell you how to get written proof of the mailing date.

Caution: Private delivery services cannot deliver items to P.O. boxes. You must use the U.S. Postal Service to mail any item to an IRS P.O. box address.

How Do You Get a Copy of Your Tax Return?

If you need a copy of your tax return, use Form 4506. If you have questions about your account, call or write your local IRS office. If you want a printed copy of your account, it will be mailed to you free of charge.

Filing Requirements

Do You Have To File?

Note: These rules apply to all U.S. citizens, regardless of where they live, and resident aliens.

Use Chart A, B, or C to see if you must file a return.

Even if you do not otherwise have to file a return, you should file one to get a refund of any Federal income tax withheld. You should also file if you are eligible for the earned income credit or the additional child tax credit.

Exception for Children Under Age 14. If you are planning to file a return for your child who was under age 14 on January 1, 1999, and certain other conditions apply, you may elect to include your child's income on your return. But you must use Form 1040 and Form 8814 to do so. If you make this election, your child does not have to file a return. For details, use TeleTax topic 553 (see page 8) or see Form 8814.

Nonresident Aliens and Dual-Status Aliens. These rules also apply to nonresident aliens and dual-status aliens who were married to U.S. citizens or residents at the end of 1998 and who have elected to be taxed as resident aliens. Other nonresident aliens and dual-status aliens have different filing requirements. They may have to file Form 1040NR or Form 1040NR-EZ. Specific rules apply to determine if you are a resident or nonresident alien. See Pub. 519 for details, including the rules for students and scholars who are aliens.

Chart A—For Most People

IF your filing status is . . .	AND at the end of 1998 you were* . . .	THEN file a return if your gross income was at least . . .
Single	under 65 65 or older	$6,950 8,000
Married filing jointly	under 65 (both spouses) 65 or older (one spouse) 65 or older (both spouses)	$12,500 13,350 14,200
Married filing separately	any age	$2,700
Head of household (see page 20)	under 65 65 or older	$8,950 10,000
Qualifying widow(er) with dependent child (see page 21)	under 65 65 or older	$9,800 10,650

* If you turned 65 on January 1, 1999, you are considered to be age 65 at the end of 1998.

** Gross income means all income you received in the form of money, goods, property, and services that is not exempt from tax, including any income from sources outside the United States (even if you may exclude all or part of it). Do not include social security benefits unless you are married filing a separate return and you lived with your spouse at any time during 1998.

*** If you did not live with your spouse at the end of 1998 (or on the date your spouse died) and your gross income was at least $2,700, you must file a return regardless of your age.

Chart B—For Children and Other Dependents

(See the instructions for line 6c that begin on page 21 to find out if someone can claim you as a dependent.)

---

If your parent (or someone else) can claim you as a dependent, use this chart to see if you must file a return.

In this chart, unearned income includes taxable interest and dividends. Earned income includes wages, tips, and taxable scholarship and fellowship grants.

Caution: If your gross income was $2,700 or more, you usually cannot be claimed as a dependent unless you were under age 19 or a student under age 24. For details, see Test 4—Income on page 21.

Single dependents. Were you either age 65 or older or blind?

No. You must file a return if any of the following apply.

- Your unearned income was over $700.
- Your earned income was over $4,250.
- The total of your unearned and earned income was more than the larger of—

This amount:
$700

OR

This amount:
Your earned income
(up to $4,000) plus $250

Yes. You must file a return if any of the following apply.

- Your earned income was over $5,300 ($6,350 if 65 or older and blind).
- Your unearned income was over $1,750 ($2,800 if 65 or older and blind).
- Your gross income was more than—

The larger of:

PLUS

This amount:

- $700, or
- Your earned income (up to $4,000) plus $250.

$1,050 ($2,100 if 65
or older and blind)

Married dependents. Were you either age 65 or older or blind?

No. You must file a return if any of the following apply.

- Your gross income was at least $5 and your spouse files a separate return and itemizes deductions.
- Your unearned income was over $700.
- Your earned income was over $3,550.
- The total of your unearned and earned income was more than the larger of—

This amount:
$700

OR

This amount:
Your earned income
(up to $3,300) plus $250

Yes. You must file a return if any of the following apply.

- Your earned income was over $4,400 ($5,250 if 65 or older and blind).
- Your unearned income was over $1,550 ($2,400 if 65 or older and blind).
- Your gross income was at least $5 and your spouse files a separate return and itemizes deductions.
- Your gross income was more than—

The larger of:

PLUS

This amount:

- $700, or
- Your earned income (up to $3,300) plus $250.

$850 ($1,700 if 65
or older and blind)

Chart C—Other Situations When You Must File

You must also file a return if you received any advance earned income credit (EIC) payments from your employer. These payments should be shown in box 9 of your W-2 form.

You must file a return using Form 1040 if any of the following apply for 1998.

- You owe any special taxes, such as social security and Medicare tax on tips you did not report to your employer.
- You owe uncollected social security and Medicare or RRTA tax on tips you reported to your employer or on your group-term life insurance.
- You had net earnings from self-employment of at least $400.
- You earned wages of $108.28 or more from a church or a qualified church-controlled organization that is exempt from employer social security and Medicare taxes.
- You owe tax on a qualified retirement plan, including an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), or on a medical savings account (MSA). But if you are filing a return only because you owe the tax on a qualified retirement plan, you can file Form 5329 by itself.

Would It Help You To Itemize Deductions on Form 1040?

You may be able to reduce your tax by itemizing deductions on Schedule A (Form 1040). Itemized deductions include amounts you paid for state and local income taxes, real estate taxes, mortgage interest, and medical expenses. You may also include gifts to charity. You would usually benefit by itemizing if—

Your filing status is:	AND	Your itemized deductions are more than:
Single
● Under 65		● $4,250
● 65 or older or blind		● 5,300
● 65 or older and blind		● 6,350

* If you can take an exemption for your spouse, see Standard Deduction Chart for People Age 65 or Older or Blind on page 31 for the amount that applies to you.

If someone can claim you as a dependent, it would benefit you to itemize deductions if they total more than your standard deduction figured on the Standard Deduction Worksheet for Dependents on page 31.

Where To Report Certain Items From 1998 Forms W-2, 1098, and 1099

Who Can Use Form 1040A?

You can use Form 1040A if all five of the following apply.

1. You only had income from the following sources:
  - Wages, salaries, tips
  - Interest and ordinary dividends
  - Taxable scholarship and fellowship grants
  - Pensions, annuities, and IRAs
  - Unemployment compensation
  - Taxable social security and railroad retirement benefits
  - Alaska Permanent Fund dividends
2. The only adjustments to income you can claim are
  - IRA deduction
  - Student loan interest deduction

3. You do not itemize deductions.
4. Your taxable income (line 24) is less than $50,000.
5. The only tax credits you can claim are:
  - Child tax credit
  - Additional child tax credit
  - Education credits
  - Earned income credit
  - Credit for child and dependent care expenses
  - Credit for the elderly or the disabled
  - Adoption credit

You can also use Form 1040A if you received advance earned income credit (EIC) payments or you owe the alternative minimum tax.

When Must You Use Form 1040?

---

You must use Form 1040 if any of the following apply.

1. You received any of the following types of income:
  - Income from self-employment (business or farm income)
  - Certain tips you did not report to your employer. See Tip income on page 23
  - Capital gain distributions
  - Nontaxable distributions required to be reported as capital gains
  - Income received as a partner in a partnership, shareholder in an S corporation, or a beneficiary of an estate or trust
2. You received or paid interest on securities transferred between interest payment dates.
3. You can exclude either of the following types of income:
  - Foreign earned income you received as a U.S. citizen or resident alien
  - Certain income received from sources in a U.S. possession if you were a bona fide resident of American Samoa for all of 1998
4. You had a financial account in a foreign country, such as a bank account or securities account. Exception. If the combined value of the accounts was $10,000 or less during all of 1998 or if the accounts were with a U.S. military banking facility operated by a U.S. financial institution, you may file Form 1040A.
5. You received a distribution from a foreign trust.
6. You are reporting original issue discount (OID) in an amount more or less than the amount shown on Form 1099-OID.
7. You owe household employment taxes.

Line Instructions for Form 1040A

---

Name and Address

Use the Peel-Off Label

Using your peel-off name and address label in this booklet will speed the processing of your return. It also prevents common errors that can delay refunds or result in unnecessary notices. Attach the label to your return after you have finished it. Cross out any errors and print the correct information. Add any missing items, such as your apartment number.

Address Change. If the address on your peel-off label is not your current address, cross out the old address and print your new address. If you plan to move after filing your return, see page 45.

Name Change. If you changed your name, be sure to report the change to your local Social Security Administration office before you file your return. This prevents delays in processing your return and issuing refunds. It also safeguards your future social security benefits. If you received a peel-off label, cross out your former name and print your new name.

Need More Information or Forms? You can use a personal computer, fax, or phone to get what you need. See page 6.

What if You Do Not Have a Label? Print or type the information in the spaces provided. If you are married filing a separate return, enter your husband's or wife's name on line 3 instead of below your name.

If you filed a joint return for 1997 and you are filing a joint return for 1998 with the same spouse, be sure to enter your names and SSNs in the same order as on your 1997 return.

P.O. Box. Enter your box number instead of your street address only if your post office does not deliver mail to your home.

Foreign Address. Enter the information in the following order: city, province or state, and country. Follow the country's practice for entering the postal code. Please do not abbreviate the country name.

Social Security Number (SSN)

An incorrect or missing SSN may increase your tax or reduce your refund. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5 from your local Social Security Administration (SSA) office or call the SSA at 1-800-772-1213. Fill in Form SS-5 and return it to the SSA. It usually takes about 2 weeks to get an SSN.

Check that your SSN is correct on your Forms W-2 and 1099. See page 46 for more details.

IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Numbers (ITINs) for Aliens. The IRS will issue you an ITIN if you are a nonresident or resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN. To apply for an ITIN, file Form W-7 with the IRS. It usually takes about 30 days to get an ITIN. Enter your ITIN wherever your SSN is requested on your tax return.

Note: An ITIN is for tax use only. It does not entitle you to social security benefits or change your employment or immigration status under U.S. law.

Nonresident Alien Spouse. If your spouse is a nonresident alien and you file a joint or separate return, your spouse must have either an SSN or an ITIN.

Presidential Election Campaign Fund

This fund helps pay for Presidential election campaigns. The fund reduces candidates' dependence on large contributions from individuals and groups and places candidates on an equal financial footing in the general election.

If you want $3 to go to this fund, check the "Yes" box. If you are filing a joint return, your spouse may also have $3 go to the fund. If you check "Yes," your tax or refund will not change.

Filing Status

Check only the filing status that applies to you. The ones that will usually give you the lowest tax are listed last.

- Married filing separately

- Single
- Head of household
- Married filing jointly or Qualifying widow(er) with dependent child

More than one filing status may apply to you. Choose the one that will give you the lowest tax.

Line 1

Single

You may check the box on line 1 if any of the following was true on December 31, 1998:

- You were never married, or
- You were legally separated, according to your state law, under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance, or
- You were widowed before January 1, 1998, and did not remarry in 1998.

Line 2

Married Filing Jointly

You may check the box on line 2 if any of the following is true:

- You were married as of December 31, 1998, even if you did not live with your spouse at the end of 1998, or
- Your spouse died in 1998 and you did not remarry in 1998, or
- Your spouse died in 1999 before filing a 1998 return.

A husband and wife may file a joint return even if only one had income or if they did not live together all year. However, both persons must sign the return. If you file a joint return for 1998, you may not, after the due date for filing that return, amend it to file as married filing separately.

Joint and Several Tax Liability. If you file a joint return, both you and your spouse are generally responsible for the tax and any interest or penalties due on the return. This means that if one spouse does not pay the tax due, the other may have to. However, see Innocent Spouse Relief on page 45.

Nonresident Aliens and Dual-Status Aliens. You may be able to file a joint return. See Pub. 519 for details.

Line 3

Married Filing Separately

If you are married and file a separate return, you will usually pay more tax than if you file a joint return. Generally, you report only your own income, exemptions, deductions, and credits. Different rules apply to people in community property states. See page 23.

You may be able to file as head of household if you had a child living with you and you lived apart from your spouse during the last 6 months of 1998. See Married Persons Who Live Apart on this page.

Line 4

Head of Household

This filing status is for unmarried individuals who provide a home for certain other persons. (Some married persons who live apart may also qualify. See this page.) You may check the box on line 4 only if as of December 31, 1998, you were unmarried or legally separated (according to your state law) under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance and either 1 or 2 below apply to you.

1. You paid over half the cost of keeping up a home that was the main home for all of 1998 of your parent whom you can claim as a dependent. Your parent did not have to live with you in your home; or
2. You paid over half the cost of keeping up a home in which you lived and in which one of the following also lived for more than half of the year (if half or less, see the Exception on this page).
  - Your unmarried child, adopted child, grandchild, great-grandchild, etc., or stepchild. This child does not have to be your dependent. But in this case, enter the child's name in the space provided on line 4. If you do not enter the name, it will take us longer to process your return.
  - Your married child, adopted child, grandchild, great-grandchild, etc., or stepchild. This child must be your dependent. But if your married child's other parent claims him or her as a dependent under the rules for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents on page 22, this child does not have to be your dependent. Enter the child's name on line 4. If you do not enter the name, it will take us longer to process your return.
  - Your foster child, who must be your dependent.
  - Any other relative you can claim as a dependent. For the definition of a relative, see

Test 1—Relationship on the next page. But for this purpose, the Exception at the end of that test does not apply.

