Instructions for Form 1040NR

U.S. Nonresident Alien Income Tax Return

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

General Instructions

TIP: For details on these and other changes, see Pub. 553 or see What's Hot at www.irs.ustreas.gov.

What's New for 1998?

Student Loan Interest Deduction

If you paid interest on a qualified student loan, you may be able to deduct up to $1,000 of the interest on line 25. See the instructions for line 25 on page 9 for details.

New Child Tax Credits

Do you have a dependent child (see the instructions for line 7c on page 6 for a list of filers who are allowed to claim a dependent on Form 1040NR) who was under age 17 at the end of 1998?

If so, you may be able to claim either or both of these new credits:

- The Child Tax Credit
- The Additional Child Tax Credit

The total of these credits cannot be more than $400 for each qualifying child. Figure the child tax credit first. If you have three or more qualifying children and you are not able to claim the full $400 child tax credit for each child, you may be able to claim the additional credit.

The additional child tax credit is refundable; that is, it may give you a refund even if you do not owe any tax.

These credits are in addition to the child and dependent care credit that you may be able to claim.

Who is a Qualifying Child? The child must be your dependent and must meet certain other requirements. See Qualifying Child for Child Tax Credit in the instructions for line 7c, column (4), on page 6.

Caution: If the child meets those requirements, check the box in column (4) on line 7c of your return.

Where Do You Claim These Credits?

Child Tax Credit. If you have at least one qualifying child, follow the instructions that begin on page 10. Enter the credit on Form 1040NR, line 41.

Additional Child Tax Credit. Use Form 8812 to figure this credit and attach it to your return. Enter the additional child tax credit on Form 1040NR, line 56.

Sale of Your Home

If you sold your main home in 1998 and all four of the following apply, you do not have to report the sale on your tax return.

1. No part of the home was used for business or rental purposes.
2. You owned and lived in the home as your main home for at least 2 years within the 5-year period ending on the date of sale.
3. You have not sold or exchanged another main home after May 6, 1997.
4. The selling price of the home is not over $250,000.

If all four of the conditions do not apply, see Pub. 523 to find out if you have to report the sale on your return and, if you do, how to do so.

Self-Employed Health Insurance

You may be able to deduct up to 45% of your health insurance. See the instructions for line 28 on page 10 for details.

IRA Deduction Restored for Some People Covered by Retirement Plans

You may be able to take an IRA deduction if you were covered by a retirement plan and your modified adjusted gross income is less than $40,000 if you checked filing status box 1, 2, 3, 4, or 5; or $60,000 if qualifying widow(er) (filing status box 6). See the instructions for line 24 on page 9.

Conversions From Traditional IRAs to Roth IRAs

If you converted part or all of a traditional, SEP, or SIMPLE IRA to a Roth IRA in 1998, you may have to file Form 8606. See Form 8606 and its instructions for details.

Penalty-Free IRA Distributions

The additional tax on an early distribution from an IRA may not apply if you paid higher education expenses for yourself, your spouse, or your children or grandchildren. The tax also may not apply if you pay expenses related to the purchase of a home by a first-time homebuyer. See Form 5329 and its instructions for details.

Estimated Tax Penalty

You generally will not owe an estimated tax penalty if the amount you owe on line 67 is less than $1,000. See the instructions for line 68 on page 13.

Credit for Federal Tax Paid on Kerosene

If you bought undyed kerosene after June 30, 1998, for heating or certain other nonhighway uses, you may be able to take a credit of 24.4 cents for each gallon. You can get a refund even if you do not owe tax. See Form 4136.

Payment of Tax

If you owe tax, make your check or money order payable to the "United States Treasury." See the instructions for line 67 on page 13 for more details.

Standard Mileage Rates

The rate for business use of a vehicle has increased to 32.5 cents a mile. Starting this year, you can use the business rate even if you lease your vehicle. For charitable contributions, the rate has increased to 14 cents a mile.

What To Look for in 1999

Child Tax Credits. The total of the child tax credit and the additional child tax credit can be as much as $500 for each qualifying child.

Student Loan Interest Deduction. You may be able to deduct up to $1,500 of the interest you pay on a qualified student loan.

Self-Employed Health Insurance Deduction. You may be able to deduct up to 60% of your health insurance.

IRA Deduction Allowed to More Taxpayers Covered by a Retirement Plan. You may be able to take an IRA deduction if you are covered by a retirement plan and your 1999 modified adjusted gross income is less than: $41,000 if single or married filing separately and you lived apart from your spouse for all of 1999; or $61,000 if qualifying widow(er).

Items To Note

Form 1040NR-EZ. You may be able to use Form 1040NR-EZ, U.S. Income Tax Return for Certain Nonresident Aliens With No Dependents, if your only income from U.S. sources is wages, salaries, tips, taxable refunds of state and local income taxes, and scholarship or fellowship grants. Also, if married, you cannot claim an exemption for your spouse. For more details, see Form 1040NR-EZ and its instructions.

Other Reporting Requirements. If you meet the closer connection to a foreign country exception to the substantial presence test you must file Form 8840, Closer Connection Exception Statement for Aliens. If you exclude days of presence in the United States for purposes of the substantial presence test, you must file Form 8843, Statement for Exempt Individuals and Individuals With a Medical Condition. This rule does not apply to foreign-government-related individuals who exclude days of presence in the United States. Certain dual-resident taxpayers who claim tax treaty benefits must file Form 8833, Treaty-Based Return Position Disclosure Under Section 6114 or 7701(b). A dual-resident taxpayer is one who is a resident of both the United States and another country under each country's tax laws.

Additional Information

If you need more information, our free publications may help you. Pub. 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens, will be the most important, but the following publications may also help.

Pub. 525, Taxable and Nontaxable Income

Pub. 529, Miscellaneous Deductions

Pub. 552, Recordkeeping for Individuals

Pub. 597, Information on the United States-Canada Income Tax Treaty

Pub. 901, U.S. Tax Treaties

Pub. 910, Guide to Free Tax Services (includes a list of all publications)

These free publications and the forms and schedules you will need are available on request from the Internal Revenue Service. If you have a foreign address, send your order to the Eastern Area Distribution Center, P.O. Box 85627, Richmond, VA 23285-5627, U.S.A.

Resident Alien or Nonresident Alien

If you are not a citizen of the United States, specific rules apply to determine if you are a resident alien or a nonresident alien for tax purposes. Generally, you are considered a resident alien if you meet either the green card test or the substantial presence test for 1998. If you do not meet either of these tests for 1998 but you meet the substantial presence test for 1999, you may be able to choose to be treated as a resident alien for part of 1998. But you must have been physically present in the United States for at least 31 days in a row during 1998 to do so. This choice does not apply if you met either the green card test or the substantial presence test for 1997. For more details, see Pub. 519.

You are considered a nonresident alien for the year if you are not a U.S. resident under either of these tests. You are also considered a nonresident alien if you otherwise meet the substantial presence test but you come under any of the three exceptions described below.

For more details on resident and nonresident status, the tests for residence and the exceptions to them, see Pub. 519.

Green Card Test. You are a resident for tax purposes if you were a lawful permanent resident (immigrant) of the United States at any time during 1998.

Substantial Presence Test. You are considered a U.S. resident if you meet the substantial presence test for 1998. You meet this test if you were physically present in the United States for at least:

1. 31 days during 1998, and
2. 183 days during the period 1998, 1997, and 1996, counting all the days of physical presence in 1998 but only  $\frac{1}{2}$  the number of days of presence in 1997 and only  $\frac{1}{6}$  the number of days in 1996.

Generally, you are treated as present in the United States on any day that you are physically present in the country at any time during the day.

Exceptions. The following are exceptions to the substantial presence test.

1. Exempt individual. You do not count days for which you are an exempt individual. In general, an exempt individual is someone who is a:

- a. foreign-government-related individual,
- b. teacher or trainee,
- c. student, or
- d. professional athlete who is temporarily in the United States to compete in a charitable sports event.

Note: Alien individuals with "Q" visas are treated as either students, teachers, or trainees and, as such, are exempt individuals for purposes of the substantial presence test if they otherwise qualify. "Q" visas are issued to aliens participating in certain international cultural exchange programs.

2. Medical condition. You do not count any day that you intended to leave the United States but were unable to leave because of a medical condition or medical problem that arose while you were present in the United States.

Note: This exception does not apply to pre-existing medical conditions or problems. For more details, see Pub. 519.

3. Closer connection to foreign country. Even though you would otherwise meet the substantial presence test, you are not treated as having met that test for 1998 if you:

- a. were present in the United States for fewer than 183 days during 1998,
- b. establish that during 1998 you had a tax home in a foreign country, and
- c. establish that during 1998 you had a closer connection to one foreign country in which you had a tax home than to the United States unless you had a closer connection to two foreign countries.

Who Must File

File Form 1040NR if any of the following four conditions applies to you.

1. You were a nonresident alien engaged in a trade or business in the United States during 1998. You must file even if—
  - a. none of your income came from a trade or business conducted in the United States,
  - b. you have no U.S. source income, or
  - c. your income is exempt from U.S. tax.

In any of the above three cases, do not complete the schedules for Form 1040NR. Instead, attach a list of the kinds of exclusions you claim and the amount of each.

Note: If you were a nonresident alien student, teacher, or trainee who was temporarily present in the United States under an "F," "J," "M," or "Q" visa, you must file Form 1040NR (or Form 1040NR-EZ) only if you have income that is subject to tax under section 871 (i.e., the income items listed on lines 8 through 21 on page 1 of Form 1040NR and on lines 69 through 79 on page 4 of Form 1040NR).

2. You were a nonresident alien not engaged in a trade or business in the United States during 1998 and not all U.S. tax that you owe was withheld from your income.
3. You represent a deceased person who would have had to file Form 1040NR.
4. You represent an estate or trust that has to file Form 1040NR.

Exception for Children Under Age 14. If your child was under age 14 on January 1, 1999, had income only from interest and dividends that are effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business, and that income totaled less than $6,500, you may be able to elect to report your child's income on your return. But you must use Form 8814, Parents' Election To Report Child's Interest and Dividends, to do so. If you make this election, your child does not have to file a return. For more details, see Form 8814.

Filing a Deceased Person's Return. The personal representative must file the return for a deceased person who was required to file a return for 1998. A personal representative can be an executor, administrator, or anyone who is in charge of the deceased person's property.

Filing for an Estate or Trust. If you are filing Form 1040NR for a nonresident alien estate or trust, change the form to reflect the provisions of Subchapter J, Chapter 1, of the Internal Revenue Code. You may find it helpful to refer to Form 1041, U.S. Income Tax Return for Estates and Trusts, and its instructions.

When To File

Individuals. If you were an employee and received wages subject to withholding, file Form 1040NR by the 15th day of the 4th month after your tax year ends. A return for the 1998 calendar year is due by April 15, 1999.

If you did not receive wages as an employee subject to U.S. income tax withholding, file Form 1040NR by the 15th day of the 6th month after your tax year ends. A return for the 1998 calendar year is due by June 15, 1999.

Estates and Trusts. If you file for a nonresident alien estate or trust that has an office in the United States, file the return by the 15th day of the 4th month after the tax year ends. If you file for a nonresident alien estate or trust that does not have an office in the United States, file the return by the 15th day of the 6th month after the tax year ends.

Note: If the regular due date for filing falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, file by the next business day.

Extension of Time To File. If you cannot file your return by the due date, you should file Form 4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time To File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return. You must file Form 4868 by the regular due date of the return.

Note: Form 4868 does not extend the time to pay your income tax. The tax is due by the regular due date of the return.

Where To File

File Form 1040NR with the Internal Revenue Service Center, Philadelphia, PA 19255, U.S.A.

Private Delivery Services

You can use certain private delivery services designated by the IRS to meet the "timely mailing as timely filing/paying" rule for tax returns and payments. The IRS publishes a list of the designated private delivery services in September of each year. The list published in September 1998 includes only the following:

- Airborne Express (Airborne): Overnight Air Express Service, Next Afternoon Service, and Second Day Service.
- DHL Worldwide Express (DHL): DHL "Same Day" Service, and DHL USA Overnight.
- Federal Express (FedEx): FedEx Priority Overnight, FedEx Standard Overnight, and FedEx 2Day.
- United Parcel Service (UPS): UPS Next Day Air, UPS Next Day Air Saver, UPS 2nd Day Air, and UPS 2nd Day Air A.M.

The private delivery service can tell you how to get written proof of the mailing date.

Caution: Private delivery services cannot deliver items to P.O. boxes. You must use the U.S. Postal Service to mail any item to an IRS P.O. box address.

Election To Be Taxed as a Resident Alien

You can elect to be taxed as a U.S. resident for the whole year if all of the following apply to you:

- You were married.
- Your spouse was a U.S. citizen or resident alien on the last day of the tax year.
- You file a joint return for the year of the election using Form 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ.

To make this election, you must attach the statement described in Pub. 519 to your return. Do not use Form 1040NR.

Your worldwide income for the whole year must be included and will be taxed under U.S. tax laws. You must agree to keep the records, books, and other information needed to figure the tax. If you made the election in an earlier year, you may file a joint return or separate return for 1998. If you file a separate return, use Form 1040 or Form 1040A. Your worldwide income for the whole year must be included whether you file a joint or separate return.

Caution: Nonresident aliens who make this election may forfeit the right to claim benefits otherwise available under a U.S. tax treaty. For more details, see Pub. 901 or refer to the specific treaty.

Dual-Status Taxpayers

Note: If you elect to be taxed as a resident alien (discussed above), the special instructions and restrictions discussed here do not apply.

Dual-Status Tax Year

A dual-status year is one in which you change status between nonresident and resident alien. Different U.S. income tax rules apply to each status.

Most dual-status years are the years of arrival or departure. Before you arrive in the United States, you are a nonresident alien. After you arrive, you may or may not be a resident, depending on the circumstances.

If you become a U.S. resident, you stay a resident until you leave the United States. You may become a nonresident alien when you leave, if, after leaving (or after your last day of lawful permanent residency if you met the green card test) and for the remainder of the calendar year of your departure, you have a closer connection to a foreign country than to the United States, and, during the next calendar year, you are not a U.S. resident under either the green card test or the substantial presence test. See Pub. 519.

What and Where To File for a Dual-Status Year

If you were a U.S. resident on the last day of the tax year, file Form 1040, U.S. Individual Income Tax Return. Write "Dual-Status Return" across the top and attach a statement showing your income for the part of the year you were a nonresident. You may use Form 1040NR as the statement; write "Dual-Status Statement" across the top. File your return and statement with the Internal Revenue Service Center, Philadelphia, PA 19255, U.S.A.

If you were a nonresident on the last day of the tax year, file Form 1040NR. Write "Dual-Status Return" across the top and attach a statement showing your income for the part of the year you were a U.S. resident. You may use Form 1040 as the statement; write "Dual-Status Statement" across the top. File your return and statement with the Internal Revenue Service Center, Philadelphia, PA 19255, U.S.A.

Statements. Any statement you file with your return must show your name, address, and identifying number (defined on page 5).

Former long-term U.S. residents are required to file Form 8854, Expatriation Information Statement, with their dual-status return for the last year of U.S. residency. To determine if you are a former long-term U.S. resident, see page 4.

Income Subject to Tax for Dual-Status Year

As a dual-status taxpayer not filing a joint return, you are taxed on income from all sources for the part of the year you were a resident alien. Generally, you are taxed on income only from U.S. sources for the part of the year you were a nonresident alien. However, all income effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States is taxable.

Income you received as a dual-status taxpayer from sources outside the United States while a resident alien is taxable, even if you became a nonresident alien after receiving it and before the close of the tax year. Conversely, income you received from sources outside the United States while a nonresident alien is not taxable in most cases, even if you became a resident alien after receiving it and before the close of the tax year. Income from U.S. sources is taxable whether you received it while a nonresident alien or a resident alien.

Restrictions for Dual-Status Taxpayers

Standard Deduction. You may not take the standard deduction.

Head of Household. You may not use the Head of Household Tax Table column or Tax Rate Schedule.

Joint Return. You may not file a joint return. However, see Election To Be Taxed as a Resident Alien above.

Tax Rates. If you were married and a nonresident of the United States for all or part of the tax year and you do not make the election to be taxed as a resident alien as discussed earlier, you must use the Tax Table column or Tax Rate Schedule for Married Filing Separately to figure your tax on income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. If married, you may not use the Single Tax Table column or Tax Rate Schedule.

Deduction for Exemptions. As a dual-status taxpayer, you usually will be entitled to your own personal exemption. Subject to the general rules for qualification, you are allowed exemptions for your spouse and dependents in figuring taxable income for the part of the year you were a resident alien. The amount you may claim for these exemptions is limited to your taxable income (determined without regard to exemptions) for the part of the year you were a resident alien. You may not use exemptions (other than your own) to reduce taxable income to below zero for that period.

Special rules apply for exemptions for the part of the tax year a dual-status taxpayer is a nonresident alien if the taxpayer is a resident of Canada, Mexico, Japan, or the Republic of Korea; a U.S. national; or a student or business apprentice from India. See Pub. 519.

Education Credits. You may not take an education credit unless your filing status is married filing jointly.

How To Figure Tax for Dual-Status Year

When you figure your U.S. tax for a dual-status year, you are subject to different rules for the part of the year you were a resident and the part of the year you were a nonresident.

All income for the period of residence and all income that is effectively connected with a trade or business in the United States for the period of nonresidence, after allowable deductions, is added and taxed at the same rates that apply to U.S. citizens and residents. Income that is not effectively connected with a trade or business in the United States for the period of nonresidence is subject to the flat 30% rate or lower treaty rate. No deductions are allowed against this income.

If you were a resident alien on the last day of the tax year, add to the tax from the Tax Table, Tax Rate Schedules, Schedule D (Form 1040), or Form 8615 the tax on the noneffectively connected income. Enter the total tax on Form 1040, line 40. Next to line 40 show the two amounts. If you are filing Form 1040NR, enter the tax from the Tax Table, Tax Rate Schedules, Schedule D (Form 1040), or Form 8615 on line 39 and the tax on the noneffectively connected income on line 48.

Credits. You are allowed a credit against your U.S. income tax liability for certain taxes you paid, are considered to have paid, or that were withheld from your income. These include:

1. Tax withheld from wages earned in the United States and taxes withheld at the source from various items of income from U.S. sources other than wages. This includes U.S. tax withheld on dispositions of U.S. real property interests.

When filing Form 1040, show the total tax withheld on line 57. Enter amounts from the attached statement (Form 1040NR, lines 54, 61a, 61b, 62a, and 62b) to the left of line 57 and identify and include in the amount on line 57.

When filing Form 1040NR, show the total tax withheld on lines 54, 61a, 61b, 62a, and 62b. Enter the amount from the attached statement (Form 1040, line 57) to the left of line 54 and identify and include in the amount on line 54.

2. Tax paid with Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals, or Form 1040-ES (NR), U.S. Estimated Tax for Nonresident Alien Individuals.

3. Tax paid with Form 1040-C, U.S. Departing Alien Income Tax Return. When filing Form 1040, include the tax paid with Form 1040-C with the total payments on line 64. Identify the payment in the area to the left of the entry.

As a dual-status taxpayer, you generally may claim tax credits using the same rules that apply to resident aliens.

How To Report Income on Form 1040NR

Community Income

If either you or your spouse, or both you and your spouse, were nonresident aliens at any time during the tax year, and you had community income during the year, treat the community income according to the applicable community property laws except as follows:

- Earned income of a spouse, other than trade or business or partnership distributive share income. The spouse whose services produced the income must report it on his or her separate return.
- Trade or business income, other than partnership income. Treat this income as received by the husband unless the wife exercises substantially all of the management over the trade or business.
- Partnership income (or loss) received from a trade or business carried on by the partnership. Treat this income (or loss) as received by the spouse who is the partner and report it on that spouse's return.
- Income derived from the separate property of one spouse that is not earned income, trade or business income, or partnership distributive share income. The spouse with the separate property must report this income on his or her separate return.

See Pub. 555, Community Property, for more details.

Kinds of Income

You must divide your income for the tax year into the following three categories:

1. Income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. This income is taxed at the same rates that apply to U.S. citizens. Report it on page 1 of Form 1040NR. Pub. 519 describes this income in greater detail.

2. U.S. income not effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. This income is taxed at 30% unless a treaty between your country and the United States has set a lower rate that applies to you. Report this income on page 4 of Form 1040NR and figure the tax on it. Then, report the tax on line 48. Pub. 519 describes this income more fully.

Note: Use line 51 to report the 4% tax on U.S. source gross transportation income.

3. Income exempt from U.S. tax. Complete items L and M on page 5 of Form 1040NR and line 22 if applicable.

Dispositions of U.S. Real Property Interests

Gain or loss on the disposition of a U.S. real property interest by a nonresident alien individual is treated as if the alien individual were engaged in a trade or business in the United States and as if the gain or loss were effectively connected with the conduct of that trade or business. Losses of individuals shall be taken into account only to the extent they would be taken into account under section 165(c). See section 897 and its regulations.

Report gains and losses on the disposition of U.S. real property interests on Schedule D (Form 1040) and Form 1040NR, line 14. Also, net gains may be subject to the alternative minimum tax. See the instructions for line 47.

The nonrecognition rules (not recognizing gain or loss) apply only when a U.S. real property interest is exchanged for an interest the sale of which would be subject to U.S. tax.

Money and the fair market value of property received in exchange for an interest in a partnership, trust, or estate, will, to the extent attributable to a U.S. real property interest held by the partnership, trust, or estate, be considered as received from the sale or exchange of the U.S. real property interest.

Gains or losses from the disposition of a U.S. real property interest by a partnership, trust, or estate generally are passed through and must be reported on the income tax return of each partner or beneficiary.

U.S. Real Property Interests. A U.S. real property interest is any interest (other than an interest solely as a creditor) in real property located in the United States or the Virgin Islands, or any interest in a domestic corporation that is a U.S. real property holding corporation. Generally, real property includes:

- Land and unsevered natural products of the land, such as growing crops and timber, and mines, wells, and other natural deposits.
- Improvements on land, including buildings, other inherently permanent structures, and structural components of these.
- Personal property associated with the use of real property, such as farming, forestry, mining, or construction equipment, or property used in lodging facilities or rented office space. See Pub. 519 for exceptions.

A corporation is a U.S. real property holding corporation if the fair market value of its U.S. real property interests is 50% or more of the fair market value of its U.S. real property interests, interests in foreign real property, plus any other of its assets that are used or held for use in a trade or business. For special rules, see sections 897(c)(4) and (5).

An interest in a foreign corporation is a U.S. real property interest only if the corporation elected to be treated as a domestic corporation.

An interest in a domestic corporation is not a U.S. real property interest if at the date of disposition of the interest in the corporation: (a) the corporation did not hold any U.S. real property interests, and (b) all the U.S. real property interests held by the corporation during the shorter of the periods described in section 897(c)(1)(A)(ii):

1. Were disposed of in a transaction in which all gain realized was recognized, or
  2. Ceased to be U.S. real property interests because of the application of section 897(c)(1)(B) to one or more other corporations.
- Stock Regularly Traded. A U.S. real property interest does not include any class of stock of a domestic corporation that is regularly traded on an established securities market, unless you held more than 5% of that class of stock at any time during the shorter of the periods described in section 897(c)(1)(A)(ii).

Section 897(h) provides special rules for a real estate investment trust.

Virgin Islands Real Estate. Gain or loss on dispositions of real property interests located in the U.S. Virgin Islands is reported on returns filed with the Virgin Islands tax authorities. Tax on these dispositions is paid to the Virgin Islands tax authorities.

Income You May Elect To Treat as Effectively Connected With a U.S. Trade or Business

You may elect to treat some items of income as effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The election applies to all income from real property, or an interest in real property, located in the United States and held for the production of income. Income from real property includes:

- Rental income from real property.

- Profit from disposing of U.S. timber, coal, or iron ore while keeping a share in it.

- Rents and royalties from mines, oil or gas wells, or other natural resources.

The election does not apply to dispositions of U.S. real property interests discussed earlier.

To make the election, attach a statement to your return for the year of the election. Include in your statement:

1. That you are making the election.
2. A complete list of all your real property, or any interest in real property, located in the United States (including location). Give the legal identification of U.S. timber, coal, or iron ore in which you have an interest.
3. The extent of your interest in the real property.
4. A description of any substantial improvements on such real property.
5. Your income from the property.
6. The dates you owned it.
7. Whether the election is under section 871(d) or treaty.
8. Details of any previous elections and revocations of the real property elections.

Foreign Income Taxed by the United States

You may be required to report some income from foreign sources on your U.S. return if it is effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. For this foreign income to be treated as effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business, you must have a fixed place of business in the United States. The income, gain, or loss must result directly from the usual business activities of your U.S. office. The kinds of foreign income that may be taxed at the graduated rates are:

- Interest or dividends from the U.S. business.
- Income from foreign sales made by your U.S. office.
- Rents or royalties you received for the use of intangible property located outside the United States or the privilege of using it. Such property includes patents, copyrights, trademarks, and franchises.

Special Rules for Former U.S. Citizens and Former Long-Term U.S. Residents

Section 877 may affect your tax liability if you are a former citizen or former long-term resident of the United States. You are a former long-term resident if you were a lawful permanent resident of the United States (i.e., you had a green card) for at least 8 out of the 15 consecutive tax years ending with the year your residency ended. In determining if you are a former long-term resident, do not count any year that you were treated as a resident of another country under a tax treaty and did not waive treaty benefits.

If you were a former citizen or former long-term resident and you relinquished your citizenship or terminated your residency after February 5, 1995, you are subject to the provisions of section 877 on your U.S. source income if one of the principal purposes of your action was to avoid U.S. taxes.

You are considered to have tax avoidance as a principal purpose if (1) your average annual net income tax for the last 5 tax years ending before the date of your action to relinquish your citizenship or terminate your residency was more than $100,000, or (2) your net worth on the date of your action was $500,000 or more. These amounts are adjusted for inflation if your expatriation action is after 1996. If you expatriated in 1997, your average annual net income tax has to have been more than $106,000 or your net worth has to have been $528,000 or more for these rules to apply. If you expatriated in 1998, the amounts are $109,000 and $543,000, respectively.