Note: You cannot file as head of household if your child, parent, or relative described earlier is your dependent under the rules on page 22 for Person Supported by Two or More Taxpayers.

Married Persons Who Live Apart. Even if you were not divorced or legally separated in 1998, you may be able to file as head of household. You may check the box on line 4 if all five of the following apply.

1. You must have lived apart from your spouse for the last 6 months of 1998. Caution: Temporary absences for special circumstances, such as for business, medical care, school, or military service, count as time lived in the home.
2. You file a separate return from your spouse.
3. You paid over half the cost of keeping up your home for 1998.
4. Your home was the main home of your child, adopted child, stepchild, or foster child for more than half of 1998 (if half or less, see the Exception below).
5. You claim this child as your dependent or the child's other parent claims him or her under the rules for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents on page 22. If this child is not your dependent, be sure to enter the child's name on line 4. If you do not enter the name, it will take us longer to process your return.

If all five apply, you may be able to take the student loan interest deduction, the credit for child and dependent care expenses, an education credit, and the earned income credit. You can also take the standard deduction even if your spouse itemizes deductions. For more details, see the instructions for these topics.

Keeping Up a Home. To find out what is included in the cost of keeping up a home, see Pub. 501.

If you used payments you received under Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (formerly Aid to Families With Dependent Children (AFDC)) or other public assistance programs to pay part of the cost of keeping up your home, you cannot count them as money you paid. However, you must include them in the total cost of keeping up your home to figure if you paid over half of the cost.

Dependent. To find out if someone is your dependent, see the instructions for line 6c.

Exception. You can count temporary absences, such as for school, vacation, or medical care, as time lived in the home. If the person for whom you kept up a home was born or died in 1998, you may still file as head of household as long as the home was that person's main home for the part of the year he or she was alive.

Need More Information or Forms? You can use a personal computer, fax, or phone to get what you need. See page 6.

Line 5

Qualifying Widow(er) With Dependent Child

You may check the box on line 5 and use joint return tax rates for 1998 if all five of the following apply.

1. Your spouse died in 1996 or 1997 and you did not remarry in 1998.
2. You have a child, adopted child, stepchild, or foster child whom you claim as a dependent.
3. This child lived in your home for all of 1998. Temporary absences, such as for school, vacation, or medical care, count as time lived in the home.
4. You paid over half the cost of keeping up your home.
5. You could have filed a joint return with your spouse the year he or she died, even if you did not actually do so.

If your spouse died in 1998, you may not file as qualifying widow(er) with dependent child. Instead, see the instructions for line 2.

Exemptions

For each exemption you can take, you can deduct $2,700 on line 23.

Line 6b

Spouse

Check the box on line 6b if you file either (1) a joint return, or (2) a separate return and your spouse had no income and is not filing a return. However, do not check the box if your spouse can be claimed as a dependent on another person's return. If you were divorced or legally separated at the end of 1998, you cannot take an exemption for your former spouse. If, at the end of 1998, your divorce was not final (an interlocutory decree), you are considered married for the whole year.

Death of Your Spouse. If your spouse died in 1998 and you did not remarry by the end of 1998, check the box on line 6b if you could have taken an exemption for your spouse on the date of death. For other filing instructions, see What if a Taxpayer Died? on page 13.

Line 6c

Dependents

You can take an exemption for each of your dependents who was alive during some part of 1998. This includes a baby born in 1998 or a person who died in 1998. For more details, see Pub. 501. Any person who meets all five of the following tests qualifies as your dependent.

If you have more than seven dependents, attach a statement to your return with the required information.

Test 1—Relationship

The person must be your relative. But see Exception at the end of this test, Test 1. The following people are considered your relatives:

- Your child, stepchild, adopted child; a child who lived in your home as a family member if placed with you by an authorized placement agency for legal adoption; or a foster child (any child who lived in your home as a family member for the whole year).
- Your grandchild, great-grandchild, etc.
- Your son-in-law, daughter-in-law.
- Your parent, stepparent, parent-in-law.
- Your grandparent, great-grandparent, etc.
- Your brother, sister, half brother, half sister, stepbrother, stepsister, brother-in-law, sister-in-law.
- Your aunt, uncle, nephew, niece if related by blood.

Any relationships established by marriage are not treated as ended by divorce or death.

Exception. A person who lived in your home as a family member for the entire year can also be considered a dependent. However, the relationship must not violate local law.

Test 2—Married Person

If the person is married and files a joint return, you cannot take an exemption for the person.

If the person and the person's spouse file a joint return only to get a refund of all tax withheld, you may be able to claim him or her if the other four tests are met. See Pub. 501 for details.

Test 3—Citizen or Resident

The person must be one of the following:

- A U.S. citizen or resident alien, or
- A resident of Canada or Mexico, or
- Your adopted child who is not a U.S. citizen but who lived with you all year in a foreign country.

To find out who is a resident alien, use TeleTax Topic 851 (see page 8) or see Pub. 519.

Test 4—Income

Generally, the person's gross income must be less than $2,700. Gross income does not include nontaxable income, such as welfare benefits or nontaxable social security benefits. Income earned by a permanently and totally disabled person for services performed at a sheltered workshop school is generally not included for purposes of the income test. See Pub. 501 for details.

Exception for Your Child. Your child can have gross income of $2,700 or more if he or she was:

1. Under age 19 at the end of 1998, or

2. Under age 24 at the end of 1998 and was a student.

Your child was a student if during any 5 months of 1998 he or she—

- Was enrolled as a full-time student at a school, or
- Took a full-time, on-farm training course. The course had to be given by a school or a state, county, or local government agency.

A school includes technical, trade, and mechanical schools. It does not include on-the-job training courses, correspondence schools, or night schools.

Test 5—Support

The general rule is that you had to provide over half the person's total support in 1998. If you file a joint return, support can come from either spouse. If you remarried, the support provided by your new spouse is treated as support coming from you. For exceptions to the support test, see Children of Divorced or Separated Parents and Person Supported by Two or More Taxpayers on this page.

Support includes food, a place to live, clothing, medical and dental care, and education. It also includes items such as a car and furniture, but only if they are for the person's own use or benefit. In figuring total support:

- Use the actual cost of these items. But you should figure the cost of a place to live at its fair rental value.
- Include money the person used for his or her own support, even if this money was not taxable. Examples are gifts, savings, social security and welfare benefits, and other public assistance payments. This support is treated as not coming from you.

Support does not include items such as income tax, social security and Medicare tax, life insurance premiums, scholarship grants, or funeral expenses.

If you care for a foster child, see Pub. 501 for special rules that apply.

Children of Divorced or Separated Parents. Special rules apply to determine if the support test is met for children of divorced or separated parents. The rules also apply to children of parents who lived apart during the last 6 months of the year, even if they do not have a separation agreement. For these rules, a custodial parent is the parent who had custody of the child for most of the year. A noncustodial parent is the parent who had custody for the shorter period of time or who did not have custody at all. See Pub. 501 for the definition of custody.

The general rule is that the custodial parent is treated as having provided over half of the child's total support if both parents together paid over half of the child's support. This means that the custodial parent can claim the child as a dependent if the other dependency tests are also met.

But if you are the noncustodial parent, you are treated as having provided over half of the child's support and can claim the child as a dependent if both parents together paid over half of the child's support, the other dependency tests are met, and either 1 or 2 below applies.

1. The custodial parent agrees not to claim the child's exemption for 1998 by signing Form 8332 or a similar statement. But you (as the noncustodial parent) must attach this signed Form 8332 or similar statement to your return. Instead of attaching Form 8332, you can attach a copy of certain pages of your divorce decree or separation agreement if it went into effect after 1984 (see Children Who Did Not Live With You Due to Divorce or Separation on the next page), or
2. Your divorce decree or written separation agreement went into effect before 1985 and it states that you (the noncustodial parent) can claim the child as a dependent. But you must have given at least $600 for the child's support in 1998. This rule does not apply if your decree or agreement was changed after 1984 to say that you cannot claim the child as your dependent.

Person Supported by Two or More Taxpayers. Even if you did not pay over half of another person's support, you might still be able to claim him or her as a dependent if all five of the following apply.

1. You and one or more other eligible person(s) (see below) together paid over half of another person's support.
2. You paid over 10% of that person's support.
3. No one alone paid over half of that person's support.
4. Tests 1 through 4 on page 21 are met.
5. Each other eligible person who paid over 10% of support completes Form 2120 and you attach these forms to your return. The form states that only you will claim the person as a dependent for 1998.

An eligible person is someone who could have claimed another person as a dependent except that he or she did not pay over half of that person's support.

Line 6c, Column (2)

You must enter each dependent's social security number (SSN). If you do not enter the correct SSN, at the time we process your return, we may disallow the exemption claimed for the dependent and reduce or disallow any other tax benefits (such as the child tax credit and earned income credit) based on that dependent.

For details on how your dependent can get an SSN, see page 19. If your dependent will not have a number by April 15, 1999, see What if You Cannot File on Time? on page 13.

If your dependent child was born and died in 1998 and you do not have an SSN for the child, attach a copy of the child's birth certificate instead and enter "DIED" in column (2).

Adoption Taxpayer Identification Numbers (ATINs). If you have a dependent who was placed with you by an authorized placement agency and you do not know his or her SSN, you must get an ATIN for the dependent from the IRS. See Form W-7A for details.

Line 6c, Column (4)

Check the box in this column if your dependent is a qualifying child for the child tax credit (defined on the next page). If you have at least one qualifying child, you may be able to take the child tax credit on line 28.

Need More Information or Forms? You can use a personal computer, fax, or phone to get what you need. See page 6.

Qualifying Child for Child Tax Credit. A qualifying child for purposes of the child tax credit is a child who:

- Is claimed as your dependent on line 6c, and
- Was under age 17 at the end of 1998, and
- Is your son, daughter, adopted child, grandchild, stepchild, or foster child, and
- Is a United States citizen or resident alien.

Note: The above requirements are not the same as the requirements to be a qualifying child for the earned income credit.

A child placed with you by an authorized placement agency for legal adoption is an adopted child even if the adoption is not final.

A grandchild is any descendant of your son, daughter, or adopted child and includes your great-grandchild, great-great-grandchild, etc.

A foster child is any child you cared for as your own child and who lived with you for all of 1998. A child who was born or died in 1998 is considered to have lived with you for all of 1998 if your home was the child's home for the entire time he or she was alive during 1998.

Children Who Did Not Live With You Due to Divorce or Separation

If you are claiming a child who did not live with you under the rules on page 22 for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents, attach Form 8332 or similar statement to your return. But see Exception below. If your divorce decree or separation agreement went into effect after 1984 and it states you can claim the child as your dependent without regard to any condition, such as payment of support, you may attach a copy of the following pages from the decree or agreement instead.

1. Cover page (put the other parent's SSN on that page), and
2. The page that states you can claim the child as your dependent, and
3. Signature page with the other parent's signature and date of agreement.

Note: You must attach the required information even if you filed it in an earlier year.

Exception. You do not have to attach Form 8332 or similar statement if your divorce decree or written separation agreement went into effect before 1985 and it states that you can claim the child as your dependent.

Other Dependent Children

Enter the total number of children who did not live with you for reasons other than divorce or separation on the line labeled "Dependents on 6c not entered above." Include dependent children who lived in Canada or Mexico during 1998.

Income

Rounding Off to Whole Dollars

You may find it easier to do your return if you round off cents to the nearest whole dollar. You can drop amounts that are less than 50 cents. For example, $129.39 becomes $129. Increase amounts that are 50 cents or more to the next whole dollar. For example, $235.50 becomes $236. If you do round off, do so for all amounts. But if you have to add two or more amounts to figure the amount to enter on a line, include cents when adding and only round off the total.

Example. You received two W-2 forms, one showing wages of $5,009.55 and one showing wages of $8,760.73. On Form 1040A, line 7, you would enter $13,770 ($5,009.55 + $8,760.73 = $13,770.28).

Refunds of State or Local Income Taxes

If you received a refund, credit, or offset of state or local income taxes in 1998, you may receive a Form 1099-G.

In the year the tax was paid to the state or other taxing authority, did you file Form 1040EZ or Form 1040A, or did you use TeleFile?

Yes. None of your refund is taxable.

No. You may have to report part or all of the refund as income on Form 1040 in 1998. Use TeleTax topic 405 (see page 8) or see Pub. 525 for details.

Community Property States

Community property states are Arizona, California, Idaho, Louisiana, Nevada, New Mexico, Texas, Washington, and Wisconsin. If you and your spouse lived in a community property state, you must usually follow state law to determine what is community income and what is separate income. For details, see Pub. 555.

Line 7

Wages, Salaries, Tips, etc.

Enter the total of your wages, salaries, tips, etc. If a joint return, also include your spouse's income. For most people, the amount to enter on this line should be shown in box 1 of their Forms W-2. But the following types of income must also be included in the total on line 7.

- Wages received as a household employee for which you did not receive a W-2 form because your employer paid you less than $1,100 in 1998.
- Tip income you did not report to your employer. But you must use Form 1040 and Form 4137 if (1) you received tips of $20 or more in any month and did not report the full amount to your employer OR (2) your W-2 form(s) shows allocated tips that you must report as income. You must report the allocated tips shown on your W-2 form(s) unless you can prove that you received less. Allocated tips should be shown in box 8 of your W-2 form(s). They are not included as income in box 1. See Pub. 531 for more details.

- Dependent care benefits, which should be shown in box 10 of your W-2 form(s). But first complete Schedule 2 to see if you may exclude part or all of the benefits.
- Employer-provided adoption benefits, which should be shown in box 13 of your W-2 form(s) with code T. But first complete Form 8839 to see if you may exclude part or all of the benefits.
- Scholarship and fellowship grants not reported on a W-2 form. Also, enter "SCH" and the amount in the space to the left of line 7. Exception. If you were a degree candidate, include on line 7 only the amounts you used for expenses other than tuition and course-related expenses. For example, amounts used for room, board, and travel must be reported on line 7.
- Disability pensions shown on Form 1099-R if you have not reached the minimum retirement age set by your employer. Disability pensions received after you reach that age and other pensions shown on Form 1099-R (other than payments from an IRA*) are reported on lines 11a and 11b of Form 1040A. Payments from an IRA are reported on lines 10a and 10b.

*This includes a Roth, SEP, SIMPLE, or education IRA.

Missing or Incorrect Form W-2? If you do not get a W-2 form from your employer by February 1, 1999, use TeleTax topic 154 (see page 8) to find out what to do. Even if you do not get a W-2, you must still report your earnings on line 7. If you lose your Form W-2 or it is incorrect, ask your employer for a new one.

Line 8a

Taxable Interest

Each payer should send you a Form 1099-INT or Form 1099-OID. Report all of your taxable interest income on line 8a. But you must fill in and attach Schedule 1, Part I, if the total is over $400 or any of the other conditions listed at the beginning of the Schedule 1 instructions (see page 56) apply to you.

Include taxable interest from seller-financed mortgages, banks, savings and loan associations, money market certificates, credit unions, savings bonds, etc. Interest credited in 1998 on deposits that you could not withdraw because of the bankruptcy or insolvency of the financial institution may not have to be included in your 1998 income. For details, see Pub. 550.

If you get a 1998 Form 1099-INT for U.S. savings bond interest that includes amounts you reported before 1998, see Pub. 550.

Line 8b

Tax-Exempt Interest

If you received any tax-exempt interest, such as from municipal bonds, report it on line 8b. Include any exempt-interest dividends from a mutual fund. Do not include interest earned on your IRA.

Line 9

Ordinary Dividends

Each payer should send you a Form 1099-DIV. Report your total ordinary dividends on line 9. But you must fill in and attach Schedule 1, Part II, if the total is over $400 or you received ordinary dividends as a nominee (that is, in your name but the dividends actually belong to someone else). (See page 56.) But you must use Form 1040 if you received capital gain distributions or nontaxable distributions required to be reported as capital gains.

For more details, see Pub. 550.

Lines 10a and 10b

IRA Distributions

You should receive a Form 1099-R showing the amount of the distribution from your individual retirement arrangement (IRA). Unless otherwise noted in the line 10a and 10b instructions, an IRA includes a traditional IRA, Roth IRA, education (Ed) IRA, simplified employee pension (SEP) IRA, and a savings incentive match plan for employees (SIMPLE) IRA. Leave line 10a blank and enter the total distribution on line 10b.

Exception. Do not enter your total IRA distribution on line 10b if any of the following apply.

1. You made nondeductible contributions to any of your traditional or SEP IRAs for 1998 or an earlier year. Instead, use Form 8606 to figure the amount to enter on line 10b; enter the total distribution on line 10a. If you made nondeductible contributions to these IRAs for 1998, also see Pub. 590.
2. You converted part or all of a traditional, SEP, or SIMPLE IRA to a Roth IRA. Instead, use Form 8606 to figure the amount to enter on line 10b; enter the total distribution on line 10a.
3. You made an excess contribution in 1998 to your IRA and withdrew it during the period of January 1, 1999, through April 15, 1999. Enter the total distribution on line 10a and the taxable part (the earnings) on line 10b.
4. You received a distribution from an Ed or Roth IRA and the total distribution was not rolled over into another IRA of the same type. Instead, use Form 8606 to figure the amount to enter on line 10b; enter the total distribution on line 10a.
5. You rolled your IRA distribution over into another IRA of the same type (for example, from one traditional IRA to another traditional IRA). Enter the total distribution on line 10a and write "Rollover" next to line 10b. If the total on line 10a was rolled over, enter zero on line 10b. If the total was not rolled over, enter the part not rolled over on line 10b. But if 1 above also applies, use Form 8606 to figure the taxable part.

If you rolled over the distribution (a) in 1999 or (b) from a conduit IRA into a qualified plan, attach a statement explaining what you did.

Need More Information or Forms? You can use a personal computer, fax, or phone to get what you need. See page 6.

Caution: You may have to pay additional tax if (1) you received an early distribution from your IRA and the total distribution was not rolled over, or (2) you were born before July 1, 1927, and received less than the minimum required distribution. To find out if you owe this tax, see Pub. 590. If you do owe this tax, you must use Form 1040.

Lines 11a and 11b

Pensions and Annuities

You should receive a Form 1099-R showing the amount of your pension and annuity payments. See page 26 for details on rollovers and lump-sum distributions.

Do not report on lines 11a and 11b disability pensions received before you reach the minimum retirement age set by your employer. Instead, report them on line 7.

Attach Form 1099-R to Form 1040A if any Federal income tax was withheld.

Fully Taxable Pensions and Annuities. If your pension or annuity is fully taxable, enter it on line 11b; do not make an entry on line 11a. Your payments are fully taxable if either of the following applies:

- You did not contribute to the cost (see this page) of your pension or annuity, or
- You got back your entire cost tax free before 1998.

Fully taxable pensions and annuities also include military retirement pay shown on Form 1099-R. For details on military disability pensions, see Pub. 525. If you received a Form RRB-1099-R, see Pub. 575 to find out how to report your benefits.

Partially Taxable Pensions and Annuities. If your pension or annuity is partially taxable and your Form 1099-R does not show the taxable part, you must use the General Rule to figure the taxable part. The General Rule is explained in Pub. 939. However, if your annuity starting date (defined on this page) was after July 1, 1986, you may be able to use the Simplified Method explained on this page. But if your annuity starting date was after November 18, 1996, and items 1, 2, and 3 under Simplified Method apply, you must use the Simplified Method to figure the taxable part.

You can ask the IRS to figure the taxable part for you for an $80 fee. For details, see Pub. 939.

If your Form 1099-R shows a taxable amount, you may report that amount on line 11b. But you may be able to report a lower taxable amount by using the General Rule or the Simplified Method.

Once you have figured the taxable part of your pension or annuity, enter that amount on line 11b and the total on line 11a.

Annuity Starting Date. Your annuity starting date is the later of the first day of the first period for which you received a payment, or the date the plan's obligations became fixed.

Simplified Method. If your annuity starting date (defined above) was after July 1, 1986, and all three of the following apply, you can use this simple method. But if your annuity starting date was after November 18, 1996, and all three of the following apply, you must use the Simplified Method.

1. The payments are for (a) your life or (b) your life and that of your beneficiary.
2. The payments are from a qualified employee plan, a qualified employee annuity, or a tax-sheltered annuity.
3. At the time the pension or annuity payments began, either you were under age 75 or the number of years of guaranteed payments was fewer than 5. See Pub. 575 for the definition of guaranteed payments.

If all three apply, use the worksheet on page 26 to figure the taxable part of your pension or annuity. For more details on the Simplified Method, see Pub. 575 or Pub. 721 for U.S. Civil Service retirement.

Caution: If you received U.S. Civil Service retirement benefits and you chose the lump-sum credit option, use the worksheet in Pub. 721. Do not use the worksheet on page 26.

Age (or Combined Ages) at Annuity Starting Date. If you are the retiree, use your age on the annuity starting date. If you are the survivor of a retiree, use the retiree's age on his or her annuity starting date. But if your annuity starting date was after 1997 and the payments are for your life and that of your beneficiary, use your combined ages on the annuity starting date.

If you are the beneficiary of an employee who died, see Pub. 575. If there is more than one beneficiary, see Pub. 575 or Pub. 721 to figure each beneficiary's taxable amount.

Changing Methods. If your annuity starting date was after July 1, 1986, and before November 19, 1996, you may be able to change from the General Rule to the Simplified Method (or the other way around). For details, see Pub. 575 or Pub. 721.

Cost. Your cost is generally your net investment in the plan as of the annuity starting date. It should be shown in box 9b of Form 1099-R for the first year you received payments from the plan.

Death Benefit Exclusion. If you are the beneficiary of a deceased employee or former employee who died before August 21, 1996, amounts paid to you by, or on behalf of, an employer because of the death of the employee may qualify for a death benefit exclusion of up to $5,000. If you are entitled to this exclusion, add it to the amount you enter on line 2 of the worksheet. Do this even if the Form 1099-R shows a taxable amount. The payer of the annuity cannot add the death benefit exclusion to your cost when figuring the taxable amount.

Special rules apply if you are the survivor under a joint and survivor's annuity. For details, see Pub. 575.

Rollovers. A rollover is a tax-free distribution of cash or other assets from one retirement plan that is contributed to another plan. Use lines 11a and 11b to report a rollover, including a direct rollover, from one qualified employer's plan to another or to an IRA or SEP.

Enter on line 11a the total distribution before income tax or other deductions were withheld. This amount should be shown in box 1 of Form 1099-R. From the total on line 11a, subtract any contributions (usually shown in box 5) that were taxable to you when made. From that result, subtract the amount that was rolled over either directly or within 60 days of receiving the distribution. Enter the remaining amount, even if zero, on line 11b. Also, enter "Rollover" next to line 11b.

Special rules apply to partial rollovers of property. For more details on rollovers, including distributions under qualified domestic relations orders, see Pub. 575.

Lump-Sum Distributions. If you received a lump-sum distribution from a profit-sharing or retirement plan, your Form 1099-R should have the "Total distribution" box in box 2b checked. Enter the total distribution on line 11a and the taxable part on line 11b.

You may be able to pay less tax on the distribution if you were at least age 59½ on the date of the distribution, you meet certain other conditions, and you choose to use Form 4972 to figure the tax on any part of the distribution. You may also be able to use Form 4972 if you are the beneficiary of a deceased employee who was either age 59½ or older on the date of death or was born before 1936. But you must use Form 1040 to do so. For details, see Form 4972.

You must use Form 1040 if you owe additional tax because you received an early distribution from a qualified retirement plan and the total amount was not rolled over. See Pub. 575 to find out if you owe this tax.

Simplified Method Worksheet—Lines 11a and 11b (keep for your records)

Note: If you had more than one partially taxable pension or annuity, figure the taxable part of each separately. Enter the total of the taxable parts on Form 1040A, line 11b. Enter the total pension or annuity payments received in 1998 on Form 1040A, line 11a.

1. Enter the total pension or annuity payments received this year. Also, enter this amount on Form 1040A, line 11a . . . . . 1. _____
2. Enter your cost in the plan at the annuity starting date plus any death benefit exclusion (see page 25) . . . . . 2. _____

Unemployment Compensation

You should receive a Form 1099-G showing the total unemployment compensation paid to you in 1998.

If you received an overpayment of unemployment compensation in 1998 and you repaid any of it in 1998, subtract the amount you repaid from the total amount you received. Enter the result on line 12. Also, enter "Repaid" and the amount you repaid in the space to the left of line 12. If you repaid unemployment compensation in 1998 that you included in gross income in an earlier year, you can deduct the amount repaid. But you must use Form 1040 to do so. See Pub. 525 for details.

Note: If you received Alaska Permanent Fund dividends, report them on line 12.

Lines 13a and 13b

Social Security Benefits

You should receive a Form SSA-1099 showing in box 3 the total social security benefits paid to you. Box 4 will show the amount of any benefits you repaid in 1998. If you received railroad retirement benefits treated as social security, you should receive a Form RRB-1099.

To find out if any of your benefits are taxable, first complete Form 1040A, line 15, if it applies to you. Then, complete the worksheet below. However, do not use the worksheet if any of the following apply.

- You made contributions to a traditional IRA for 1998 and you were covered by a retirement plan at work. Instead, use the worksheets in Pub. 590 to see if any of your social security benefits are taxable and to figure your IRA deduction.

- You file Form 8815 or you exclude employer-provided adoption benefits. Instead, use the worksheet in Pub. 915.
- You repaid any benefits in 1998 and your total repayments (box 4) were more than your total benefits for 1998 (box 3). None of your benefits are taxable for 1998. In addition, you may be able to take an itemized deduction for part of the excess repayments if they were for benefits you included in gross income in an earlier year. But you must use Form 1040 to do so. See Pub. 915.