Although there are exceptions to these rules, you will qualify for an exception only if you are eligible to submit a ruling request to the IRS that your renunciation of U.S. citizenship or termination of U.S. residency did not have as one of its principal purposes the avoidance of U.S. tax and you submit such a ruling request in a complete and good faith manner. For more details about these exceptions, see section 877(c); Notice 97-19, 1997-1 C.B. 394; and Notice 98-34, 1998-27 I.R.B. 30.

If the rules of section 877 apply to you, check the "Yes" box in item P on page 5 of the form. You are subject to tax on U.S. source income and gains on either (1) a net basis at the graduated rates applicable to individuals with allowable deductions, or (2) a gross basis at a rate of 30% under the rules of section 871(a). See Chapter 4 of Pub. 519 for more details on the tax imposed under section 871(a).

If you have items of U.S. source income that are subject to tax under section 871(a), you will be taxed at a rate of 30% on your gross income only if this tax exceeds the tax at the regular graduated rates on your net income. If the 30% tax on your gross income exceeds the graduated tax on your net income, report those items on the appropriate lines on page 4 of Form 1040NR. If the graduated tax on your net income exceeds the 30% tax on your gross income, report your income on the appropriate lines on page 1 of Form 1040NR and attach a statement describing the items and amounts of income that are subject to tax by reason of section 877.

If you have other items of U.S. source income that are not subject to tax under section 871(a), you will be taxed on a net basis at the regular graduated rates applicable to individuals. Report this income on the appropriate lines on page 1 of Form 1040NR.

For purposes of computing the tax due under section 877, the following items of income are treated as U.S. source:

1. Gains on the sale or exchange of personal property located in the United States.
2. Gains on the sale or exchange of stock issued by a domestic corporation or debt obligations of the United States, U.S. persons, a state or political subdivision thereof, and the District of Columbia.
3. Income or gain derived from stock in a foreign corporation if you owned, either directly or indirectly (through the rules of sections 958(a) and 958(b)) more than 50% of the vote or value of the stock of the corporation on the date of your renunciation of citizenship or termination of residency or at any time during the 2 years preceding such date. Such income or gain is considered U.S. source only to the extent of your share of the earnings and profits earned or accumulated prior to the date of renunciation of U.S. citizenship or termination of residency.

You may not claim that a tax treaty in effect on August 21, 1996, prevents the imposition of tax by reason of section 877.

Annual Information Statement

If the expatriation rules apply to you and you are liable for U.S. taxes, you must attach a statement to Form 1040NR that sets forth by category (e.g., dividends, interest, etc.) all items of U.S. and foreign source gross income (whether or not taxable in the United States). The statement must identify the source of such income (determined under section 877 as modified by Section V of Notice 97-19, 1997-1 C.B. 394) and those items of income subject to tax under section 877. If the expatriation rules apply to you, you must attach this statement to Form 1040NR, even if you have fully satisfied your U.S. tax liability through withholding of tax at source.

If you fail to furnish a complete statement, as described above, you will not be considered to have filed a true and accurate return. Therefore, you will not be entitled to any deductions or credits if your tax liability for your 1998 taxable year is later adjusted. See section 874(a).

Line Instructions for Form 1040NR

Name, Address, and Identifying Number

Name. If you are filing Form 1040NR for an estate or trust, enter the name of the estate or trust, and your name, title, and address. Also, give the name and address of any U.S. grantors and beneficiaries.

P.O. Box. Enter your box number instead of your street address only if your post office does not deliver mail to your home.

Foreign Address. Enter the information in the following order: city, province or state, and country. Follow the country's practice for entering the postal code. Please do not abbreviate the country name.

Identifying Number. If you are an individual, you are generally required to enter your social security number (SSN). To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, from a Social Security Administration (SSA) office. Fill in Form SS-5 and return it to the SSA.

If you do not have an SSN and are not eligible to get one, you must get an individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). To apply for an ITIN, file Form W-7 with the IRS. It usually takes about 30 days to get an ITIN. Enter your ITIN wherever your SSN is requested on your tax return. If you are required to include another person's SSN on your return and that person does not have and cannot get a SSN, enter that person's ITIN.

Note: An ITIN is for tax use only. It does not entitle you to social security benefits or change your employment or immigration status under U.S. law.

If you are filing Form 1040NR for an estate or trust, enter the employer identification number of the estate or trust.

An incorrect or missing identifying number may increase your tax or reduce your refund.

Filing Status

The amount of your tax depends on your filing status. Before you decide which box to check, read the following explanations.

Were You Single or Married? If you were married on December 31, consider yourself married for the whole year. If you were single, divorced, or legally separated under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance on December 31, consider yourself single for the whole year. If you meet the tests described under Married Persons Who Live Apart below, you may consider yourself single for the whole year.

If your spouse died in 1998, consider yourself married to that spouse for the whole year, unless you remarried before the end of 1998.

Married Persons Who Live Apart. Some married persons who have a child and who do not live with their spouse may file as single. If you meet all five of the following tests and you are a married resident of Canada or Mexico, or a U.S. national, check the box on line 1. If you meet the tests and you are a married resident of Japan or the Republic of Korea, check the box on line 2.

1. You file a separate return from your spouse.
2. You paid more than half the cost to keep up your home in 1998.
3. You lived apart from your spouse during the last 6 months of 1998.
4. Your home was the principal home of your child, stepchild, adopted child, or foster child for more than half of 1998.
5. You claim this child as your dependent or the child's other parent claims him or her as a dependent under the rules in Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for children of divorced or separated parents.

Line 6—Qualifying Widow(er) With Dependent Child. You may check the box on line 6 and use joint return tax rates for 1998 if all seven of the following apply.

1. You were a resident of Canada, Mexico, Japan, or the Republic of Korea, or were a U.S. national.
2. Your spouse died in 1996 or 1997 and you did not remarry in 1998.
3. You have a child, stepchild, adopted child, or foster child whom you can claim as a dependent.
4. This child lived in your home for all of 1998. Temporary absences, such as for school, vacation, or medical care, count as time lived in the home.
5. You paid over half the cost of keeping up your home.
6. You were a resident alien or U.S. citizen the year your spouse died. This refers to your actual status, not the election that some nonresident aliens can make to be taxed as U.S. residents.
7. You could have filed a joint return with your spouse the year he or she died, even if you did not actually do so.

Exemptions

Exemptions for estates and trusts are described in the instructions for line 37.

Note: Residents of India who were students or business apprentices may be able to claim exemptions for their spouse and dependents. See Pub. 519 for details.

Line 7b—Spouse. If you checked filing status box 3 or 4, you can take an exemption for your spouse only if your spouse had no gross income for U.S. tax purposes and cannot be claimed as a dependent on another U.S. taxpayer's return. (You can do this even if your spouse died in 1998.) In addition, if you checked filing status box 4, your spouse must have lived with you in the United States at some time during 1998. Finally, your spouse must have an SSN or an ITIN. If your spouse is not eligible to obtain an SSN, he or she can file Form W-7 with the IRS to apply for an ITIN. See Identifying Number on page 5 for additional information.

Line 7c—Dependents. Only U.S. nationals, and residents of Canada, Mexico, Japan, and the Republic of Korea, may claim exemptions for their dependents. If you were a U.S. national (American Samoan) or a resident of Canada or Mexico, you can claim exemptions for your children and other dependents on the same terms as U.S. citizens. See Pub. 501 for more details. If you were a resident of Japan or the Republic of Korea, you may claim an exemption for any of your children who lived with you in the United States at some time during 1998.

You can take an exemption for each of your dependents. If you have more than five dependents, attach a statement to your return with the required information.

Line 7c, Column (2). You must enter each dependent's identifying number (SSN, ITIN, or adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN)). If you do not enter the correct identifying number, at the time we process your return we may disallow the exemption claimed for the dependent and reduce or disallow any other tax benefits (such as the child tax credits) based on the dependent. If your dependent child was born and died in 1998 and you do not have an identifying number for the child, attach a copy of the child's birth certificate instead and enter "DIED" in column (2).

Adoption Taxpayer Identification Numbers (ATINs). If you have a dependent who was placed with you by an authorized placement agency and you do not know his or her SSN, you must get an ATIN for the dependent from the IRS. See Form W-7A for details.

Line 7c, Column (4). Check this column if your dependent is a qualifying child for the child tax credit (defined below). If you have at least one qualifying child, you may be able to take the child tax credit on line 41.

Qualifying Child for Child Tax Credit. A qualifying child for purposes of the child tax credit is a child who:

- Is claimed as your dependent on line 7c, and
- Was under age 17 at the end of 1998, and
- Is your son, daughter, adopted child, grandchild, stepchild, or foster child, and
- Is a U.S. citizen or resident alien.

A child placed with you by an authorized placement agency for legal adoption is an adopted child even if the adoption is not final.

A grandchild is any decedent of your son, daughter, or adopted child and includes your great-grandchild, great-great-grandchild, etc.

A foster child is any child you cared for as your own child and who lived with you for all of 1998. A child who was born or died in 1998 is considered to have lived with you for all of 1998 if your home was the child's home for the entire time he or she was alive during 1998.

To find out who is a resident alien, see Resident Alien or Nonresident Alien on page 2.

Children Who Did Not Live With You Due to Divorce or Separation. If you are claiming a child who did not live with you under the rules in Pub. 501 for children of divorced or separated parents, attach Form 8332 or similar statement to your return. But see Exception below. If your divorce decree or separation agreement went into effect after 1984 and it states you can claim the child as your dependent without regard to any condition, such as payment of support, you may attach a copy of certain pages from the decree or agreement instead. See Pub. 504, Divorced or Separated Individuals, for details.

Note: You must attach the required information even if you filed it in an earlier year.

Exception. You do not have to attach Form 8332 or similar statement if your divorce decree or written separation agreement went into effect before 1985 and it states that you can claim this child as your dependent.

Other Dependent Children. Include the total number of children who did not live with you for reasons other than divorce or separation on the line labeled "Dependents on 7c not entered above."

Rounding Off to Whole Dollars

To round off cents to the nearest whole dollar on your forms and schedules, drop amounts under 50 cents and increase amounts from 50 to 99 cents to the next dollar. If you do round off, do so for all amounts. But if you have to add two or more amounts to figure the amount to enter on a line, include cents when adding and only round off the total.

Income Effectively Connected With U.S. Trade or Business

Pub. 519 explains how income is classified and what income you should report here. The instructions for this section assume you have decided that the income involved is effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business in which you were engaged. But your decision may not be easy. "Interest," for example, may be effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business, it may not be, or it may be tax exempt. The tax status of income also depends on its source. Under some circumstances, items of income from foreign sources are treated as effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. Other items are reportable as effectively connected or not effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business, depending on how you elect to treat them.

Line 8—Wages, Salaries, Tips, etc. Enter the total of your effectively connected wages, salaries, tips, etc. But, do not include amounts exempted under a tax treaty and reported in Item M on page 5 of Form 1040NR. Also include in this total:

- Tip income you did not report to your employer. Also include allocated tips shown on your W-2 form(s) unless you can prove that you received less. Allocated tips should be shown in box 8 of your W-2 form(s). They are not included as income in box 1. See Pub. 531, Reporting Tip Income, for more details.

Caution: You may owe social security and Medicare tax on unreported or allocated tips. See the instructions for line 49 on page 12.

- Dependent care benefits, which should be shown in box 10 of your W-2 form(s). But first complete Form 2441, Child and Dependent Care Expenses, to see if you may exclude part or all of the benefits.

- Employer-provided adoption benefits, which should be shown in box 13 of your W-2 form(s) with code T. But first complete Form 8839 to see if you can exclude part or all of the benefits.

- Excess salary deferrals. The amount deferred should be shown in box 13 of your W-2 form and the "Deferred compensation" box in box 15 should be checked. If the total amount you deferred for 1998 under all plans was more than $10,000, include the excess on line 8. But a different limit may apply if amounts were deferred under a tax-sheltered annuity plan or an eligible plan of a state or local government or tax-exempt organization. See Pub. 575, Pension and Annuity Income, for details.

Caution: You may not deduct the amount deferred. It is not included as income in box 1 of your W-2 form.

- Disability pensions shown on Form 1099-R if you have not reached the minimum retirement age set by your employer. Disability pensions received after you reach that age and other pensions shown on Form 1099-R (other than payments from an IRA*) are reported on lines 17a and 17b.

- Corrective distributions shown on Form 1099-R of (1) excess salary deferrals and (2) excess contributions to a retirement plan. But do not include distributions from an IRA* on line 8. Instead, report them on lines 16a and 16b.

*This includes a Roth, SEP, SIMPLE, or education IRA.

Missing or Incorrect Form W-2. If you do not get a Form W-2 by February 1, 1999, ask your employer for it. Even if you do not get a Form W-2, you must still report your earnings on line 8. If you lose your Form W-2 or it is incorrect, ask your employer for a new one.