Adjusted Gross Income

Line 15

IRA Deduction

If you made any nondeductible contributions to your traditional IRA for 1998, you must report them on Form 8606.

If you made contributions to a traditional individual retirement arrangement (IRA) for 1998, you may be able to take an IRA deduction. But you must have had earned income to do so. You should receive a statement by June 1, 1999, that shows all contributions to your traditional IRA for 1998. Use the worksheet on page 29 to figure the amount, if any, of your IRA deduction. But read the following list before you fill in the worksheet.

Caution: If you made contributions to both a traditional IRA and a Roth IRA for 1998, do not use the worksheet on page 29. Instead, use the worksheet in Pub. 590 to figure the amount, if any, of your IRA deduction.

- If you were age 70½ or older at the end of 1998, you cannot deduct any contributions made to your traditional IRA for 1998 or treat them as nondeductible contributions.
- You cannot deduct contributions to a Roth IRA or an education IRA.
- You cannot deduct contributions to a 401(k) plan, SIMPLE plan, or the Federal Thrift Savings Plan. These amounts are not included as income in box 1 of your W-2 form.
- You must file a joint return to deduct contributions to your spouse's IRA. Enter the total IRA deduction for you and your spouse on line 15.
- If you made contributions to your IRA in 1998 that you deducted for 1997, do not include them in the worksheet.
- If you received a distribution from a nonqualified deferred compensation plan or section 457 plan that is included in box 1 of your W-2 form, do not include that distribution on line 6 of the worksheet. The distribution should be shown in box 11 of your W-2 form.
- Do not include rollover contributions in figuring your deduction. Instead, see the instructions for lines 10a and 10b on page 24.

- Do not include trustee's fees that were billed separately and paid by you for your IRA. You may be able to deduct those fees as an itemized deduction. But you must use Form 1040 to do so.
- If the total of your IRA deduction on Form 1040A plus any nondeductible contribution to your traditional IRAs shown on Form 8606 is less than your total traditional IRA contributions for 1998, see Pub. 590 for special rules.

By April 1 of the year after the year in which you reach age 70½, you must start taking minimum required distributions from your traditional IRA. If you do not, you may have to pay a 50% additional tax on the amount that should have been distributed. For details, including how to figure the minimum required distribution, see Pub. 590.

You must use Form 1040 if you owe tax on any excess contributions made to an IRA, or any excess accumulations in an IRA. For details, see Pub. 590.

Were You Covered by an Employer Retirement Plan? If you were covered by a plan at work, your IRA deduction may be reduced or eliminated. But you can still make contributions to an IRA even if you cannot deduct them. In any case, the income earned on your IRA contributions is not taxed until it is paid to you. The "Pension plan" box in box 15 of your W-2 form should be checked if you were covered by a plan (such as a 401(k) or SIMPLE plan). This box should be checked even if you were not vested in the plan.

If you were covered by a retirement plan and you file Form 8815 or you excluded employer-provided adoption benefits, see Pub. 590 to figure the amount, if any, of your IRA deduction.

Married Persons Filing Separately. If you were not covered by a retirement plan but your spouse was, you are considered covered by a plan unless you lived apart from your spouse for all of 1998.

Line 16

Student Loan Interest Deduction

You may take this deduction if all five of the following apply.

1. You paid interest on a qualified student loan (see page 29).
2. At least part of the interest paid in 1998 was paid during the first 60 months that interest payments were required to be made. See Example on page 29.
3. Your filing status is any status except married filing separately.
4. The amount on Form 1040A, line 14, minus the amount on line 15, is less than: $55,000 if single, head of household, or qualifying widow(er); $75,000 if married filing jointly.
5. You are not claimed as a dependent on someone's (such as your parent's) 1998 tax return.

If all five apply, use the worksheet on page 30 to figure your deduction.

Need More Information or Forms? You can use a personal computer, fax, or phone to get what you need. See page 6.

Example. You took out a qualified student loan in 1991 while in college. You had 6 years to repay the loan and your first monthly payment was due July 1993, after you graduated. You made a payment every month as required. If you meet items 3 through 5 listed on page 28, you may use only the interest you paid for January through June 1998 to figure your deduction. June is the end of the 60-month period (July 1993–June 1998).

Qualified Student Loan. This is any loan you took out to pay the qualified higher education expenses for yourself, your spouse, or anyone who was your dependent when the loan was taken out. The person for whom the expenses were paid must have been an eligible student (see the next page). However, a loan is not a qualified student loan if (1) any of the proceeds were used for other purposes, or (2) the loan was from either a related person or a person who borrowed the proceeds under a qualified employer plan or a contract purchased under such a plan. To find out who is a related person, see Pub. 970.

Qualified higher education expenses generally include tuition, fees, room and board, and related expenses such as books and supplies. The expenses must be for education in a degree, certificate, or similar program at an eligible educational institution. An eligible educational institution includes most colleges, universities, and certain vocational schools. You must reduce the expenses by the following nontaxable benefits.

- Employer-provided educational assistance benefits that are not included in box 1 of your W-2 form(s).
- Excludable U.S. series EE savings bond interest from Form 8815.
- Qualified distributions from an education IRA.
- Any scholarship, educational assistance allowance, or other payment (but not gifts, inheritances, etc.) excluded from income.

For more details on these expenses, see Pub. 970.

An eligible student is a person who:

- Was enrolled in a degree, certificate, or other program (including a program of study abroad that was approved for credit by the institution at which the student was enrolled) leading to a recognized educational credential at an eligible educational institution, and
- Carried at least half the normal full-time work load for the course of study he or she was pursuing.

Blindness. If you were partially blind as of December 31, 1998, you must get a statement certified by your eye doctor or registered optometrist that:

- You cannot see better than 20/200 in your better eye with glasses or contact lenses, or
- Your field of vision is 20 degrees or less.

If your eye condition is not likely to improve beyond the conditions listed above, you must also get a statement certified by your eye doctor or registered optometrist to this effect. You must keep the statement for your records.

Taxable Income

Line 20a

If you were age 65 or older or blind, check the appropriate boxes on line 20a. If you were married and checked the box on line 6b of Form 1040A and your spouse was age 65 or older or blind, also check the appropriate boxes for your spouse. Be sure to enter the total number of boxes checked in the box provided on line 20a.

Age. If you were age 65 or older on January 1, 1999, check the "65 or older" box on your 1998 return.

Line 20b

If you are married filing a separate return and your spouse itemizes deductions on Form 1040, check the box on line 20b. You CANNOT take the standard deduction even if you were age 65 or older or blind (that is, you completed line 20a). Enter zero on line 21 and go to line 22.

Your Federal income tax will be less if you take any itemized deductions that you may have, such as state and local income taxes, but you must use Form 1040 to do so.

Line 21

Standard Deduction

Most people can find their standard deduction by looking at line 21 of Form 1040A. But if you checked any box on line 20a, OR you (or your spouse if filing jointly) can be claimed as a dependent on someone's 1998 return, use the chart or worksheet below that applies to you to figure your standard deduction. Also, if you checked the box on line 20b, you cannot take the standard deduction even if you were age 65 or older or blind.

Line 26

Child and Dependent Care Credit

You may be able to take this credit if you paid someone to care for your child under age 13 or your dependent or spouse who could not care for himself or herself. For details, see the instructions for Schedule 2.

Line 27

Credit for the Elderly or the Disabled

You may be able to take this credit if by the end of 1998 (1) you were age 65 or older, or (2) you retired on permanent and total disability and you had taxable disability income in 1998.

But you usually cannot take the credit if the amount on Form 1040A, line 19, is $17,500 or more ($20,000 if married filing jointly and only one spouse is eligible for the credit; $25,000 if married filing jointly and both spouses are eligible; $12,500 if married filing separately). See Schedule 3 and its instructions for details.

Line 28

Child Tax Credit

This credit is in addition to the child and dependent care credit and the earned income credit that you may be able to claim.

What Is the Child Tax Credit?

The child tax credit is a credit for people who have a qualifying child; it reduces tax people owe. The credit can be as much as $400 for each qualifying child.

Note: If the amount on Form 1040A, line 25, is zero, you cannot take this credit because there is no tax to reduce. But if you have three or more qualifying children, you may be able to take the additional child tax credit on Form 1040A, line 38. To find out if you can, you will need to complete the Child Tax Credit Worksheet on page 33 even though you cannot take the credit.

How Do You Figure the Credit?

Use the Child Tax Credit Worksheet on page 33 to figure the amount of your credit. If you are going to claim an education credit on Form 1040A, line 29, you need to know the amount of that credit to figure your child tax credit. Complete Form 8863 and enter your education credit(s) on Form 1040A, line 29.

Who Is a Qualifying Child?

A qualifying child is a child who:

- Is claimed as your dependent on Form 1040A, line 6c, and
- Was under age 17 at the end of 1998, and
- Is your son, daughter, adopted child, grandchild, stepchild, or foster child, and
- Is a United States citizen or resident alien.

Note: The above requirements are not the same as the requirements to be a qualifying child for the earned income credit.

A child placed with you by an authorized placement agency for legal adoption is an adopted child even if the adoption is not final.

A grandchild is any descendant of your son, daughter, or adopted child and includes your great-grandchild, great-great-grandchild, etc.

A foster child is any child you cared for as your own child and who lived with you for all of 1998. A child who was born or died in 1998 is considered to have lived with you for all of 1998 if your home was the child's home for the entire time he or she was alive in 1998.

To find out who is a resident alien, use TeleTax topic 851 (see page 8) or see Pub. 519.

Caution: Make sure you checked the box in column (4) of line 6c for each qualifying child.

Additional Child Tax Credit

You may be able to take the additional child tax credit on Form 1040A, line 38, if both 1 and 2 below apply.

1. The amount on line 1 of the Child Tax Credit Worksheet is more than $800.
2. The amount on line 7 of the Child Tax Credit Worksheet is more than the amount on line 11 of that worksheet.

But first complete your return through line 37b. Then, complete Form 8812 to figure any additional child tax credit.

- If you were an employee representative, 50% of the total Tier 1 tax and Tier 1 Medicare tax you paid for 1998.

Line 29

Education Credits

If you (or your dependent) paid expenses in 1998 for yourself, your spouse, or your dependent to enroll in or attend the first 2 years of post-secondary education, you may be able to take the Hope credit. For qualified expenses paid after June 30, 1998, you may be able to take the lifetime learning credit. See Form 8863 for details. However, if you are married filing a separate return, you cannot take either credit.

Line 30

Adoption Credit

You may be able to take this credit if you paid expenses in 1997 or 1998 to adopt a child. See Form 8839 for details.

Line 33

Advance Earned Income Credit Payments

If you received advance earned income credit (EIC) payments, enter them on line 33. These payments should be shown in box 9 of your W-2 form(s).

Need More Information or Forms? You can use a personal computer, fax, or phone to get what you need. See page 6.

Line 34

Total Tax

If you owe the alternative minimum tax, include that tax in the total on line 34.

Alternative Minimum Tax. If both 1 and 2 below apply to you, use the worksheet on this page to see if you owe this tax and, if you do, the amount to include on line 34.

1. The amount on Form 1040A, line 19, plus any tax-exempt interest on Form 1040A, line 8b, is more than: $45,000 if married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er); $33,750 if single or head of household; $22,500 if married filing separately.
2. The amount on Form 1040A, line 23, is $8,100 or more.

Caution: If filing for a child under age 14, add the amount on Form 1040A, line 19, to the child's tax-exempt interest from private activity bonds issued after August 7, 1986. If that total is more than the total of $5,000 plus the amount on Form 1040A, line 7, do not file this form. Instead, file Form 1040 for the child. Use Form 6251 to see if the child owes this tax.

Line 35

Federal Income Tax Withheld

Add the amounts shown as Federal income tax withheld on your Forms W-2 and 1099-R. Enter the total on line 35. The amount of Federal income tax withheld should be shown in box 2 of Form W-2 and box 4 of Form 1099-R.

If you received a 1998 Form 1099 showing Federal income tax withheld on dividends, interest income, or unemployment compensation, include the amount withheld in the total on line 35. This should be shown in box 4 of the 1099 form. If Federal income tax was withheld from your Alaska Permanent Fund dividends, include the tax withheld in the total on line 35.

Line 36

1998 Estimated Tax Payments

Enter any payments you made on your estimated Federal income tax (Form 1040-ES) for 1998. Include any overpayment from your 1997 return that you applied to your 1998 estimated tax.

If you and your spouse paid joint estimated tax but are now filing separate income tax returns, either of you can claim all of the amount paid. Or you can each claim part of it. See Pub. 505 for details on how to report your payments. If you or your spouse paid separate estimated tax but you are now filing a joint income tax return, add the amounts you each paid. Follow these instructions even if your spouse died in 1998 or in 1999 before filing a 1998 return. Also, see Pub. 505 if:

1. You were divorced in 1998 and you made joint estimated tax payments with your former spouse, or
2. You changed your name and you made estimated tax payments using your former name.