Line 9a—Taxable Interest Income. Report on line 9a all of your taxable interest income from assets effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business.

If you received interest not effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business, report it on page 4 of Form 1040NR, unless it is tax exempt under a treaty. See Pub. 901, U.S. Tax Treaties. In addition, interest from a U.S. bank, savings and loan association, credit union, or similar institution, and from certain deposits with U.S. insurance companies, is tax exempt if it is not effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business.

Interest credited in 1998 on deposits that you could not withdraw because of the bankruptcy or insolvency of the financial institution may not have to be included in your 1998 income. For details, see Pub. 550, Investment Income and Expenses.

Line 9b—Tax-Exempt Interest. Certain types of interest income from investments in state and municipal bonds and similar instruments are not taxed by the United States. If you received such tax-exempt interest income, report the amount on line 9b. Include any exempt-interest dividends from a mutual fund or other regulated investment company. But do not include interest earned on your IRA, or interest from a U.S. bank, savings and loan association, credit union, or similar institution (or from certain deposits with U.S. insurance companies) that are exempt from tax under a tax treaty or under section 871(i) because the interest is not effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business.

Line 10—Ordinary Dividends. Enter your total ordinary dividends from assets effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. Each payer should send you a Form 1099-DIV.

Capital Gain Distributions. If you received any capital gain distributions, report them on Schedule D (Form 1040), line 13.

Nontaxable Distributions. Some distributions are nontaxable because they are a return of your cost. They will not be taxed until you recover your cost. You must reduce your cost (or other basis) by these distributions. After you get back all of your cost (or other basis), you must report these distributions as capital gains. For details, see Pub. 550.

TIP: Dividends on insurance policies are a partial return of the premiums you paid. Do not report them as dividends. Include them in income only if they exceed the total of all net premiums you paid for the contract.

Line 11—Taxable Refunds, Credits, or Offsets of State and Local Income Taxes.

TIP: None of your refund is taxable if, in the year you paid the tax, you did not itemize deductions.

If you received a refund, credit, or offset of state or local income taxes in 1998, you may receive a Form 1099-G. If you chose to apply part or all of the refund to your 1998 estimated state or local income tax, the amount applied is treated as received in 1998.

For details on how to figure the amount you must report as income, see Recoveries in Pub. 525, Taxable and Nontaxable Income.

Line 12—Scholarship and Fellowship Grants. If you received a scholarship or fellowship, part or all of it may be taxable.

If you were a degree candidate, the amounts you used for expenses other than tuition and course-related expenses are generally taxable. For example, amounts used for room, board, and travel are generally taxable.

If you were not a degree candidate, the full amount of the scholarship or fellowship is generally taxable. Also, amounts received as a scholarship or fellowship that are payment for teaching, research, or other services are taxable even if the services were required to get the grant.

Report the total amount of the grant on line 12 and show any nontaxable part on line 31. If the grant was reported on Form 1042-S, enter the gross amount from column (b) on line 12. However, do not include amounts exempted under a tax treaty and reported in item M on page 5 of Form 1040NR. If you are excluding items allowed by section 117 (i.e., amounts used for tuition and course-related expenses such as fees, books, supplies, and equipment) that exceed amounts shown on Form 1042-S, attach a statement describing these amounts. See Pub. 520, Scholarships and Fellowships, for more information.

Attach any Form 1042-S or Form W-2 you received from the college or institution. If you did not receive a 1042-S or W-2 form, attach a statement from the college or institution (on their letterhead) showing the details of the grant.

Line 13—Business Income or (Loss). If you operated a business or practiced your profession as a sole proprietor, report your income and expenses on Schedule C or Schedule C-EZ (Form 1040).

Include any income you received as a dealer in stocks, securities, and commodities through your U.S. office. If you dealt in these items through an independent agent, such as a U.S. broker, custodian, or commissioned agent, your income may not be considered effectively connected with a U.S. business. For general information on business income or loss, see the Instructions for Schedule C (Form 1040) and see Pub. 334, Tax Guide for Small Business.

Line 14—Capital Gain or (Loss). If you had a capital gain or loss, including any capital gain distributions from a mutual fund, you must complete Schedule D (Form 1040). Enter the effectively connected gain or (loss) from Schedule D (Form 1040). You may need Pub. 544, Sales and Other Dispositions of Assets.

Gains and losses from disposing of U.S. real property interests are taxed as if you were engaged in a U.S. trade or business and are treated as effectively connected with that trade or business. See Dispositions of U.S. Real Property Interests on page 4.

Line 15—Other Gains or (Losses). If you sold or exchanged assets used in a U.S. trade or business, see the instructions for Form 4797.

Lines 16a and 16b—IRA Distributions. You should receive a Form 1099-R showing the amount of the distribution from your individual retirement arrangement (IRA). Unless otherwise noted in the line 16a and 16b instructions, an IRA includes a traditional IRA, Roth IRA, education (Ed) IRA, simplified employee pension (SEP) IRA, and a savings incentive match plan for employees (SIMPLE) IRA. Leave line 16a blank and enter the total distribution on line 16b.

Exception: Do not enter your total IRA distribution on line 16b if any of the following applies.

1. You made nondeductible contributions to any of your traditional or SEP IRAs for 1998 or an earlier year. Instead, use Form 8606 to figure the amount to enter on line 16b; enter the total distribution on line 16a. If you made nondeductible contributions to these IRAs for 1998, also see Pub. 590, Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs).

2. You converted part or all of a traditional, SEP, or SIMPLE IRA to a Roth IRA. Instead, use Form 8606 to figure the amount to enter on line 16b; enter the total distribution on line 16a.

3. You made an excess contribution in 1998 to your IRA and withdrew it during the period of January 1, 1999, through April 15, 1999. Enter the total distribution on line 16a and the taxable part (the earnings) on line 16b.

4. You received a distribution from an Ed or Roth IRA and the total distribution was not rolled over into another IRA of the same type. Instead, use Form 8606 to figure the amount to enter on line 16b; enter the total distribution on line 16a.

5. You rolled your IRA distribution over into another IRA of the same type (for example, from one traditional IRA to another traditional IRA). Enter the total distribution on line 16a and write "Rollover" next to line 16b. If the total on line 16a was rolled over, enter zero on line 16b. If the total was not rolled over, enter the part not rolled over on line 16b. But if 1 above also applies, use Form 8606 to figure the taxable part.

Caution: You may have to pay an additional tax if (1) you received an early distribution from your IRA and the total distribution was not rolled over, or (2) you were born before July 1, 1927, and received less than the minimum required distribution. See the instructions for line 50 on page 12 for details.

Lines 17a and 17b—Pensions and Annuities. Use lines 17a and 17b to report effectively connected pension and annuity payments you received. You should receive a Form 1099-R showing the amount you received. See page 8 for details on rollovers and lump-sum distributions. But if this income is not effectively connected with your U.S. trade or business, report it on line 75.

Do not include the following payments on lines 17a and 17b. Instead, report them on line 8.

- Disability pensions received before you reach the minimum retirement age set by your employer.

- Corrective distributions of excess salary deferrals or excess contributions to retirement plans.

TIP: Attach Form 1099-R to Form 1040NR if any Federal income tax was withheld.

Some annuities are tax-exempt. See section 871(f).

Note: If you perform services in the United States, your income is effectively connected with the conduct of a U.S. trade or business. When you receive a pension in a later year as a result of these services, the pension is also considered effectively connected with the conduct of a U.S. trade or business.

Fully Taxable Pensions and Annuities. If your pension or annuity is fully taxable, enter it on line 17b; do not make an entry on line 17a. Your payments are fully taxable if either of the following applies:

1. You did not contribute to the cost (see page 8) of your pension or annuity, or
2. You got your entire cost back tax free before 1998.

Fully taxable pensions and annuities also include military retirement pay shown on Form 1099-R. For details on military disability pensions, see Pub. 525, Taxable and Nontaxable Income. If you received a Form RRB-1099-R, see Pub. 575, Pension and Annuity Income, for information on how to report your benefits.

Partially Taxable Pensions and Annuities. If your pension or annuity is partially taxable and your Form 1099-R does not show the taxable part, you must use the General Rule to figure the taxable part. The General Rule is explained in Pub. 939, Pension General Rule. However, if your annuity starting date (defined on page 8) was after July 1, 1986, you may be able to use the Simplified Method explained on page 8. But if your annuity starting date was after November 18, 1996, and items 1, 2, and 3 on page 8 under Simplified Method apply, you must use the Simplified Method to figure the taxable part.

You can ask the IRS to figure the taxable part for you for an $80 fee. For details, see Pub. 939.

Simplified Method Worksheet—Lines 17a and 17b (keep for your records)

Note: If you had more than one partially taxable pension or annuity, figure the taxable part of each separately. Enter the total of the taxable parts on Form 1040NR, line 17b. Enter the total pension or annuity payments received in 1998 on Form 1040NR, line 17a.

1. Enter the total pension or annuity payments received this year. Also, enter this amount on Form 1040NR, line 17a . . . . . 1. _____
2. Enter your cost in the plan at the annuity starting date plus any death benefit exclusion (see the instructions on this page) . . . . . 2. _____
3. Enter the appropriate number from Table 1 below. But if your annuity starting date was after 1997 and the payments are for your life and that of your beneficiary, enter the appropriate number from Table 2 below . . . . . 3. _____
4. Divide line 2 by line 3. . . . . 4. _____
5. Multiply line 4 by the number of months for which this year's payments were made. If your annuity starting date was before 1987, skip lines 6 and 7 and enter this amount on line 8. Otherwise, go to line 6 . . . . . 5. _____
6. Enter the amount, if any, recovered tax free in years after 1986 . . . . . 6. _____
7. Subtract line 6 from line 2 . . . . . 7. _____
8. Enter the smaller of line 5 or line 7 . . . . . 8. _____
9. Taxable amount. Subtract line 8 from line 1. Enter the result, but not less than zero. Also, enter this amount on Form 1040NR, line 17b. If your Form 1099-R shows a larger amount, use the amount on this line instead of the amount from Form 1099-R . . . . . 9. _____

If your Form 1099-R shows a taxable amount, you may report that amount on line 17b. But you may be able to report a lower taxable amount by using the General Rule or the Simplified Method.

Once you have figured the taxable part of your pension or annuity, enter that amount on line 17b and the total on line 17a.

Annuity Starting Date. Your annuity starting date is the later of the first day of the first period for which you received a payment, or the date the plan's obligations became fixed.

Simplified Method. If your annuity starting date (defined above) was after July 1, 1986, and all three of the following apply, you can use this simpler method. But if your annuity starting date was after November 18, 1996, and all three of the following apply, you must use the Simplified Method.

1. The payments are for (a) your life or (b) your life and that of your beneficiary.
2. The payments are from a qualified employee plan, a qualified employee annuity, or a tax-sheltered annuity.
3. At the time the pension or annuity payments began, either you were under age 75 or the number of years of guaranteed payments was fewer than 5. See Pub. 575 for the definition of guaranteed payments.

If all three apply, use the worksheet on this page to figure the taxable part of your pension or annuity. For more details on the Simplified Method, see Pub. 575.

Age (or Combined Ages) at Annuity Starting Date. If you are the retiree, use your age on the annuity starting date. If you are the survivor of a retiree, use the retiree's age on his or her annuity starting date. But if your annuity starting date was after 1997 and the payments are for your life and that of your beneficiary, use your combined ages on the annuity starting date.

If you are the beneficiary of an employee who died, see Pub. 575. If there is more than one beneficiary, see Pub. 575 to figure each beneficiary's taxable amount.

Changing Methods. If your annuity starting date was after July 1, 1986, and before November 19, 1996, you may be able to change from the General Rule to the Simplified Method (or the other way around). For details, see Pub. 575.

Cost. Your cost is generally your net investment in the plan as of the annuity starting date. It should be shown in box 9b of Form 1099-R for the first year you received payments from the plan.

Death Benefit Exclusion. If you are the beneficiary of a deceased employee or former employee who died before August 21, 1996, amounts paid to you by, or on behalf of, an employer because of the death of the employee may qualify for a death benefit exclusion of up to $5,000. If you are entitled to this exclusion, add it to the amount you enter on line 2 of the worksheet on this page. Do this even if the Form 1099-R shows a taxable amount. The payer of the annuity cannot add the death benefit exclusion to your cost when figuring the taxable amount. Special rules apply if you are the survivor under a joint and survivor's annuity. For details, see Pub. 575.

Rollovers. A rollover is a tax-free distribution of cash or other assets from one retirement plan that is contributed to another plan. Use lines 17a and 17b to report a rollover, including a direct rollover, from one qualified employer's plan to another or to an IRA or SEP.

Enter on line 17a the total distribution before income tax or other deductions were withheld. This amount should be shown in box 1 of Form 1099-R. From the total on line 17a, subtract any contributions (usually shown in box 5) that were taxable to you when made. From that result, subtract the amount that was rolled over either directly or within 60 days of receiving the distribution. Enter the remaining amount, even if zero, on line 17b. Write "Rollover" next to line 17b.

Special rules apply to partial rollovers of property. For more details on rollovers, including distributions under qualified domestic relations orders, see Pub. 575.

Lump-Sum Distributions. If you received a lump-sum distribution from a profit-sharing or retirement plan, your Form 1099-R should have the "Total distribution" box in box 2b checked. You may owe an additional tax if you received an early distribution from a qualified retirement plan and the total amount was not rolled over. For details, see the instructions for line 50 on page 12.

Enter the total distribution on line 17a and the taxable part on line 17b.

TIP: You may be able to pay less tax on the distribution if you were at least age 59½ on the date of the distribution, you meet certain other conditions, and you choose to use Form 4972, Tax on Lump-Sum Distributions, to figure the tax on any part of the distribution. You may also be able to use Form 4972 if you are the beneficiary of a deceased employee who was either age 59½ or older on the date of death or was born before 1936. For details, see Form 4972.

Line 20—Unemployment Compensation. You should receive a Form 1099-G showing the total unemployment compensation amount paid to you in 1998.

If you received an overpayment of unemployment compensation in 1998 and you repaid any of it in 1998, subtract the amount you repaid from the total amount you received. Enter the result on line 20. Also, enter "Repaid" and the amount you repaid on the dotted line next to line 20. If, in 1998, you repaid unemployment compensation that you included in gross income in an earlier year, you may deduct the amount repaid on Schedule A, line 11. But if you repaid more than $3,000, see Repayments in Pub. 525 for details on how to report the repayment.

Line 21—Other Income. Use line 21 to report any other income effectively connected with your U.S. business that is not reported elsewhere on your return or other schedules. List the type and amount of income. If necessary, show the required information on an attached statement. For more details, see Miscellaneous Taxable Income in Pub. 525.

Report other income on page 4 of Form 1040NR if not effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business.

Net Operating Loss. If you had a net operating loss in an earlier year to carry forward to 1998, include it as a negative amount in parentheses on line 21. Attach a statement showing how you figured the amount. See Pub. 536, Net Operating Losses, for more details.

Line 22. Use line 22 to report your total effectively connected income that is exempt from tax by a tax treaty. Do not include this exempt income on line 23. Also, you must complete item M on page 5 of Form 1040NR.

Adjustments

Adjustments are amounts you can subtract from your income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business.

Line 24—IRA Deduction.

TIP: If you make any nondeductible contributions to a traditional IRA for 1998, you must report them on Form 8606.

If you made contributions to a traditional IRA for 1998, you may be able to take an IRA deduction. But you must have had earned income to do so. You should receive a statement by June 1, 1999, that shows all contributions to your traditional IRA for 1998.

Were You Covered by a Retirement Plan? If you were covered by a retirement plan (qualified pension, profit-sharing (including 401(k)), annuity, Keogh, SEP, SIMPLE, etc.) at work or through self-employment, your IRA deduction may be reduced or eliminated. But you can still make contributions to an IRA even if you cannot deduct them. In any case, the income earned on your IRA contributions is not taxed until it is paid to you.

Student Loan Interest Deduction Worksheet—Line 25 (keep for your records)

Before you begin, see the instructions for line 25 below.

1. Enter the total interest you paid in 1998 on qualified student loans (defined below). Do not include interest that was required to be paid after the first 60 months . . . . . 1. _____
  2. Enter the smaller of line 1 or $1,000 . . . . . 2. _____
  3. Enter the amount from Form 1040NR, line 23 . . . . . 3. _____
  4. Enter the total of the amounts from Form 1040NR, line 24, lines 26 through 31, plus any amount you entered on the dotted line next to line 32 . . . . . 4. _____
  5. Modified AGI. Subtract line 4 from line 3 . . . . . 5. _____
- Note: If line 5 is $55,000 or more, stop here. You cannot take the deduction.
6. Subtract $40,000 from line 5. If zero or less, enter -0- here and on line 8, skip line 7, and go to line 9 . . . . . 6. _____
  7. Divide line 6 by $15,000. Enter the result as a decimal (rounded to at least three places). Do not enter more than "1.000" . . . . . 7. _____
  8. Multiply line 2 by line 7 . . . . . 8. _____
  9. Student loan interest deduction. Subtract line 8 from line 2. Enter the result here and on Form 1040NR, line 25. Do not include this amount in figuring any other deduction on your return (such as on Schedule A (Form 1040), Schedule C (Form 1040), Schedule E (Form 1040), etc.) . . . . . 9. _____

The "Pension plan" box in box 15 of your W-2 form should be checked if you were covered by a plan at work even if you were not vested in the plan. You are also covered by a plan if you were self-employed and had a Keogh, SEP, or SIMPLE retirement plan.

Not Covered by a Retirement Plan. If you were not covered by a retirement plan, you can take a full IRA deduction.

Special Rule for Married Individuals. If you checked filing status box 3, 4, or 5 and you were not covered by a retirement plan but your spouse was, you are considered covered by a plan unless you lived apart from your spouse for all of 1998.

See Pub. 590, Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), for more details.

Line 25—Student Loan Interest Deduction.

You may take this deduction if all five of the following apply.

1. You paid interest in 1998 on a qualified student loan (see below).
2. At least part of the interest paid in 1998 was paid during the first 60 months that payments were required to be made. See Example below.
3. You checked filing status box 1, 2, or 6.
4. Your modified adjusted gross income (AGI) is less than $55,000. Use lines 3 through 5 of the worksheet above to figure your modified AGI.
5. You are not claimed as a dependent on someone's (such as your parent's) 1998 tax return.

If all five apply, use the worksheet above to figure your deduction. But first you will need to complete Form 1040NR, lines 26 through 31, and figure any amount to be entered on the dotted line next to line 32.

Example. You took out a qualified student loan in 1991 while in college. You had 6 years to repay the loan and your first monthly payment was due July 1993, after you graduated. You made a payment every month as required. If you meet items 3 through 5 listed above, you may use only the interest you paid for January through June 1998 to figure your deduction. June is the end of the 60-month period (July 1993–June 1998).

Qualified student loan. This is any loan you took out to pay the qualified higher education expenses for yourself, your spouse, or anyone who was your dependent when the loan was taken out. The person for whom the expenses were paid must have been an eligible student (see below). However, a loan is not a qualified student loan if (1) any of the proceeds were used for other purposes or (2) the loan was from either a related person or a person who borrowed the proceeds under a qualified employer plan or a contract purchased under such a plan. To find out who is a related person, see Pub. 970, Tax Benefits for Higher Education.

Qualified higher education expenses generally include tuition, fees, room and board, and related expenses such as books and supplies. The expenses must be for education in a degree, certificate, or similar program at an eligible educational institution. An eligible educational institution includes most colleges, universities, and certain vocational schools. You must reduce the expenses by the following nontaxable benefits:

- Employer-provided educational assistance benefits that are not included in box 1 of your W-2 form(s).
- Qualified distributions from an education IRA.
- Any scholarship, educational assistance allowance, or other payment (but not gifts, inheritances, etc.) excluded from income.

For more details on these expenses, see Pub. 970.

An eligible student is a person who:

- Was enrolled in a degree, certificate, or other program (including a program of study abroad that was approved for credit by the institution at which the student was enrolled) leading to a recognized educational credential at an eligible educational institution, and
- Carried at least half the normal full-time work load for the course of study he or she was pursuing.

Line 26—Medical Savings Account (MSA) Deduction. If you made contributions to an MSA for 1998, you may be able to take this deduction. See Form 8853, Medical Savings Accounts and Long-Term Care Insurance Contracts, for details.

Self-Employed Health Insurance Deduction Worksheet—Line 28
(keep for your records)

1. Enter the total amount paid in 1998 for health insurance coverage established under your business for 1998 for you, your spouse, and dependents. But do not include amounts for any month you were eligible to participate in an employer-sponsored health plan . . . . . 1. _____
2. Multiply line 1 by 45% (.45) . . . . . 2. _____
3. Enter your net profit and any other earned income* from the business under which the insurance plan is established, minus any deduction you claim on Form 1040NR, line 29 . . . . . 3. _____
4. Self-employed health insurance deduction. Enter the smaller of line 2 or line 3 here and on Form 1040NR, line 28 . . . . . 4. _____

*Earned income includes net earnings and gains from the sale, transfer, or licensing of property you created. It does not include capital gain income.

Line 27—Moving Expenses. Employees and self-employed persons (including partners) can deduct certain moving expenses. The move must be in connection with employment that generates effectively connected income.

If you moved in connection with your job or business or started a new job, you may be able to take this deduction. But your new workplace must be at least 50 miles farther from your old home than your old home was from your old workplace. If you had no former workplace, your new workplace must be at least 50 miles from your old home. The deduction is generally limited to moves to or within the United States or its possessions. If you meet these requirements, see Pub. 521, Moving Expenses. Use Form 3903, Moving Expenses, to figure the amount to enter on this line.

Line 28—Self-Employed Health Insurance Deduction. If you were self-employed and had a net profit for the year, you may be able to deduct part of the amount paid for health insurance for yourself, your spouse, and dependents. The insurance plan must be established under your business. But if you were also eligible to participate in any subsidized health plan maintained by your or your spouse's employer for any month or part of a month in 1998, amounts paid for health insurance coverage for that month cannot be used to figure the deduction. For example, if you were eligible to participate in a subsidized health plan maintained by your spouse's employer from September 30 through December 31, you cannot use amounts paid for health insurance coverage for September through December to figure your deduction. For more details, see Pub. 535, Business Expenses.

If you qualify to take the deduction, use the worksheet above to figure the amount you can deduct. But if any of the following apply, do not use the worksheet. Instead, see Pub. 535 to find out how to figure your deduction.

- You had more than one source of income subject to self-employment tax.
- You are using amounts paid for qualified long-term care insurance to figure the deduction.

Line 29—Keogh and Self-Employed SEP and SIMPLE Plans. If you were self-employed or a partner, you may be able to take this deduction. See Pub. 560.

Line 30—Penalty on Early Withdrawal of Savings. The Form 1099-INT or Form 1099-OID you received will show the amount of any penalty you were charged.

Line 31—Scholarship and Fellowship Grants Excluded. If you were a degree candidate, enter amounts used for tuition and course-related expenses (such as fees, books, supplies, and equipment). Do not include any amount shown on line 22. See Pub. 520, Scholarships and Fellowships, for more information.

Line 32. Include in the total on line 32 any of the following adjustments that are related to your effectively connected income. To find out if you can take the deduction, see the form or publication indicated. On the dotted line next to line 32, enter the amount of your deduction and identify it as indicated.

- Performing-arts-related expenses (see Form 2106 or Form 2106-EZ). Identify as "QPA."
- Reforestation amortization (see Pub. 535). Identify as "RFST."
- Repayment of supplemental unemployment benefits under the Trade Act of 1974 (see Pub. 525). Identify as "Sub-Pay TRA."
- Contributions to section 501(c)(18) pension plans (see Pub. 575). Identify as "501(c)(18)."
- Deduction for clean-fuel vehicles (see Pub. 535). Identify as "Clean-Fuel."

Line 33—Adjusted Gross Income. If line 33 is less than zero, you may have a net operating loss that you can carry to another tax year. See Pub. 536.

Tax Computation on Income Effectively Connected With a U.S. Trade or Business

Line 35—Itemized Deductions. Enter the total itemized deductions from Schedule A.

Note: Residents of India who were students or business apprentices may be able to take the standard deduction instead of their itemized deductions. See Pub. 519 for details.

Line 37—Deduction for Exemptions. You can claim exemptions only to the extent of your income that is effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business.

If you file as an individual, multiply $2,700 by the total number of exemptions entered on line 7d. (If you were a resident of Japan or the Republic of Korea, you must figure the exemptions for your spouse and children according to the proportion your U.S. income bears to your total income. For details, see Pub. 519.) But use the worksheet on page 11 to figure the amount, if any, to enter on line 37 if your adjusted gross income from line 34 is more than $124,500 if you checked filing status box 1 or 2; $93,400 if you checked filing status box 3, 4, or 5; $186,800 if you checked filing status box 6.

If you are filing for an estate, enter $600 on line 37. If you are filing for a trust whose governing instrument requires it to distribute all its income currently, enter $300 on line 37. Any other trust is allowed an exemption of $100.

Line 39—Tax. Use one of the following methods to figure your tax. Also, include in the total on line 39 any tax from Form 4972, Tax on Lump-Sum Distributions, or Form 8814, Parents' Election To Report Child's Interest and Dividends. Be sure to check the appropriate box.

Tax Table or Tax Rate Schedules. You must use the Tax Table or Tax Rate Schedules to figure your tax unless you are required to use Form 8615 or Schedule D (Form 1040), or you use Schedule J (Form 1040) (for farm income). If your taxable income (line 38) is less than $100,000, you must use the Tax Table, which starts on page 18. Be sure you use the correct column. If you checked filing status box 3, 4, or 5, you must use the Married filing separately column. If your taxable income is $100,000 or more, OR you are filing for an estate or trust, use the Tax Rate Schedules on page 30.

Schedule D (Form 1040). If you had a net capital gain on Schedule D (Form 1040) (both lines 16 and 17 of that schedule are gains) and the amount on Form 1040NR, line 38, is more than zero, use Part IV of Schedule D (Form 1040) to figure your tax.