Lines 37a and 37b

Earned Income Credit (EIC)

The EIC reduces the tax you owe and may give you a refund even if you do not owe any tax. The credit can be as much as—

- $341 if you do not have a qualifying child (defined on page 37),

- $2,271 if you have one qualifying child, or
- $3,756 if you have more than one qualifying child.

Who Can Take the EIC

Answer the questions on this page to see if you can take this credit. But you cannot take the credit if any of the following apply:

- Your filing status is married filing separately.

Questions To See If You Can Take the Earned Income Credit

---

Before you begin, if you were in the military stationed outside the United States, see Special Rules on page 39.

---

All filers:

1. Is the total of lines 8a, 8b, and 9 on Form 1040A over $2,300?

- No. Go to question 2.
 Yes. Stop. You cannot take the credit.

2. Do you have at least one qualifying child (defined on page 37)?

- No. Skip to question 5.
 Yes. Go to question 3.

If you have at least one qualifying child:

3. Is your modified AGI (see page 38) less than $26,473 (less than $30,095 if you have more than one qualifying child)?

- No. Stop. You cannot take the credit.
 Yes. Go to question 4.

4. Is the total of your taxable and nontaxable earned income (see page 38) less than $26,473 (less than $30,095 if you have more than one qualifying child)? (Nontaxable earned income includes military housing and subsistence, and contributions to a 401(k) plan.)

- No. Stop. You cannot take the credit. Enter "No" directly to the right of line 37a.
 Yes. You can take the credit. If you want the IRS to figure it for you, complete and attach Schedule EIC and enter "EIC" directly to the right of line 37a. Also, enter the amount and type of any nontaxable earned income on line 37b. If you want to figure the credit yourself, stop and complete the worksheet on page 37 now.

If you do not have a qualifying child:

5. Is your modified AGI (see page 38) less than $10,030?

- No. Stop. You cannot take the credit.
 Yes. Go to question 6.

6. Were you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) at least age 25 but under age 65 at the end of 1998?

- No. Stop. You cannot take the credit. Enter "No" directly to the right of line 37a.
 Yes. Go to question 7.

7. Can you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) be claimed as a dependent on someone else's 1998 tax return?

- Yes. Stop. You cannot take the credit.
 No. Go to question 8.

8. Was your home (and your spouse's if filing a joint return) in the United States for more than half of 1998?

- No. Stop. You cannot take the credit. Enter "No" directly to the right of line 37a.
 Yes. Go to question 9.

9. Is the total of your taxable and nontaxable earned income (see page 38) less than $10,030? (Nontaxable earned income includes military housing and subsistence, and contributions to a 401(k) plan.)

- No. Stop. You cannot take the credit. Enter "No" directly to the right of line 37a.
 Yes. You can take the credit. If you want the IRS to figure it for you, enter "EIC" directly to the right of line 37a. Also, enter the amount and type of any nontaxable earned income on line 37b. If you want to figure the credit yourself, complete the worksheet on page 37.

Need More Information or Forms? You can use a personal computer, fax, or phone to get what you need. See page 6.

- You were a nonresident alien for any part of 1998 and your filing status is any status except married filing jointly.
- You, or your spouse if filing a joint return, (1) were the qualifying child of another person in 1998, or (2) do not have a social security number (defined below). If you cannot take the credit for either of these reasons, enter "No" directly to the right of line 37a.

Caution: If it is determined that you are not entitled to the earned income credit due to reckless or intentional disregard of the rules, you cannot claim the credit for the next 2 years. If you fraudulently claimed the credit, you cannot claim it for the next 10 years. If your 1997 earned income credit was disallowed as the result of deficiency procedures, you must complete and attach Form 8862 to claim the credit this year.

Social Security Number (SSN). For purposes of the EIC, an SSN means a number issued by the Social Security Administration to a U.S. citizen or to a person who has permission from the Immigration and Naturalization Service to work in the United States.

Qualifying Child

A qualifying child is a child who:

1. Is your son, daughter, adopted child, grandchild, stepchild, or foster child, and
2. Was (at the end of 1998)—
  - under age 19, or
  - under age 24 and a student (see page 38), or
  - any age and permanently and totally disabled (see page 38), and
3. Lived with you in the United States for more than half of 1998 (for all of 1998 if a foster child). If the child did not live with you for the required time, see the Exception on page 38.

Earned Income Credit Worksheet—Line 37a (keep for your records)

Before you begin, if you were a household employee who did not receive a Form W-2 because your employer paid you less than $1,100 in 1998, see Special Rules on page 39.

Also, see Special Rules if Form 1040A, line 7, includes workfare payments or any amount paid to an inmate in a penal institution.

Caution: Be sure to include all your income on lines 1, 2, 4, and 7 below. An incorrect amount may increase your tax or reduce your refund.

1. Enter the amount from Form 1040A, line 7 . . . . . 1. _____
  2. If you received a taxable scholarship or fellowship grant that was not reported on a W-2 form, enter that amount here . . . . . 2. _____
  3. Subtract line 2 from line 1 . . . . . 3. _____
  4. Enter any nontaxable earned income (see page 38). Types of nontaxable earned income include contributions to a 401(k) plan, and military housing and subsistence. These should be shown in box 13 of your W-2 form . . . . . 4. _____
  5. Add lines 3 and 4 . . . . . 5. _____
  6. Look up the amount on line 5 above in the EIC Table on pages 40–42 to find your credit. Enter the credit here . . . . . 6. _____
If line 6 is zero, stop. You cannot take the credit. Enter "No" directly to the right of line 37a of Form 1040A.
  7. Enter your modified AGI (see page 38) . . . . . 7. _____
  8. Is line 7 less than—
    - $5,600 if you do not have a qualifying child?
    - $12,300 if you have at least one qualifying child?
    - Yes. Go to line 9 now.
    - No. Look up the amount on line 7 above in the EIC Table on pages 40–42 to find your credit. Enter the credit here . . . . . 8. _____
  9. Earned income credit.
    - If you checked "Yes" on line 8, enter the amount from line 6.
    - If you checked "No" on line 8, enter the smaller of line 6 or line 8. } . . . . . 9. _____
- Next: Take the amount from line 9 above and enter it on Form 1040A, line 37a.

AND

If you had any nontaxable earned income (see line 4 above), enter the amount and type of that income on line 37b.

AND

Complete Schedule EIC and attach it to your return ONLY if you have a qualifying child.

Note: If you included the alternative minimum tax on line 34, subtract it from the amount on line 9 above. Then, enter the result (if more than zero) on Form 1040A, line 37a. Also, replace the amount on line 9 above with the amount entered on Form 1040A, line 37a.

Caution: The child must have an SSN (defined on page 37) unless the child was born and died in 1998.

A child does not always have to be your dependent to qualify. But if the child was married or is also a qualifying child of another person (other than your spouse if filing a joint return), special rules apply. See Married Child and Qualifying Child of More Than One Person on this page.

Example. You are divorced and have a 7-year-old son. Although you had custody of your son, he is claimed as a dependent on his other parent's 1998 tax return. Your son is your qualifying child because he meets each of the three requirements listed on page 37. Your son is not a qualifying child of his other parent because he did not live with the other parent for more than half of 1998 and the Exception below does not apply.

The following explains some of the terms used earlier.

- A foster child is any child you cared for as your own child. For example, if you acted as the parent of your niece or nephew, this child is considered your foster child.
- A child placed with you by an authorized placement agency for legal adoption is an adopted child even if the adoption is not final.
- A grandchild is any descendant of your son, daughter, or adopted child. For example, a grandchild includes your great-grandchild, great-great-grandchild, etc.
- A student is a child who during any 5 months of 1998—
  1. Was enrolled as a full-time student at a school, or
  2. Took a full-time, on-farm training course. The course had to be given by a school or a state, county, or local government agency.

A school includes technical, trade, and mechanical schools. It does not include on-the-job training courses, correspondence schools, or night schools.

- A child is permanently and totally disabled if both of the following apply.
  1. He or she cannot engage in any substantial gainful activity because of a physical or mental condition.
  2. A doctor determines the condition has lasted or can be expected to last continuously for at least a year or can lead to death.

Exception. The child, including a foster child, is considered to have lived with you for all of 1998 if both of the following apply.

1. The child was born or died in 1998.
2. Your home was the child's home for the entire time he or she was alive during 1998.

Temporary absences, such as for school, vacation, or medical care, count as time lived at home.

Married Child. If your child was married at the end of 1998, that child is a qualifying child only if you can claim him or her as your dependent on Form 1040A, line 6c. But if this child's other parent claimed him or her as a dependent under the rules on page 22 for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents, this child is your qualifying child.

Qualifying Child of More Than One Person. If a child meets the conditions to be a qualifying child of more than one person, only the person who had the highest modified AGI (adjusted gross income) for 1998 may treat that child as a qualifying child. The other person(s) cannot claim the credit for people who do not have a qualifying child. If the other person is your spouse and you are filing a joint return, this rule does not apply. If you cannot take the credit because of this rule, enter "No" directly to the right of line 37a.

Example. You and your 5-year-old daughter moved in with your mother in April 1998. You are not a qualifying child of your mother. Your daughter meets the conditions to be a qualifying child for both you and your mother. Your modified AGI for 1998 was $8,000 and your mother's was $14,000. Because your mother's modified AGI was higher, your daughter is your mother's qualifying child. You cannot take any EIC, even if your mother does not claim the credit.

Modified AGI (Adjusted Gross Income)

Modified AGI is the total of the amounts on Form 1040A, lines 8b and 18, plus any nontaxable distributions from a pension, annuity, or individual retirement arrangement (IRA). But it does not include any distribution that is not taxable because it (1) was a trustee-to-trustee transfer or (2) was rolled over into a similar type of plan during the period allowed for rollovers. If you converted part or all of a traditional, SEP, or SIMPLE IRA to a Roth IRA, see Pub. 596 to figure your modified AGI.

Taxable Earned Income

This usually is the amount reported on Form 1040A, line 7. But if line 7 includes any of the following amounts, subtract them from the total on line 7. The result is your taxable earned income for purposes of the EIC.

- A taxable scholarship or fellowship grant that was not reported on a W-2 form.
- An amount paid to an inmate in a penal institution. Enter "PRI" and the amount subtracted in the space to the left of line 7 of Form 1040A.
- Workfare payments. These are cash payments certain families receive from a state or local agency that administers public assistance programs funded under the Federal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families program in return for (1) work experience activities (including work associated with remodeling or repairing publicly assisted housing) if sufficient private sector employment is not available, or (2) community service program activities. Enter "WP" and the amount subtracted in the space to the left of line 7 of Form 1040A.

Also, if line 7 of Form 1040A includes any amount paid to a household employee who did not receive a W-2 form, see Special Rules on page 39.

Nontaxable Earned Income

Caution: Be sure to include all your nontaxable earned income on line 37b of Form 1040A.

Certain earned income is not taxable, but it must be included to see if you can take the earned income credit. It is also used to figure the credit. Nontaxable earned income includes anything of value (money, goods, or services) that is not taxable which you received from your employer for your work. But it does not include workfare payments (defined on page 38). Some examples of nontaxable earned income are listed below.

Need More Information or Forms? You can use a personal computer, fax, or phone to get what you need. See page 6.

- Basic quarters and subsistence allowances, the value of in-kind quarters and subsistence, and combat zone excluded pay received from the U.S. military. These amounts should be shown in box 13 of your 1998 W-2 form with code Q.
- Housing allowances or rental value of a parsonage for clergy members.
- Meals and lodging provided for the convenience of your employer.
- Salary deferrals. If you chose to have your employer contribute part of your pay to certain retirement plans (such as a 401(k) plan or the Federal Thrift Savings Plan) instead of having it paid to you, the "Deferred compensation" box in box 15 of your W-2 form should be checked. The amount deferred should be shown in box 13 of your W-2 form.
- Excludable dependent care benefits from Schedule 2, line 18.
- Excludable employer-provided adoption benefits from Form 8839, line 29.
- Salary reductions, such as under a cafeteria plan, unless they are included in box 1 of your W-2 form(s). For details, see Pub. 596.

Nontaxable earned income does not include welfare benefits, such as those listed below.

Effect of Credit on Certain Welfare Benefits

Any refund you receive as the result of claiming the earned income credit will not be used to determine if you are eligible for the following benefit programs, or how much you can receive from them.

- Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (formerly Aid to Families With Dependent Children (AFDC)).
- Medicaid and supplemental security income (SSI).
- Food stamps and low-income housing.

Special Rules

Members of the Military. If you were on extended active duty outside the United States, your home is considered to be in the United States during that duty period. See Pub. 596 for the definition of extended active duty.

Household Employees. If you were a household employee who did not receive a W-2 form because your employer paid you less than $1,100 in 1998, be sure to include the amount you were paid on Form 1040A, line 7. Enter "HSH" and the amount not reported on a W-2 form in the space to the left of line 7.

Workfare Payments. These are not earned income for purposes of the EIC. If the total on Form 1040A, line 7, includes such income, subtract that income from the amount on line 7. Enter the result on line 1 of the worksheet on page 37. Also, enter "WP" and the amount subtracted in the space to the left of line 7 of Form 1040A.