Form 8615. You must generally use Form 8615 to figure the tax for any child who was under age 14 on January 1, 1999, and who had more than $1,400 of investment income, such as taxable interest or dividends, that is effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. But if neither of the child's parents was alive on December 31, 1998, do not use Form 8615 to figure the child's tax.

Schedule J. If you had income from farming, your tax may be less if you choose to figure it using income averaging on Schedule J (Form 1040).

Credits

Line 40—Credit for Child and Dependent Care Expenses. You may be able to take this credit if you paid someone to care for your child under age 13 or your dependent who could not care for himself or herself. For details, see Form 2441.

Line 41—Child Tax Credit.

TIP: This credit is in addition to the child and dependent care credit that you may be able to claim.

What is the Child Tax Credit? The child tax credit is a credit for people who have a qualifying child; it reduces tax people owe. The credit can be as much as $400 for each qualifying child.

Note: If the amount on Form 1040NR, line 39 is zero, you cannot take this credit because there is no tax to reduce. But if you have three or more qualifying children, you may be able to take the additional child tax credit on Form 1040NR, line 56. To find out if you can, complete the Child Tax Credit Worksheet in the Instructions for Form 1040 even though you cannot take the credit.

How Do You Figure the Credit? Use the Child Tax Credit Worksheet in the

Deduction for Exemptions Worksheet—Line 37 (keep for your records)
See the instructions for line 37.

1. Is the amount on Form 1040NR, line 34, more than the amount shown on line 4 below for your filing status?
No. Stop. Multiply $2,700 by the total number of exemptions claimed on Form 1040NR, line 7d, and enter the result on line 37.
Yes. Go to line 2.
2. Multiply $2,700 by the total number of exemptions claimed on Form 1040NR, line 7d . . . . . 2. _____
3. Enter the amount from Form 1040NR, line 34, . . . . . 3. _____
4. Enter the amount shown below for the filing status box you checked on page 1 of Form 1040NR:
• Box 1 or 2, enter $124,500
• Box 3, 4, or 5, enter $93,400
• Box 6, enter $186,800 . . . . . 4. _____
5. Subtract line 4 from line 3. If zero or less, stop; enter the amount from line 2 above on Form 1040NR, line 37 . . . . . 5. _____
Note: If line 5 is more than $122,500 if you checked filing status box 1, 2, or 6; or more than $61,250 if you checked filing status box 3, 4, or 5, stop; you cannot take a deduction for exemptions. Enter -0- on Form 1040NR, line 37.
6. Divide line 5 by $2,500 if you checked filing status box 1, 2, or 6; or by $1,250 if you checked filing status box 3, 4, or 5. If the result is not a whole number, round it up to the next higher whole number (for example, round 0.0004 to 1) . . . . . 6. _____
7. Multiply line 6 by 2% (.02) and enter the result as a decimal amount . . . . . 7. _____
8. Multiply line 2 by line 7 . . . . . 8. _____
9. Deduction for exemptions. Subtract line 8 from line 2. Enter the result here and on Form 1040NR, line 37 . . . . . 9. _____

Instructions for Form 1040 to figure the amount of your credit.

Who is a Qualifying Child? A qualifying child is a child who:

- Is claimed as your dependent on Form 1040NR, line 7c, and
- Was under age 17 at the end of 1998, and
- Is your son, daughter, adopted child, grandchild, stepchild, or foster child, and
- Is a U.S. citizen or resident alien.

A child placed with you by an authorized placement agency for legal adoption is an adopted child even if the adoption is not final.

A grandchild is any decedent of your son, daughter, or adopted child and includes your great-grandchild, great-great-grandchild, etc.

A foster child is any child you cared for as your own child and who lived with you for all of 1998. A child who was born or died in 1998 is considered to have lived with you for all of 1998 if your home was the child's home for the entire time he or she was alive in 1998.

To find out who is a resident alien, see Resident Alien or Nonresident Alien on page 2.

Caution: Make sure you checked column (4) of line 7c for each qualifying child.

Additional Child Tax Credit. You may be able to take the additional child tax credit on Form 1040NR, line 56, if both 1 and 2 below apply.

1. The amount on line 1 of the Child Tax Credit Worksheet (Form 1040 instructions) is more than $800.

2. The amount on line 7 of the Child Tax Credit Worksheet is more than the amount on line 11 of that worksheet.

But first complete your return through line 55. Then, complete Form 8812 to figure any additional child tax credit.

Line 42—Adoption Credit. You may be able to take this credit if you paid expenses in 1997 or 1998 to adopt a child. See Form 8839, Qualified Adoption Expenses, for details.

Line 43—Foreign Tax Credit. If you paid income tax to a foreign country, you may be able to take this credit. But only if you:

1. Report income from foreign sources (see Foreign Income Taxed by the United States on page 4), and

2. Have paid or owe foreign tax on that income.

You must complete and attach Form 1116 to take this credit.

Exception. You do not have to file Form 1116 to take this credit if all five of the following apply.

1. All of your gross foreign-source income is from interest and dividends and all of that income and the foreign tax paid on it is reported to you on Form 1099-INT or Form 1099-DIV (or substitute statement).

2. If you have dividend income from shares of stock, you held those shares for at least 16 days.

3. You are not filing Form 4563 or excluding income from sources within Puerto Rico.

4. The total of your foreign taxes paid is not more than $300.

5. All of your foreign taxes were:

- Legally owed and not eligible for a refund, and
- Paid to countries that are recognized by the United States and do not support terrorism.

If you meet all five requirements, enter your total foreign tax on line 43. If you do not, see Form 1116 to find out if you can take the credit and, if you can, if you have to file Form 1116. If you need more information about these requirements, see the instructions for Form 1116.

Line 44—Other Credits. Include in the total on line 44 any of the following credits and check the appropriate box. If box d is checked, also enter the form number. To see if you can take the credit, see the form or publication indicated.

- Mortgage interest credit. If a state or local government gave you a mortgage credit certificate, see Form 8396.
- Credit for prior year minimum tax. If you paid alternative minimum tax in a prior year, see Form 8801.
- Qualified electric vehicle credit. If you placed a new electric vehicle in service in 1998, see Form 8834.
- General business credit. This credit consists of a number of credits that usually apply only to individuals who are partners, shareholders in an S corporation, self-employed, or who have rental property. See Form 3800 or Pub. 334, Tax Guide for Small Business.
- Empowerment zone employment credit. See Form 8844.
- District of Columbia first-time homebuyer credit. See Form 8859.

Line 45. If you sold fuel produced from a nonconventional source, see section 29 to find out if you can take the nonconventional source fuel credit. If you can, attach a schedule showing how you figured the credit. Include the credit in the total on line 45. Enter the amount and "FNS" on the dotted line next to line 45.

Other Taxes

Line 47—Alternative Minimum Tax. The tax law gives special treatment to some kinds of income and allows special deductions and credits for some kinds of expenses. If you benefit from these provisions, you may have to pay a minimum amount of tax through the alternative minimum tax. This tax is figured on Form 6251 for individuals. If you are filing for an estate or trust, get Schedule I (Form 1041) and its instructions to see if you owe this tax.

If you have any of the adjustments or preferences from the list on page 12, or you are claiming a net operating loss deduction or the foreign tax credit, you must complete Form 6251. Otherwise, to see if you should complete Form 6251, add the amount on line 36 of Form 1040NR to the amounts on lines 3 and 15 of Schedule A (Form 1040NR). If the total is more than the dollar amount shown below that applies to you, fill in Form 6251.

- $33,750 if you checked filing status box 1 or 2.
- $22,500 if you checked filing status box 3, 4, or 5.
- $45,000 if you checked filing status box 6.

Disposition of U.S. Real Property Interests. If you disposed of U.S. real property interests at a gain, you must make a special computation to see if you owe this tax. For details, see the Instructions for Form 6251.

Adjustments and Preferences:

1. Accelerated depreciation.
2. Income from incentive stock options.
3. Tax-exempt interest from private activity bonds.
4. Intangible drilling, circulation, research, experimental, or mining costs.
5. Amortization of pollution-control facilities or depletion.
6. Income or (loss) from tax-shelter farm activities or passive activities.
7. Percentage-of-completion income from long-term contracts.
8. Alternative minimum tax adjustment from an estate, trust, electing large partnership, or a cooperative.
9. Section 1202 exclusion.

Caution: Form 6251 should be filled in for a child under age 14 if the total of the child's adjusted gross income from Form 1040NR, line 34, exceeds the child's earned income by more than $5,000.

Line 49—Social Security and Medicare Tax on Tip Income Not Reported to Employer. If you are subject to social security and Medicare tax, you received tips of $20 or more in any month, and you did not report the full amount to your employer, you must pay the social security and Medicare or railroad retirement (RRTA) tax on the unreported tips. You must also pay this tax if your W-2 form(s) shows allocated tips that you are including in your income on Form 1040NR, line 8.

To figure the tax, use Form 4137, Social Security and Medicare Tax on Unreported Tip Income. To pay the RRTA tax, contact your employer. Your employer will figure and collect the tax.

Caution: You may be charged a penalty equal to 50% of the social security and Medicare tax due on tips you received but did not report to your employer.

Line 50—Tax on IRAs, Other Retirement Plans, and MSAs. If any of the following apply, see Form 5329 and its instructions to see if you owe this tax and if you must file Form 5329.

1. You received any early distributions from (a) an IRA or other qualified retirement plan, (b) an annuity, or (c) a modified endowment contract entered into after June 20, 1988.
2. You made excess contributions to your IRA or MSA.
3. You were born before July 1, 1927, and did not take the minimum required distribution from your qualified retirement plan.

Exception. If only item 1 above applies to you and distribution code 1 is shown in box 7 of your Form 1099-R, you do not have to file Form 5329. Instead, multiply the taxable amount of the distribution by 10% (.10) and enter the result on line 50. The taxable amount of the distribution is the part of the distribution you reported on line 16b or line 17b of Form 1040NR or on Form 4972. Also, enter "No" on the dotted line next to line 50 to indicate that you do not have to file Form 5329. But if distribution code 1 is incorrectly shown in box 7, you must file Form 5329.

Line 51—Transportation Tax. Nonresident alien individuals are subject to a 4% tax on U.S. source gross transportation income that is not effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. However, the term U.S. source gross transportation income does not include any such income that is taxable in a possession of the United States under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code as applied to that possession.

For purposes of this tax, transportation income will not be treated as effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States unless:

1. You had a fixed place of business in the United States involved in the earning of transportation income, and
2. Substantially all of your U.S. source gross transportation income was attributable to regularly scheduled transportation. Or, in the case of income from the leasing of a vessel or aircraft, it was attributable to a fixed place of business in the United States. See sections 887 and 863 for rules, definitions, and exceptions.

You may be exempt from this tax because of a treaty or an exchange of notes between the United States and the country of which you are a resident. If the country of which you are a resident does not impose tax on the shipping or aircraft income of U.S. persons, you may also be exempt from this tax. If you are exempt from the tax for one of these reasons, you must attach a statement to Form 1040NR identifying your country of residence and the treaty, note, or law and provisions under which you claim exemption from the tax.

If you owe this tax, you must attach a statement to your return that includes the information described in Pub. 519.

Line 52—Household Employment Taxes. If any of the following apply, see Schedule H (Form 1040) and its instructions to find out if you owe these taxes.

1. You paid any one household employee (defined below) cash wages of $1,100 or more in 1998.
2. You withheld Federal income tax during 1998 at the request of any household employee.
3. You paid total cash wages of $1,000 or more in any calendar quarter of 1997 or 1998 to household employees.

TIP: For purposes of item 1, do not count amounts paid to an employee who was under age 18 at any time in 1998 and was a student.

Household Employee. Any person who does household work is a household employee if you can control what will be done and how it will be done. Household work includes work done in or around your home by babysitters, nannies, health aides, maids, yard workers, and similar domestic workers.

Line 53—Total Tax. Include in the total on line 53 any of the following taxes. To find out if you owe the tax, see the form or publication indicated. On the dotted line next to line 53, enter the amount of the tax and identify it as indicated.

Recapture of the following credits.

- Investment credit (see Form 4255). Identify as "ICR."
- Low-income housing credit (see Form 8611). Identify as "LIHCR."
- Qualified electric vehicle credit (see Pub. 535). Identify as "QEVCR."
- Indian employment credit. Identify as "IECR."

Recapture of Federal Mortgage Subsidy.

If you sold your home in 1998 and it was financed (in whole or in part) from the proceeds of any tax-exempt qualified mortgage bond or you claimed the mortgage interest credit, see Form 8828. Identify as "FMSR."

Section 72(m)(5) Excess Benefits Tax (see Pub. 560). Identify as "Sec. 72(m)(5)."

Uncollected Employee Social Security and Medicare or RRTA Tax on Tips or Group-Term Life Insurance. This tax should be shown in box 13 of your Form W-2 with codes A and B or M and N. Identify as "UT."

Golden Parachute Payments. If you received an excess parachute payment (EPP), you must pay a 20% tax on it. This tax should be shown in box 13 of your W-2 form with code K. If you received a Form 1099-MISC, the tax is 20% of the EPP shown in box 13. Identify as "EPP."