Inmates. Amounts paid to inmates in penal institutions for their work are not earned income for purposes of the EIC. If the total on Form 1040A, line 7, includes such income, subtract that income from the amount on line 7. Enter the result on line 1 of the worksheet on page 37. Also, enter "PRI" and the amount subtracted in the space to the left of line 7 of Form 1040A.

1998 Earned Income Credit (EIC) Table

To find your credit: First, read down the "At least — But less than" columns and find the line that includes the amount you entered on line 5 or line 7 of the Earned Income Credit Worksheet on page 37. Next, read across to the column that includes the number of qualifying children you have. Then, enter the credit from that column on line 6 or line 8 of that worksheet, whichever applies.

Caution: This is not a tax table.

**If the amount on line 5 or line 7 of the worksheet is at least $26,450 but less than $26,473, your credit is $2. Otherwise, you cannot take the credit.

Need More Information or Forms? You can use a personal computer, fax, or phone to get what you need. See page 6.

Line 38

Additional Child Tax Credit

You may be able to take this credit if both 1 and 2 below apply.

1. The amount on line 1 of the Child Tax Credit Worksheet on page 33 is more than $800.
2. The amount on line 7 of the Child Tax Credit Worksheet is more than the amount on line 11 of that worksheet.

The additional child tax credit may give you a refund even if you do not owe any tax. Use Form 8812 to figure the credit.

Line 39

Add lines 35, 36, 37a, and 38. Enter the total on line 39. Also, include in the total on line 39 any of the following that apply.

Amount Paid With Extension of Time To File. If you filed Form 4868 to get an automatic extension of time to file, include in the total on line 39 any amount you paid with that form. To the left of line 39, enter "Form 4868" and show the amount paid. Also, include any amount paid with Form 2688 if you filed for an additional extension.

Excess Social Security and Railroad Retirement (RRTA) Taxes Withheld. If you had more than one employer for 1998 and your total wages were over $68,400, too much social security tax may have been withheld. If you had more than one railroad employer for 1998 and your total compensation was over $50,700, too much RRTA tax may have been withheld. For more details, including how to figure the amount to include on line 39, see Pub. 505.

Refund

Amount Overpaid

If line 40 is under $1, we will send the refund only if you request it when you file your return. If you want to check on the status of your refund, please wait at least 4 weeks after you file your return to do so. See page 8 for details.

If the amount you overpaid is large, you may want to decrease the amount of income tax withheld from your pay. See Income Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax Payments for 1999 on page 46.

Refund Offset. If you have not paid child support or certain Federal nontax debts, such as student loans, all or part of the overpayment on line 40 may be used (offset) to pay the past-due amount. To find out if you may have an offset, contact the agency(ies) you owe the debt to. Do not call the IRS because offsets are now made by the Treasury Department's Financial Management Service (FMS) and the IRS will no longer have nontax debt information. If there is an offset, you will receive a notice from FMS showing the amount of the offset and the agency receiving it.

Injured Spouse Claim. If you file a joint return and your spouse has not paid tax, child support, or a Federal nontax debt, such as a student loan, part or all of the overpayment on line 40 may be used (offset) to pay the past-due amount. But your part of the overpayment may be refunded to you after the offset occurs if certain conditions apply and you complete and attach Form 8379. For details, use TeleTax topic 203 (see page 8) or see Form 8379.

Lines 41b Through 41d

Direct Deposit of Refund

Complete lines 41b through 41d if you want us to directly deposit the amount shown on line 41a into your account at a bank or other financial institution (such as a mutual fund, brokerage firm, or credit union) instead of sending you a check.

Why Use Direct Deposit?

- You get your refund fast—even faster if you e-file!
- Payment is more secure—there is no check to get lost.
- More convenient. No trip to the bank to deposit your check.
- Saves tax dollars. A refund by direct deposit costs less than a check.

You can check with your financial institution to make sure your direct deposit will be accepted and to get the correct routing number and account number.

Line 41b. The routing number must be nine digits. If the first two digits are not 01 through 12 or 21 through 32, the direct deposit will be rejected and a check sent instead. On the sample check on the next page, the routing number is 250250025.

Your check may state that it is payable through a bank different from the financial institution at which you have your checking account. If so, do not use the routing number on that check. Instead, contact your financial institution for the correct routing number to enter on this line.

Line 41d. The account number can be up to 17 characters (both numbers and letters). Include hyphens but omit spaces and special symbols. Enter the number from left to right and leave any unused boxes blank. On the sample check on the next page, the account number is 20202086. Be sure not to include the check number.

Caution: Some financial institutions will not allow a joint refund to be deposited into an individual account. The IRS is not responsible if a financial institution refuses a direct deposit.

Note: The routing and account numbers may be in different places on your check.

Line 42

Amount Applied to 1999 Estimated Tax

Enter on line 42 the amount, if any, of the overpayment on line 40 you want applied to your estimated tax for 1999. We will apply this amount to your account unless you attach a statement requesting us to apply it to your spouse's account. Include your spouse's social security number. This election to apply part or all of the amount overpaid to your 1999 estimated tax cannot be changed later.

Amount You Owe

Line 43

Amount You Owe

You do not have to pay if line 43 is under $1.

Include any estimated tax penalty from line 44 in the amount you enter on line 43. Enclose in the envelope with your return a check or money order payable to the "United States Treasury" for the full amount when you file. Do not send cash. Do not attach the payment to your return. Write "1998 Form 1040A" and your name, address, daytime phone number, and social security number (SSN) on your payment. If you are filing a joint return, enter the SSN shown first on your tax return.

Do not include any estimated tax payment in your check or money order. Mail any estimated tax payment in an envelope separate from the one you use to pay the tax due on Form 1040A.

You may need to (a) increase the amount of income tax withheld from your pay or (b) make estimated tax payments for 1999. See Income Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax Payments for 1999 on page 46.

Installment Payments

If you cannot pay the full amount shown on line 43 with your return, you may ask to make monthly installment payments. However, you will be charged interest and may be charged a late payment penalty on the tax not paid by April 15, 1999, even if your request to pay in installments is granted. You must also pay a fee. To limit the interest and penalty charges, pay as much of the tax as possible when you file. But before requesting an installment agreement, you should consider other less costly alternatives, such as a bank loan.

To ask for an installment agreement, use Form 9465. You should receive a response to your request for installments within 30 days. But if you file your return after March 31, it may take us longer to reply.

Line 44

Estimated Tax Penalty

You may owe this penalty if:

- Line 43 is at least $1,000 and it is more than 10% of the tax shown on your return, or
- You did not pay enough estimated tax by any of the due dates. This is true even if you are due a refund.

The "tax shown on your return" is the amount on line 34 minus the total of any amounts shown on lines 37a and 38.

Exceptions to the Penalty. You will not owe the penalty if your 1997 tax return was for a tax year of 12 full months AND either of the following applies:

1. You had no tax liability for 1997 and you were a U.S. citizen or resident for all of 1997, or
2. The total of lines 35 and 36 on your 1998 return is at least as much as the tax liability shown on your 1997 return. Your estimated tax payments for 1998 must have been made on time and for the required amount.

Figuring the Penalty. If the Exceptions above do not apply and you choose to figure the penalty yourself, see Form 2210 to find out if you owe the penalty. If so, you can use the form to figure the amount. In certain situations, you may be able to lower your penalty. For details, see the Instructions for Form 2210. Enter the penalty on Form 1040A, line 44. Add the penalty to any tax due and enter the total on line 43. If you are due a refund, subtract the penalty from the overpayment you show on line 40. Do not file Form 2210 with your return unless Form 2210 indicates that you must do so. Instead, keep it for your records.

Because Form 2210 is complicated, if you want to, you can leave line 44 blank and the IRS will figure the penalty and send you a bill. We will not charge you interest on the penalty if you pay by the date specified on the bill.

Sign Your Return

Form 1040A is not considered a valid return unless you sign it. If you are filing a joint return, your spouse must also sign. Be sure to date your return and enter your occupation(s). If you are filing a joint return as a surviving spouse, see What if a Taxpayer Died? on page 13.

Child's Return. If your child cannot sign the return, either parent can sign the child's name in the space provided. Then, add "By (your signature), parent for minor child."

Need More Information or Forms? You can use a personal computer, fax, or phone to get what you need. See page 6.

Daytime Phone Number. Providing your daytime phone number may help speed the processing of your return if we have a question that can be answered over the phone. However, you do not have to enter your number. If you are filing a joint return, you may enter either your or your spouse's daytime phone number.

Paid Preparers Must Sign Your Return. Generally, anyone you pay to prepare your return must sign it by hand in the space provided. Signature stamps or labels cannot be used. The preparer must give you a copy of the return for your records. Someone who prepares your return but does not charge you should not sign your return.

Attach Required Forms and Schedules

Attach the first copy or Copy B of Form(s) W-2 to the front of Form 1040A. Attach all other schedules and forms behind Form 1040A in order by number. If you are filing Schedule EIC, put it last. Do not attach items unless required to do so.

If you received a 1998 Form 1099-R showing Federal income tax withheld, also attach the first copy or Copy B of that form to the front of Form 1040A.

If you owe tax and are sending in your payment, do not attach it to Form 1040A. Instead, place it loose inside the envelope.

How To Avoid Common Mistakes

Mistakes may delay your refund or result in notices being sent to you.

1. Be sure to enter your social security number (SSN) in the space provided on page 1 of Form 1040A. If you are married filing a joint or separate return, also enter your spouse's SSN. Be sure to enter your SSN in the space next to your name.

2. Make sure you enter the correct SSN for each person you claim as a dependent on line 6c or a qualifying child on Schedule EIC.
3. Check your math, especially when figuring your taxable social security benefits, deduction for exemptions, taxable income, Federal income tax withheld, total payments, and refund or amount you owe.
4. Remember to sign and date Form 1040A and enter your occupation.
5. Be sure you enter the correct tax on line 25. Also, enter your total tax on line 34.
6. Make sure you use the correct filing status. If you think you can file as Head of household, read the instructions for line 4 on page 20 to make sure you qualify.
7. Make sure your name and address are correct on the peel-off label. If not, enter the correct information.
8. If you are married filing jointly and did not get a peel-off label, enter your and your spouse's name in the same order as shown on your last return.
9. Enter your standard deduction on line 21. Also, if you check any box on line 20a or you (or your spouse if filing jointly) can be claimed as a dependent on someone's 1998 return, be sure you see page 31 to find the amount to enter on line 21.
10. If you (or your spouse if you check the box on line 6b) were age 65 or older or blind, be sure to check the appropriate boxes on line 20a.
11. If you can be claimed as a dependent on someone's 1998 return, such as your parents' return, do not check the box on line 6a. If filing a joint return and your spouse can be claimed as a dependent, do not check the box on line 6b.
12. Attach your W-2 form(s) and any other required forms and schedules.
13. If you owe tax, be sure to include the required information on your payment. See the instructions for line 43 on page 44 for details.

General Information

What Are Your Rights as a Taxpayer? You have the right to be treated fairly, professionally, promptly, and courteously by IRS employees. Our goal at the IRS is to protect your rights so that you will have the highest confidence in the integrity, efficiency, and fairness of our tax system. To ensure that you always receive such treatment, you should know about the many rights you have at each step of the tax process. For details, see Pub. 1.

Innocent Spouse Relief. You may qualify for relief from liability for tax on a joint return if (1) there is an understatement of tax because your spouse omitted income or claimed false deductions or credits, (2) you are divorced, separated, or no longer living with your spouse, or (3) given all the facts and circumstances, it would not be fair to hold you liable for the tax. See Form 8857 or Pub. 971 for more details.

What Should You Do If You Move? If you move after you file, always notify in writing the Internal Revenue Service Center where you filed your last return, or the Chief, Customer Service Division, at your local IRS district office. You can use Form 8822 to notify us of your new address. If you are expecting a refund, also notify the post office serving your old address. This will help forward your check to your new address.

How Long Should You Keep Your Tax Return? Keep a copy of your tax return, worksheets you used, and records of all items appearing on it (such as W-2 and 1099 forms) until the statute of limitations runs out for that return. Usually, this is 3 years from the date the return was due or filed, or 2 years from the date the tax was paid, whichever is later. You should keep some records longer. For example, keep property records (including those on your home) as long as they are needed to figure the basis of the original or replacement property. For more details, see Pub. 552.

Income Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax Payments for 1999. If the amount you owe or the amount you overpaid is large, you may want to file a new Form W-4 with your employer to change the amount of income tax withheld from your 1999 pay. In general, you do not have to make estimated tax payments if you expect that your 1999 tax return will show a tax refund OR a tax balance due the IRS of less than $1,000. If your total estimated tax (including any alternative minimum tax) for 1999 is $1,000 or more, see Form 1040-ES. It has a worksheet you can use to see if you have to make estimated tax payments. See Pub. 505 for more details.

How Do You Amend Your Tax Return? File Form 1040X to change a return you already filed. Generally, Form 1040X must be filed within 3 years after the date the original return was filed, or within 2 years after the date the tax was paid, whichever is later. But you may have more time to file Form 1040X if you are physically or mentally unable to manage your financial affairs. See Pub. 556 for details.

How Do You Make a Gift To Reduce the Public Debt? If you wish to do so, make a check payable to "Bureau of the Public Debt." You can send it to: Bureau of the Public Debt, Department G, Washington, DC 20239-0601. Or, you can enclose the check with your income tax return when you file.

If you itemize your deductions for 1999, you may be able to deduct this gift.

Do Both the Name and Social Security Number (SSN) on Your Tax Forms Agree With Your Social Security Card? If not, your refund may be delayed or you may not receive credit for your social security earnings. If your Form W-2, Form 1099, or other tax document shows an incorrect SSN or name, notify your employer or the form-issuing agent as soon as possible to make sure your earnings are credited to your social security record. If the name or SSN on your social security card is incorrect, call the Social Security Administration at 1-800-772-1213.

Other Ways To Get Help

Send Your Written Questions to the IRS. You may send your written tax questions to your IRS District Director. You should get an answer in about 30 days. If you do not have the address, call us. See page 10 for the number. Do not send questions with your return.

Assistance With Your Return. IRS offices can help you prepare your return. An assister will explain a Form 1040EZ, 1040A, or 1040 with Schedules A and B to you and other taxpayers in a group setting. You may also be able to file your return electronically by computer free of charge at some IRS offices. To find the IRS office nearest you, look in the phone book under "United States Government, Internal Revenue Service" or call us. See page 10 for the number.

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) and Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE). These programs help older, disabled, low-income, and non-English-speaking people fill in their returns. For details, call us. See page 10 for the number. If you received a Federal income tax package in the mail, take it with you when you go for help. Also take a copy of your 1997 tax return if you have it. Or to find the nearest American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) Tax-Aide site, visit AARP's Internet Web Site at—www.aarp.org/taxaide/home.htm or call 1-888-AARPNOW.

On-Line Services. If you subscribe to an on-line service, ask if on-line filing or tax information is available.

Large-Print Forms and Instructions. Pub. 1615 has large-print copies of Form 1040A, Schedules 1, 2, 3, and EIC, and their instructions. You can use the large-print form and schedules as worksheets to figure your tax, but you cannot file on them. You can get Pub. 1615 by phone or mail. See page 6.

Help for People With Disabilities. Telephone help is available using TTY/TDD equipment. See page 10 for the number to call.

Braille materials are available at libraries that have special services for people with disabilities.

Help With Unresolved Tax Issues. Most problems can be solved with one contact either by calling, writing, or visiting an IRS office. But if you have tried unsuccessfully to resolve a problem with the IRS, you should contact the Taxpayer Advocate's Problem Resolution Program (PRP). Someone at PRP will assign you a personal advocate who is in the best position to try to resolve your problem. The Taxpayer Advocate can also offer you special help if you have a significant hardship as a result of a tax problem.

You should contact the Taxpayer Advocate if:

- You have tried unsuccessfully to resolve your problem with the IRS and have not been contacted by the date promised, or
- You are on your second attempt to resolve a problem.

You may contact a Taxpayer Advocate by calling a new toll-free assistance number, 1-877-777-4778. People with access to TTY/TDD equipment may call 1-800-829-4059 and ask for the Taxpayer Advocate. If you prefer, you can write to the Taxpayer Advocate at the IRS office that last contacted you.

While Taxpayer Advocates cannot change the tax law or make a technical tax decision, they can clear up problems that resulted from previous contacts and ensure that your case is given a complete and impartial review. Taxpayer Advocates are working to put service first. For more details, use TeleTax topic 104 (see page 8) or see Pub. 1546.

Order Blank for Forms and Publications

For faster ways of getting the items you need such as by computer or fax, see page 6.

How To Use the Order Blank

1. Cut the order blank on the dotted line and be sure to print or type your name accurately in the space provided.
2. Circle the items you need. Use the blank spaces to order items not listed. If you need more space, attach a separate sheet of paper listing the additional items you need. To help reduce waste, please order only the items you need to prepare your return. We will send you two copies of each form and one copy of each publication you circle.

3. Enclose the order blank in your own envelope and send it to the IRS address shown on the next page. Do not use the envelope we sent you in your tax package because this envelope may be used only for filing your income tax return. You should receive a response within 10 days after we receive your request.

What Should You Know About the Disclosure, Privacy Act, and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice?

The IRS Restructuring and Reform Act of 1998, the Privacy Act of 1974, and the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980 require that when we ask you for information we must first tell you our legal right to ask for the information, why we are asking for it, and how it will be used. We must also tell you what could happen if we do not receive it and whether your response is voluntary, required to obtain a benefit, or mandatory under the law.

This notice applies to all papers you file with us, including this tax return. It also applies to any questions we need to ask you so we can complete, correct, or process your return; figure your tax; and collect tax, interest, or penalties.

Our authority to ask for information is Internal Revenue Code sections 6001, 6011, and 6012(a) which require you to file a return or statement with us for any tax for which you are liable. Your response is mandatory under these sections. Code section 6109 requires that you provide your social security number or individual taxpayer identification number on what you file. This is so we know who you are, and can process your return and other papers. You must fill in all parts of the tax form that apply to you. However, you do not have to check the boxes for the Presidential Election Campaign Fund or provide your daytime telephone number.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books and records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may be material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law.

We ask for tax return information to carry out the tax laws of the United States. We need it to figure and collect the right amount of tax.

If you do not file a return, do not give the information asked for, or give false information, you may be charged penalties and be subject to criminal prosecution. We may also have to disallow the exemptions, exclusions, credits, deductions, or adjustments shown on your tax return. This could make the tax higher or delay any refund. Interest may also be charged.

Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as stated in Code section 6103. However, Code section 6103 allows or requires the Internal Revenue Service to disclose or give the information shown on your tax return to others as described in the Code. For example, we may disclose your tax information to the Department of Justice to enforce the tax laws, both civil and criminal, and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, U.S. commonwealths or possessions, and certain foreign governments to carry out their tax laws. We may disclose your tax information to the Department of Treasury and contractors for tax administration purposes; and to other persons as necessary to obtain information which we cannot get in any other way in order to determine the amount of or to collect the tax you owe. We may disclose your tax information to the Comptroller General of the United States to permit the Comptroller General to review the Internal Revenue Service. We may also disclose your tax information to Committees of Congress; Federal, state, and local child support agencies; and to other Federal agencies for the purposes of determining entitlement for benefits or the eligibility for and the repayment of loans.

Please keep this notice with your records. It may help you if we ask you for other information. If you have any questions about the rules for filing and giving information, please call or visit any Internal Revenue Service office.

The Time It Takes To Prepare Your Return. We try to create forms and instructions that can be easily understood. The time needed to complete and file the forms in the chart below will vary depending on individual circumstances.

The estimated average time for people with IRA distributions, pension income, social security benefits, etc., is:

Recordkeeping, 2 hr., 17 min.; Learning about the law or the form, 2 hr., 20 min.; Preparing the form, 3 hr., 13 min.;

Copying, assembling, and sending the form to the IRS, 35 min.; Total, 8 hr., 25 min.

We Welcome Comments on Forms. If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making these forms simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. You can e-mail us your suggestions and comments through the IRS Internet Home Page (www.irs.ustreas.gov) or write to the Tax Forms Committee, Western Area Distribution Center, Rancho Cordova, CA 95743-0001.

DO NOT send your return to this address. Instead, see Where Do You File? on the back cover.

1998 Tax Table

For persons with taxable incomes of less than $50,000

Example. Mr. and Mrs. Green are filing a joint return. Their taxable income on line 24 of Form 1040A is $23,250. First, they find the $23,250–23,300 income line. Next, they find the column for married filing jointly and read down the column. The amount shown where the income line and filing status column meet is $3,491. This is the tax amount they should enter on line 25 of Form 1040A.

At least	But less than	Single	Married filing jointly *	Married filing separately	Head of a household

Instructions for Schedules to Form 1040A

Instructions for Schedule 1

Purpose of Schedule

You must file Schedule 1 if:

- You had over $400 of taxable interest (fill in Part I), or
- You received interest from a seller-financed mortgage and the buyer used the property as a personal residence (fill in Part I), or
- You are claiming the exclusion of interest from series EE U.S. savings bonds issued after 1989 (fill in Part I), or
- You received interest as a nominee or a Form 1099-INT for tax-exempt interest (fill in Part I), or
- You had over $400 of ordinary dividends or you received ordinary dividends as a nominee (fill in Part II).

If you need more space to list your interest or dividends, attach separate statements that are the same size as Schedule 1. Use the same format as lines 1 and 5, but show your totals on Schedule 1. Be sure to put your name and social security number on the statements and attach them at the end of Form 1040A.

Part I

Interest

Line 1

Report on line 1 all of your taxable interest income. Include interest from series EE U.S. savings bonds. List each payer's name and show the amount.

Seller-Financed Mortgages. If you sold your home or other property and the buyer used the property as a personal residence, list first any interest the buyer paid you on a mortgage or other form of seller financing. Be sure to show the buyer's name, address, and social security number (SSN). You must also let the buyer know your SSN. If you do not show the buyer's name, address, and SSN and let the buyer know your SSN, you may have to pay a $50 penalty.

Nominees. If you received a Form 1099-INT that includes interest you received as a nominee (that is, in your name, but the interest actually belongs to someone else), report the total on line 1. Do this even if you later distributed some or all of this income to others. Under your last entry on line 1, put a subtotal of all interest listed on line 1. Below this subtotal, enter "Nominee Distribution" and show the total interest you received as a nominee. Subtract this amount from the subtotal and enter the result on line 2.

*If you received interest as a nominee, you must give the actual owner a Form 1099-INT unless the owner is your spouse. You must also file a Form 1096 and a Form 1099-INT with the IRS. For more details, see the Instructions for Forms 1099, 1098, 5498, and W-2G.

Tax-Exempt Interest. If you received a Form 1099-INT for tax-exempt interest, follow the rules earlier under Nominees to see how to report the interest on Schedule 1. But identify the amount to be subtracted as "Tax-Exempt Interest." Be sure to also include this tax-exempt interest on Form 1040A, line 8b.

Line 3

Did you cash series EE U.S. savings bonds in 1998 that were issued after 1989? If you did and you paid qualified higher education expenses in 1998 for yourself, your spouse, or your dependents, you may be able to exclude part or all of the interest on those bonds. See Form 8815 for details.

---

Part II

Ordinary Dividends

Line 5

Report on line 5 all of your ordinary dividend income. List each payer's name and show the amount.

Nominees. If you received a Form 1099-DIV that includes ordinary dividends you received as a nominee (that is, in your name, but the ordinary dividends actually belong to someone else), report the total on line 5. Do this even if you later distributed some or all of this income to others. Under your last entry on line 5, put a subtotal of all ordinary dividends listed on line 5. Below this subtotal, enter "Nominee Distribution" and show the total ordinary dividends you received as a nominee. Subtract this amount from the subtotal and enter the result on line 6.

*If you received ordinary dividends as a nominee, you must give the actual owner a Form 1099-DIV unless the owner is your spouse. You must also file a Form 1096 and a Form 1099-DIV with the IRS. For more details, see the Instructions for Forms 1099, 1098, 5498, and W-2G.

Purpose of Schedule

If you paid someone to care for your child or other qualifying person so you (and your spouse if filing a joint return) could work or look for work in 1998, you may be able to take the credit for child and dependent care expenses. But you must have had earned income to do so. If you can take the credit, use Schedule 2 to figure the amount of your credit.

If you received any dependent care benefits for 1998, you MUST use Schedule 2 to figure the amount, if any, of the benefits you may exclude from your income on Form 1040A, line 7. You must complete Part III of Schedule 2 before you can figure the credit, if any, in Part II.

Definitions

Dependent Care Benefits. These include amounts your employer paid directly to either you or your care provider for the care of your qualifying person(s) while you worked. These benefits also include the fair market value of care in a day-care facility provided or sponsored by your employer. Your salary may have been reduced to pay for these benefits. If you received dependent care benefits, they should be shown in box 10 of your 1998 W-2 form(s).

Qualifying Person(s). A qualifying person is:

- Any child under age 13 whom you can claim as a dependent (but see Exception for children of divorced or separated parents below). If the child turned 13 during the year, the child is a qualifying person for the part of the year he or she was under age 13.
- Your disabled spouse who is not able to care for himself or herself.
- Any disabled person not able to care for himself or herself whom you can claim as a dependent (or could claim as a dependent except that the person had gross income of $2,700 or more). But if this person is your child, see Exception for children of divorced or separated parents below.

To find out who is a dependent, see the instructions for Form 1040A, line 6c, that begin on page 21.

Caution: To be a qualifying person, the person must have shared the same home with you in 1998.

Exception for children of divorced or separated parents. If you were divorced, legally separated, or lived apart from your spouse during the last 6 months of 1998, you may be able to take the credit or the exclusion even if your child is not your dependent. If your child is not your dependent, he or she is a qualifying person only if all five of the following apply.

1. You had custody of the child for a longer time in 1998 than the other parent. See Pub. 501 for the definition of custody.
2. One or both of the parents provided over half of the child's support in 1998.
3. One or both of the parents had custody of the child for more than half of 1998.

4. The child was under age 13 or was disabled and could not take care of himself or herself.
5. The other parent claims the child as a dependent under the rules for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents on page 22.