Tax on Accumulation Distribution of Trusts. Enter the amount from Form 4970 and identify as "ADT."

Payments

Line 54—Federal Income Tax Withheld. Add the amounts shown as Federal income tax withheld on your Forms W-2, W-2G, and 1099-R. Enter the total on line 54. The amount of Federal income tax withheld should be shown in box 2 of Form W-2 or W-2G, and in box 4 of Form 1099-R. If line 54 includes amounts withheld as shown on Form 1099-R, attach the Form 1099-R. Also, include in the total for line 54 any tax withheld on scholarship or fellowship grants from Form 1042-S.

If you received a 1998 Form 1099 showing Federal income tax withheld on dividends, interest income, or other income you received, include the amount withheld in the total on line 54. This should be shown in box 4 of the 1099 form.

Line 55—1998 Estimated Tax Payments. Enter any payments you made on your estimated Federal income tax (Form 1040-ES (NR)) for 1998. Include any overpayment from your 1997 return that you applied to your 1998 estimated tax.

Name Change. If you changed your name because of marriage, divorce, etc., and you made estimated tax payments using your former name, attach a statement to the front of Form 1040NR. On the statement, explain all the payments you made in 1998 and list the name and SSN or ITIN under which you made each payment.

Line 56—Additional Child Tax Credit. See Additional Child Tax Credit in the instructions for line 41 on page 10.

Line 57—Amount Paid With Form 4868 (Request for Extension). If you filed Form 4868 to get an automatic extension of time to file Form 1040NR, enter the amount, if any, you paid with that form. Also, include any amounts paid with Form 2688.

Line 58—Excess Social Security and RRTA Tax Withheld. If you had more than one employer for 1998 and your total wages were over $68,400, too much social security tax may have been withheld. You can take a credit on this line for the amount withheld in excess of $4,240.80. But if any one employer withheld more than $4,240.80, you must ask that employer to refund the excess to you. You cannot claim it on your return.

If you had more than one railroad employer for 1998 and your total compensation was over $50,700, too much railroad retirement (RRTA) tax may have been withheld.

to organizations that work to prevent cruelty to children or animals.

TIP: If you do not know whether you may deduct what you gave to an organization, check with that organization or with the IRS.

Contributions You May Deduct.

Contributions may be in cash (keep canceled checks, receipts, or other reliable written records showing the name of the organization and the date and amount given), property, or out-of-pocket expenses you paid to do volunteer work for the kinds of organizations described earlier. If you drove to and from the volunteer work, you may take 14 cents a mile or the actual cost of gas and oil. Add parking and tolls to the amount you claim under either method. But do not deduct any amounts that were repaid to you.

Gifts From Which You Benefit. If you made a gift and received a benefit in return, such as food, entertainment, or merchandise, you may generally only deduct the amount that is more than the value of the benefit. But this rule does not apply to certain membership benefits provided in return for an annual payment of $75 or less. For details, see Pub. 526.

Example. You paid $70 to a charitable organization to attend a fund-raising dinner and the value of the dinner was $40. You may deduct only $30.

Gifts of $250 or More. You may deduct a gift of $250 or more only if you have a statement from the charitable organization showing the information in 1 and 2 below.

In figuring whether a gift is $250 or more, do not combine separate donations. For example, if you gave your church $25 each week for a total of $1,300, treat each $25 payment as a separate gift. If you made donations through payroll deductions, treat each deduction from each paycheck as a separate gift. See Pub. 526 if you made a separate gift of $250 or more through payroll deduction.

1. The amount of any money contributed and a description (but not value) of any property donated.

2. Whether the organization did or did not give you any goods or services in return for your contribution. If you did receive any goods or services, a description and estimate of the value must be included. If you received only intangible religious benefits (such as admission to a religious ceremony), the organization must state this, but it does not have to describe or value the benefit.

TIP: You must get the statement by the date you file your return or the due date (including extensions) for filing your return, whichever is earlier. Do not attach the statement to your return. Instead, keep it for your records.

Limit on the Amount You May Deduct.

See Pub. 526 to figure the amount of your deduction if any of the following apply:

- Your cash contributions or contributions of ordinary income property are more than 30% of the amount shown on Form 1040NR, line 34.
- Your gifts of capital gain property are more than 20% of the amount shown on Form 1040NR, line 34.
- You gave gifts of property that increased in value or gave gifts of the use of property.

You MAY NOT Deduct as Contributions:

- Travel expenses (including meals and lodging) while away from home unless there was no significant element of personal pleasure, recreation, or vacation in the travel.

- Political contributions.
- Dues, fees, or bills paid to country clubs, lodges, fraternal orders, or similar groups.
- Cost of raffle, bingo, or lottery tickets.
- Cost of tuition.
- Value of your time or services.
- Value of blood given to a blood bank.
- The transfer of a future interest in tangible personal property (generally, until the entire interest has been transferred).
- Gifts to individuals and groups that are run for personal profit.
- Gifts to foreign organizations. But you may be able to deduct gifts to certain U.S. organizations that transfer funds to foreign charities and certain Canadian and Mexican charities. See Pub. 526 for details.
- Gifts to organizations engaged in certain political activities that are of direct financial interest to your trade or business. See section 170(f)(9).
- Gifts to groups whose purpose is to lobby for changes in the laws.
- Gifts to civic leagues, social and sports clubs, labor unions, and chambers of commerce.
- Value of benefits received in connection with a contribution to a charitable organization. See Pub. 526 for exceptions.

Line 4. Enter the total contributions you made in cash or by check (including out-of-pocket expenses).

Line 5. Enter your contributions of property. If you gave used items, such as clothing or furniture, deduct their fair market value at the time you gave them. Fair market value is what a willing buyer would pay a willing seller when neither has to buy or sell and both are aware of the conditions of the sale.

If the amount of your deduction is more than $500, you must complete and attach Form 8283. For this purpose, the "amount of your deduction" means your deduction BEFORE applying any income limits that could result in a carryover of contributions. If your total deduction is over $5,000, you may also have to get appraisals of the values of the donated property. See Form 8283 and its instructions for details.

Recordkeeping. If you gave property, you should keep a receipt or written statement from the organization you gave the property to, or a reliable written record, that shows the organization's name and address, the date and location of the gift, and a description of the property. For each gift of property, you should also keep reliable written records that include:

- How you figured the property's value at the time you gave it. If the value was determined by an appraisal, keep a signed copy of the appraisal.
- The cost or other basis of the property if you must reduce it by any ordinary income or capital gain that would have resulted if the property had been sold at its fair market value.
- How you figured your deduction if you chose to reduce your deduction for gifts of capital gain property.
- Any conditions attached to the gift.

Note: If your total deduction for gifts of property is over $500, you gave less than your entire interest in the property, or you made a "qualified conservation contribution," your records should contain additional information. See Pub. 526 for details.

Line 6. Enter any carryover of contributions that you could not deduct in an earlier year because they exceeded your adjusted gross income limit. See Pub. 526 for details.

Casualty and Theft Losses

Line 8

Complete and attach Form 4684 to figure the amount to enter on line 8.

You may be able to deduct part or all of each loss caused by theft, vandalism, fire, storm, or similar causes, and car, boat, and other accidents. You may also be able to deduct money you had in a financial institution but lost because of the insolvency or bankruptcy of the institution.

You may deduct nonbusiness casualty or theft losses only to the extent that—

- 1. The amount of each separate casualty or theft loss is more than $100, and
- 2. The total amount of all losses during the year is more than 10% of the amount shown on Form 1040NR, line 34.

Special rules apply if you had both gains and losses from nonbusiness casualties or thefts. See Form 4684 for details.

Use line 11 of Schedule A to deduct the costs of proving that you had a property loss. Examples of these costs are appraisal fees and photographs used to establish the amount of your loss.

For information on Federal disaster area losses, see Pub. 547.

Job Expenses and Most Other Miscellaneous Deductions

Note: Miscellaneous deductions are allowed only if and to the extent they are connected with your effectively connected income.

Pub. 529, Miscellaneous Deductions, discusses the types of expenses that may and may not be deducted.

Examples of expenses you may not deduct are:

- Political contributions.
- Personal legal expenses.
- Lost or misplaced cash or property.
- Expenses for meals during regular or extra work hours.
- The cost of entertaining friends.
- Expenses of going to or from your regular workplace.
- Travel expenses for employment away from home if that period of employment exceeds 1 year.
- Travel as a form of education.
- Expenses of attending a seminar, convention, or similar meeting unless it is related to your employment.
- Club dues. See Pub. 529 for exceptions.
- Expenses of adopting a child. But, you may be able to take a credit. See the instructions for Form 1040NR, line 42.
- Fines and penalties.
- Expenses of producing tax-exempt income.

Line 9. Enter the total job expenses you paid for which you were not reimbursed. (Amounts your employer included in box 1 of your W-2 form are not considered reimbursements.) But you MUST fill in and attach Form 2106 if either of the following applies:

- 1. You claim any travel, transportation, meal, or entertainment expenses for your job, OR

2. Your employer paid you for any of your job expenses reportable on line 9.

TIP: If you used your own vehicle and item 2 does not apply, you may be able to file Form 2106-EZ instead.

If you do not have to file Form 2106 or 2106-EZ, list the type and amount of each expense on the dotted lines next to line 9. If you need more space, attach a statement showing the type and amount of each expense. Enter one total on line 9.

Examples of other expenses to include on line 9 are:

- Safety equipment, small tools, and supplies you needed for your job.
- Uniforms required by your employer, and which you may not usually wear away from work.
- Protective clothing required in your work, such as hard hats, safety shoes, and glasses.
- Physical examinations your employer said you must have.
- Dues to professional organizations and chambers of commerce.
- Subscriptions to professional journals.
- Fees to employment agencies and other costs to look for a new job in your present occupation, even if you do not get a new job.
- Certain business use of part of your home. For details, including limits that apply, see Pub. 587, Business Use of Your Home.
- Certain educational expenses. For details, see Pub. 508.

Line 10. Enter the fees you paid for preparation of your tax return, including fees paid for filing your return electronically.

Line 11. Enter the total amount you paid to produce or collect taxable income and manage or protect property held for earning income. But do not include any personal expenses. List the type and amount of each expense on the dotted lines next to line 11. If you need more space, attach a statement showing the type and amount of each expense. Enter one total on line 11.

Examples of expenses to include on line 11 are:

- Certain legal and accounting fees.
- Clerical help and office rent.
- Custodial (for example, trust account) fees.
- Your share of the investment expenses of a regulated investment company.
- Certain losses on nonfederally insured deposits in an insolvent or bankrupt financial institution. For details, including limits that apply, see Pub. 529.
- Casualty and theft losses from property used in performing services as an employee from Form 4684, lines 32 and 38b, or Form 4797, line 18b(1).
- Deduction for repayment of amounts under a claim of right if $3,000 or less.

Other Miscellaneous Deductions

Line 16

List the type and amount of each expense on the dotted lines next to line 16. Enter one total on line 16. Examples of these expenses are:

- Casualty and theft losses from income-producing property from Form 4684, lines 32 and 38b, or Form 4797, line 18b(1).
- Deduction for repayment of amounts under a claim of right if over $3,000.

Itemized Deductions Worksheet—Line 17 (keep for your records)

1. Add the amounts on Schedule A, lines 3, 7, 8, 15, and 16 . . . . .	1. _____
2. Enter the total of the amount on Schedule A, line 8, plus any casualty or theft losses included on line 16 . . . . .	2. _____
3. Subtract line 2 from line 1. If the result is zero, stop here ; enter the amount from line 1 above on Schedule A, line 17 . . . . .	3. _____
4. Multiply line 3 above by 80% (.80) . . . . .	4. _____
5. Enter the amount from Form 1040NR, line 34 . . . . .	5. _____
6. Enter $124,500 if you checked filing status box 1, 2, or 6; or $62,250 if you checked filing status box 3, 4, or 5 . . . . .	6. _____
7. Subtract line 6 from line 5. If the result is zero or less, stop here ; enter the amount from line 1 above on Schedule A, line 17 . . . . .	7. _____
8. Multiply line 7 above by 3% (.03) . . . . .	8. _____
9. Enter the smaller of line 4 or line 8 . . . . .	9. _____
10. Total itemized deductions. Subtract line 9 from line 1. Enter the result here and on Schedule A, line 17 . . . . .	10. _____

• Impairment-related work expenses of a disabled person.

For more details on these and other expenses not subject to the 2% limit, see Pub. 529.

Total Itemized Deductions

Line 17

Use the worksheet above to figure the amount to enter on line 17 if the amount on Form 1040NR, line 34, is over $124,500 if you checked filing status box 1, 2, or 6; $62,250 if you checked filing status box 3, 4, or 5.

Tax on Income Not Effectively Connected With a U.S. Trade or Business (Page 4)

For more information, see Pub. 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens.

The following items are generally taxed at 30% if they are not effectively connected with your U.S. trade or business. The rate may be lower for you if your country and the United States have a treaty setting lower rates. Table 1 in Pub. 901 summarizes which countries have such treaties and what the rates are.