If this exception applies, the other parent cannot treat the child as a qualifying person even though the other parent claims the child as a dependent.

Qualified Expenses. These include amounts paid for household services and care of the qualifying person while you worked or looked for work. Child support payments are not qualified expenses. Also, expenses reimbursed by a state social service agency are not qualified expenses unless you included the reimbursement in your income.

Household services. These are services needed to care for the qualifying person as well as to run the home. They include, for example, the services of a cook, maid, babysitter, housekeeper, or cleaning person if the services were partly for the care of the qualifying person. Do not include services of a chauffeur or gardener.

You may also include your share of the employment taxes paid on wages for qualifying child and dependent care services.

Care of the qualifying person. Care includes the cost of services for the qualifying person's well-being and protection. It does not include the cost of clothing or entertainment.

You may include the cost of care provided outside your home for your dependent under age 13 or any other qualifying person who regularly spends at least 8 hours a day in your home. If the care was provided by a dependent care center, the center must meet all applicable state and local regulations. A dependent care center is a place that provides care for more than six persons (other than persons who live there) and receives a fee, payment, or grant for providing services for any of those persons, even if the center is not run for profit.

You may include amounts paid for items other than the care of your child (such as food and schooling) only if the items are incidental to the care of the child and cannot be separated from the total cost. But do not include the cost of schooling for a child in the first grade or above. Also, do not include any expenses for sending your child to an overnight camp.

Medical expenses. Some disabled spouse and dependent care expenses may qualify as medical expenses if you itemize deductions. But you must use Form 1040. See Pub. 503 and Pub. 502 for details.

Earned Income. Earned income includes the following amounts.

- The amount shown on Form 1040A, line 7, minus any amount included for a scholarship or fellowship grant that was not reported to you on a W-2 form. For purposes of Part III of Schedule 2, earned income does not include any dependent care benefits shown on line 10 of Schedule 2.
- Certain nontaxable earned income such as meals and lodging provided for the convenience of your employer. See Pub. 503 for details. However, including this income will only give you a larger credit or exclusion if your (or your spouse's) other earned income is less than the amount entered on Schedule 2, line 3 or line 14, whichever applies.

Special situations. If you are filing a joint return, disregard community property laws. If your spouse died in 1998 and had no earned income, see Pub. 503. If your spouse was a student or disabled in 1998, see the instructions for line 5 on page 59.

Who May Take the Credit or Exclude Dependent Care Benefits?

You may take the credit or the exclusion if all six of the following apply.

1. Your filing status is single, head of household, qualifying widow(er) with dependent child, or married filing jointly. But see Married Persons Filing Separate Returns on this page.
2. The care was provided so you (and your spouse if you were married) could work or look for work. However, if you did not find a job and have no earned income for the year, you cannot take the credit or the exclusion. But if your spouse was a student or disabled, see the instructions for line 5 on page 59.
3. You (and your spouse if you were married) paid over half the cost of keeping up your home. Use TeleTax topic 602 (see page 8) or see Pub. 503 for an explanation of what costs are included.
4. You and the qualifying person(s) lived in the same home.
5. The person who provided the care was not your spouse or a person whom you can claim as a dependent. If your child provided the care, he or she must have been age 19 or older by the end of 1998.
6. You report the required information about the care provider on line 1 and, if taking the credit, the information about the qualifying person on line 2.

Married Persons Filing Separate Returns. If your filing status is married filing separately and all of the following apply, you are considered unmarried for purposes of figuring the credit and the exclusion on Schedule 2.

- You lived apart from your spouse during the last 6 months of 1998, and
- The qualifying person lived in your home more than half of 1998, and
- You provided over half the cost of keeping up your home.

If you meet all the requirements to be treated as unmarried and meet items 2 through 6 listed earlier, you may take the credit or the exclusion. If you do not meet all the requirements to be treated as unmarried, you cannot take the credit. However, you may take the exclusion if you meet items 2 through 6.

Part I

Persons or Organizations Who Provided the Care

Line 1

Complete columns (a) through (d) for each person or organization that provided the care. You can use Form W-10 or any other source listed in its instructions to get the information from the care provider. If you do not give correct or complete information, your credit (and exclusion, if applicable) may be disallowed unless you can show you used due diligence in trying to get the required information.

Due Diligence. You can show a serious and earnest effort (due diligence) to get the information by keeping in your records a Form W-10 completed by the care provider. Or you may keep one of the other sources of information listed in the instructions for Form W-10. If the provider does not give you the information, complete the entries you can on line 1 of Schedule 2. For example, enter the provider's name and address. Enter "See Page 2" in the columns for which you do not have the information. Then, on the bottom of page 2, explain that the provider did not give you the information you asked for.

Columns (a) and (b). Enter the care provider's name and address. If you were covered by your employer's dependent care plan and your employer furnished the care (either at your workplace or by hiring a care provider), enter your employer's name in column (a). Next, enter "See W-2" in column (b). Then, leave columns (c) and (d) blank. But if your employer paid a third party (not hired by your employer) on your behalf to provide the care, you must give information on the third party in columns (a) through (d).

Column (c). If the care provider is an individual, enter his or her social security number (SSN). Otherwise, enter the provider's employer identification number (EIN). If the provider is a tax-exempt organization, enter "Tax-Exempt."

Column (d). Enter the total amount you actually paid in 1998 to the care provider. Also, include amounts your employer paid to a third party on your behalf. It does not matter when the expenses were incurred. Do not reduce this amount by any reimbursement you received.

Part II

Credit for Child and Dependent Care Expenses

Line 2

Complete columns (a) through (c) for each qualifying person. If you have more than two qualifying persons, attach a statement to your return with the required information. Be sure to put your name and social security number (SSN) on the statement. Also, enter "See Attached" on the line next to line 3.

Column (a). Enter each qualifying person's name.

Column (b). You must enter the qualifying person's SSN unless he or she was born and died in 1998. If you do not enter the correct SSN, at the time we process your return, we may reduce or disallow your credit. If the person was born and died in 1998 and did not have an SSN, enter "Died" in column (b) and attach a copy of the person's birth certificate. To find out how to get an SSN, see Social Security Number (SSN) on page 19.

Column (c). Enter the qualified expenses you incurred and paid in 1998 for the person listed in column (a).

Do not include in column (c) qualified expenses—

- You incurred in 1998 but did not pay until 1999. You may be able to use these expenses to increase your 1999 credit.
- You incurred in 1997 but did not pay until 1998. Instead, see Credit for Prior Year's Expenses below.
- You prepaid in 1998 for care to be provided in 1999. These expenses may only be used to figure your 1999 credit.

Line 5

Spouse Who Was a Student or Disabled. Your spouse was a student if he or she was enrolled as a full-time student at a school during any 5 months of 1998. A school does not include a night school or correspondence school. Your spouse was disabled if he or she was not capable of self-care. Figure your spouse's earned income on a monthly basis.

For each month or part of a month your spouse was a student or was disabled, he or she is considered to have worked and earned income. His or her earned income for each month is considered to be at least $200 ($400 if more than one qualifying person was cared for in 1998). If your spouse also worked during that month, use the higher of $200 (or $400) or his or her actual earned income for that month. If, in the same month, both you and your spouse were either students or disabled, only one of you can be treated as having earned income in that month.

For any month that your spouse was not a student or disabled, use your spouse's actual earned income if he or she worked during the month.

Line 9

Do you have qualified expenses for 1997 that you did not pay until 1998?

Yes. See Credit for Prior Year's Expenses next.

No. See Credit Limit on this page.

Credit for Prior Year's Expenses. If you had qualified expenses for 1997 that you did not pay until 1998, you may be able to increase the amount of credit you can take in 1998. For details, see Amount of Credit in Pub. 503. If you can take a credit for your 1997 expenses, enter the amount of the credit and "PYE" next to line 9. Also, enter the name and social security number of the person for whom you paid the prior year's expenses next to this amount. Then, add the credit to the amount on line 9 and replace the amount on line 9 with that total. Also, attach a statement showing how you figured the credit. See Credit Limit next.

Credit Limit. Is the amount on line 9 more than the amount on Form 1040A, line 25?

No. Your credit is not limited. Enter on Form 1040A, line 26, the amount from Schedule 2, line 9.

Yes. Your credit is limited. Enter on Form 1040A, line 26, the amount from Form 1040A, line 25. Also, replace the amount on Schedule 2, line 9, with the amount from Form 1040A, line 25.

Part III

Dependent Care Benefits

Line 11

If you had a flexible spending account, any amount included on line 10 that you did not receive because you did not incur the expense is considered forfeited. Enter the forfeited amount on line 11. Do not include amounts you expect to receive at a future date.

Example. Under your employer's dependent care plan, you chose to have your employer set aside $5,000 to cover your 1998 dependent care expenses. The $5,000 is shown in box 10 of your W-2 form. In 1998, you incurred and were reimbursed for $4,950 of qualified expenses. You would enter $5,000 on line 10 and $50, the amount forfeited, on line 11.

Line 13

Enter the total of all qualified expenses incurred in 1998 for the care of your qualifying person(s). It does not matter when the expenses were paid.

Example. You received $2,000 in cash under your employer's dependent care plan for 1998. The $2,000 is shown in box 10 of your W-2 form. Only $900 of qualified expenses were incurred in 1998 for the care of your 5-year-old dependent child. You would enter $2,000 on line 10 and $900 on line 13.

Line 16

If your filing status is married filing separately, see Married Persons Filing Separate Returns on page 58. Are you considered unmarried under that rule?

Yes. Enter your earned income (from line 15) on line 16. On line 18, enter the smaller of the amount from line 17 or $5,000.

No. Enter your spouse's earned income on line 16. If your spouse was a student or disabled in 1998, see the instructions for line 5. On line 18, enter the smaller of the amount from line 17 or $2,500.

Major Categories of Federal Income and Outlays for Fiscal Year 1997

On or before the first Monday in February of each year, the President is required to submit to the Congress a budget proposal for the fiscal year that begins the following October. The budget sets forth the President's proposed receipts, spending, and deficit or surplus for the Federal Government. The plan includes recommendations for new legislation as well as recommendations to change, eliminate, and add programs. After receiving the President's proposal, the Congress reviews it and makes changes. It first passes a budget resolution setting its own targets for receipts, outlays, and deficit or surplus. Individual spending and revenue bills are then enacted consistent with the goals of the budget resolution.

In fiscal year 1997 (which began on October 1, 1996, and ended on September 30, 1997), Federal income was $1,579 billion and outlays were $1,601 billion, leaving a deficit of $22 billion.

Federal Income

Income and social insurance taxes are, by far, the largest source of receipts. In 1997, individuals paid $737 billion in income taxes and corporations paid $182 billion. Social security and other insurance and retirement contributions were $539 billion. Excise taxes were $57 billion. The remaining $63 billion of receipts were from Federal Reserve deposits, customs duties, estate and gift taxes, and other miscellaneous receipts.

Federal Outlays

About 99% of total outlays were financed by tax receipts and the remaining 1% was financed by borrowing. Government receipts and borrowing finance a wide range of public services. The following is the breakdown of total outlays for fiscal year 1997*:

1. Social security, Medicare, and other retirement: $632 billion. These programs were about 38% of total outlays. They provide income support for the retired and disabled and medical care for the elderly.

2. National defense, veterans, and foreign affairs: $325 billion. About 16% of total outlays were to equip, modernize, and pay our armed forces and to fund other national defense activities; about 2% went for veterans benefits and services; and about 1% went for international activities, including military and economic assistance to foreign countries and the maintenance of U.S. embassies abroad.

3. Net interest: $244 billion. About 15% of total outlays were for net interest payments on the public debt.

4. Physical, human, and community development: $123 billion. About 7% of total outlays were for agriculture; natural resources and environmental programs; transportation programs; aid for elementary and secondary education and direct assistance to college students; job training programs; deposit insurance, commerce and housing credit, and community development; and space, energy, and general science programs.

5. Social programs: $294 billion. The Federal Government spent 12% of total outlays to fund Medicaid, food stamps, temporary assistance to needy families, supplemental security income, and related programs. 6% was spent for health research and public health programs, unemployment compensation, assisted housing, and social services.

6. Law enforcement and general government: $33 billion. About 2% of total outlays were for judicial activities, Federal law enforcement, and prisons; and to provide for the general costs of the Federal Government, including the collection of taxes and legislative activities.

Note: Detail may not add to total due to rounding.

Income and Outlays—These pie charts show the relative sizes of the major categories of Federal income and outlays for fiscal year 1997.

* The percentages on this page exclude undistributed offsetting receipts, which were -$50 billion in fiscal year 1997. In the budget, these receipts are offset against spending in figuring the outlay totals shown above. These receipts are for the U.S. Government's share of its employee retirement programs, rents and royalties on the Outer Continental Shelf, and proceeds from the spectrum auction.

Where Do You File?

If an envelope addressed to "Internal Revenue Service Center" came with your tax booklet, please use it. If you do not have one, or if you moved during the year, mail your return to the Internal Revenue Service Center for the place where you live. No street address is needed.

Envelopes without enough postage will be returned to you by the post office. If your envelope contains more than five pages or is oversized, it may need additional postage. Also, include your complete return address.