The 30% tax applies only to amounts included in gross income. For example, the tax applies only to the part of a periodic annuity or pension payment that is subject to tax; it does not apply to the part that is a return of your cost.

The following list gives only a general idea of what income to report on page 4, but only to the extent the amount received is not effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States.

1. Income that is fixed or periodic, such as interest (other than original issue discount), dividends, rents, salaries, wages, premiums, annuities, other compensation, or alimony received. Other items of income, such as royalties, also may be subject to the 30% tax.

Note: Portfolio interest that you received as a nonresident alien on obligations issued after July 18, 1984, is exempt from the 30% tax. For more information, see Pub. 519.

Interest from a U.S. bank, savings and loan association, or similar institution, and from certain deposits with U.S. insurance companies is tax exempt if it is not effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. For more information, see Pub. 519.

2. Gains, other than capital gains, from the sale or exchange of patents, copyrights, and other intangible property.

3. Original issue discount (OID). If you sold or exchanged the obligation, include in income the OID that accrued while you held the obligation minus the amount previously included in income. If you received a payment on an OID obligation, see Pub. 519.

4. Capital gains in excess of capital losses from U.S. sources during 1998. Include these gains only if you were in the United States at least 183 days during 1998. They are not subject to U.S. tax if you were in the United States less than 183 days during the tax year. In determining your net gain, do not use the capital loss carryover.

Losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets in excess of similar gains are not allowed.

If you had a gain or loss on disposing of a U.S. real property interest, see Dispositions of U.S. Real Property Interests on page 4.

5. Prizes, awards, and certain gambling winnings. Proceeds from lotteries, raffles, etc., are gambling winnings (see section 871(j) for exceptions). You must report the full amount of your winnings. You cannot offset losses against winnings and report the difference.

Note: Residents of Canada may claim gambling losses, but only to the extent of gambling winnings. They should report both their total gambling winnings and their total gambling losses on the dotted line on line 78 (or attach a separate schedule if more space is needed). If they have net gambling winnings (after offsetting their total gambling losses against their total gambling winnings), they should include this net amount on line 78, column (d).

Social Security Benefits (and Tier 1 Railroad Retirement Benefits Treated as Social Security). 85% of the U.S. social security and equivalent railroad retirement benefits you received are taxable. This amount is treated as U.S. source income not effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. It is subject to the 30% tax rate, unless exempt or taxed at a reduced rate under a U.S. tax treaty. Social security benefits include any monthly benefit under title II of the Social Security Act or the part of a tier 1 railroad retirement benefit treated as a social security benefit. They do not include any Supplemental Security Income (SSI) payments.

By February 1, 1999, you should receive a Form SSA-1042S showing the total social security benefits paid to you in 1998, and the amount of any benefits you repaid in 1998. If you received railroad retirement benefits treated as social security, you should receive a Form RRB-1042S.

Enter 85% of the total amount from box 5 of ALL your Forms SSA-1042S and Forms RRB-1042S on line 76 of Form 1040NR. Attach a copy of each Form SSA-1042S and RRB-1042S to Form 1040NR.

Withholding of Tax at the Source. A tax must be withheld at the source on certain income from U.S. sources paid to nonresident aliens. The withholding is generally at the 30% rate. There are exceptions to the general rule, and tax treaties with various countries may provide a lower rate or exempt certain income from withholding. The tax must be withheld by the person who pays fixed or determinable annual or periodic income to nonresident aliens. The income subject to this withholding should be reported on page 4 of Form 1040NR. For details, see Pub. 519, Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Corporations, and section 1441 and its regulations.

Other Information (Page 5)

Item M

Reporting of Treaty Benefits Claimed

If you take the position that a treaty of the United States overrides or modifies any provision of the Internal Revenue Code and that position reduces (or potentially reduces) your tax, you must report certain information on Form 8833, Treaty-Based Return Position Disclosure Under Section 6114 or 7701(b), attached to your tax return.

You can be charged a $1,000 penalty for each failure to report the required information. For more details, see Form 8833 and Regulations section 301.6114-1.

Exceptions. You do not have to file Form 8833 for any of the following situations.

1. You claim a reduced rate of withholding tax under a treaty on interest, dividends, rents, royalties, or other fixed or determinable annual or periodic income ordinarily subject to the 30% rate.
2. You claim a treaty reduces or modifies the taxation of income from dependent personal services, pensions, annuities, social security and other public pensions, or income of artists, athletes, students, trainees, or teachers. This includes taxable scholarship and fellowship grants.
3. You claim a reduction or modification of taxation of income under an International Social Security Agreement or a Diplomatic or Consular Agreement.
4. You are a partner in a partnership or a beneficiary of an estate or trust and the partnership, estate, or trust reports the required information on its return.
5. The payments or items of income that are otherwise required to be disclosed total no more than $10,000.

Item P

See Special Rules for Former U.S. Citizens and Former Long-Term U.S. Residents, which begins on page 4, for details on how to answer the question in item P and for information that must be included in the annual information statement, if required.

Reminders

Sign and Date Your Return

Form 1040NR is not considered a valid return unless you sign it. You may have an agent in the United States prepare and sign your return if you could not do so for one of the following reasons:

- You were ill.
- You were not in the United States at any time during the 60 days before the return was due.
- For other reasons that you explained in writing to the Internal Revenue Service Center, Philadelphia, PA 19255, U.S.A., and that the IRS approved.

A return prepared by an agent must be accompanied by a power of attorney. Form 2848 may be used for this purpose.

Be sure to date your return and show your occupation in the United States in the space provided. If you have someone prepare your return for you, you are still responsible for the correctness of the return.

Child's Return. If your child cannot sign the return, either parent may sign the child's name in the space provided. Then, add "By (your signature), parent for minor child."

Paid Preparers Must Sign Your Return. Generally, anyone you pay to prepare your return must sign it by hand in the space provided. Signature stamps or labels cannot be used. The preparer must give you a copy of the return for your records. Someone who prepares your return but does not charge you should not sign your return.

Address Change

If you move after you file, always notify in writing the Internal Revenue Service Center where you filed your last return, or the Chief, Customer Service Division, at your local IRS district office. You can use Form 8822, Change of Address, to notify us of your new address. If you are expecting a refund, also notify the post office serving your old address. This will help forward your check to your new address. Please be sure to write your identifying number (defined on page 5) on any letters to the IRS.

1999 Income Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax Payments for Individuals

If the amount you owe or the amount you overpaid is large, you may want to file a new Form W-4, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, with your employer to change the amount of income tax to be withheld from your 1999 pay. In general, you do not have to make estimated tax payments if you expect that your 1999 Form 1040NR will show a tax refund or a tax balance due the IRS of less than $1,000. If your total estimated tax (including any household employment taxes or alternative minimum tax) for 1999 is $1,000 or more, see Form 1040-ES (NR). It has a worksheet you can use to see if you have to make estimated tax payments. However, if you expect to be a resident of Puerto Rico during all of 1999 and you must pay estimated tax, use Form 1040-ES.

How Long Should Records Be Kept?

Keep your records as long as they may be needed to carry out any Internal Revenue law. Records of income, deductions, and credits shown on your return, as well as any worksheets you used, should be kept until the statute of limitations runs out for that return. Usually, this is 3 years from the date the return was due or filed, or 2 years from the date the tax was paid, whichever is later. You should keep some records longer. For example, keep property records (including those on your home) as long as they are needed to figure the basis of the original or replacement property. Also, keep copies of your filed tax returns and any Forms W-2, 1099, and 1042-S you received as part of your records. For more details, see Pub. 552, Recordkeeping for Individuals.

Requesting a Copy of Your Tax Return

If you need a copy of your tax return, use Form 4506.

Amended Return

File Form 1040X, Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, to change a return you already filed. Also, use Form 1040X if you filed Form 1040NR and you should have filed a Form 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ, or vice versa. Generally, Form 1040X must be filed within 3 years after the date the original return was filed, or within 2 years after the date the tax was paid, whichever is later. But you may have more time to file Form 1040X if you are physically or mentally unable to manage your financial affairs. See Pub. 556 for details.

Interest and Penalties

TIP: You do not have to figure the amount of any interest or penalties you may owe. Because figuring these amounts can be complicated, we will do it for you if you want. We will send you a bill for any amount due.

If you include interest or penalties with your payment, identify and enter the amount in the bottom margin of Form 1040NR, page 2. Please do not include it in the Amount You Owe on line 67.

Interest. We will charge you interest on taxes not paid by their due date, even if an extension of time to file is granted. We will also charge you interest on penalties imposed for failure to file, negligence, fraud, substantial valuation misstatements, and substantial understatements of tax. Interest is charged on the penalty from the due date of the return (including extensions).

Penalty for Late Filing. If you do not file your return by the due date (including extensions), the penalty is usually 5% of the amount due for each month or part of a month your return is late, unless you have a reasonable explanation. If you do, attach it to your return. The penalty cannot usually be more than 25% of the tax due. If your return is more than 60 days late, the minimum penalty will be $100 or the amount of any tax you owe, whichever is smaller.

Penalty for Late Payment of Tax. If you pay your taxes late, the penalty is usually 1/2 of 1% of the unpaid amount for each month or part of a month the tax is not paid. The penalty cannot be more than 25% of the unpaid amount. It applies to any unpaid tax on the return. This penalty is in addition to interest charges on late payments.

Penalty for Frivolous Return. In addition to any other penalties, the law imposes a penalty of $500 for filing a frivolous return. A frivolous return is one that does not contain information needed to figure the correct tax or shows a substantially incorrect tax because you take a frivolous position or desire to delay or interfere with the tax laws. This includes altering or striking out the preprinted language above the space where you sign.

Other Penalties. Other penalties can be imposed for negligence, substantial understatement of tax, and fraud. Criminal penalties may be imposed for willful failure to file, tax evasion, or making a false statement. See Pub. 17 for details on some of these penalties.

Gift To Reduce the Public Debt

If you wish to make such a gift, make your check payable to "Bureau of the Public Debt." You can send it to: Bureau of the Public Debt, Department G, Washington, DC 20239-0601. Or, you can enclose the check with your income tax return when you file. Do not add your gift to any tax you may owe. If you owe tax, make a separate check for that amount payable to "United States Treasury."

Note: You may be able to deduct this gift on your 1999 tax return as a charitable contribution.

Taxpayer Assistance

IRS assistance is available to help you prepare your return. But you should know that you are responsible for the accuracy of your return. If we do make an error, you are still responsible for the payment of the correct tax.

In the United States, call 1-800-829-1040.

If you find it necessary to write instead of calling, please address your letter to your IRS District Director for a prompt reply. Make sure you include your identifying number (defined on page 5) when you write.

Assistance in answering tax questions and filling out tax returns is also available in person from Internal Revenue Service offices in: Bonn, Germany; London, England; Mexico City, Mexico; Paris, France; Rome, Italy; Singapore; and Tokyo, Japan. The offices generally are located in the U.S. embassies or consulates. During every tax return filing period, you can get income tax forms and publications from U.S. embassies and consulates abroad. You can also download forms and publications from the IRS Internet Web Site at www.irs.ustreas.gov.

The IRS conducts an overseas taxpayer assistance program during the filing season (January to mid-June). To find out if IRS personnel will be in your area, please contact the consular office at the nearest U.S. embassy.

Help With Unresolved Tax Issues

Most problems can be solved with one contact by calling, writing, or visiting an IRS office. But if you have tried unsuccessfully to resolve a problem with the IRS, you should contact the Taxpayer Advocate's Problem Resolution Program (PRP). Someone at PRP will assign you a personal advocate who is in the best position to try to resolve your problem. The Taxpayer Advocate can also offer you special help if you have a significant hardship as a result of a tax problem.

You should contact the Taxpayer Advocate if:

- You have tried unsuccessfully to resolve your problem with the IRS and have not been contacted by the date promised, or
- You are on your second attempt to resolve a problem.

You may contact a Taxpayer Advocate by calling a new toll-free assistance number, 1-877-777-4778, if in the United States. If you prefer, you can write to the Taxpayer Advocate at the IRS office that last contacted you. (You may also contact one of the overseas IRS offices listed above.)

While Taxpayer Advocates cannot change the tax law or make a technical tax decision, they can clear up problems that resulted from previous contacts and ensure that your case is given a complete and impartial review. Taxpayer Advocates are working to put service first. For more details, see Pub. 1546.

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to give us the information. We need it to ensure that you are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by section 6103.

The time needed to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average time is: Recordkeeping, 6 hr., 40 min.; Learning about the law or the form, 1 hr., 44 min.; Preparing the form, 3 hr., 58 min.; and Copying, assembling, and sending the form to the IRS, 1 hr., 40 min.

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. You can write to the Tax Forms Committee, Western Area Distribution Center, Rancho Cordova, CA 95743-0001. DO NOT send your return to this address. Instead, see Where To File on page 2.

For persons with taxable incomes of less than $100,000. If $100,000 or more, use the Tax Rate Schedules.

Example. Mr. Green is filing as a qualifying widower. His taxable income on line 38 of Form 1040NR is $25,300. First, he finds the $25,300–25,350 income line. Next, he finds the column for qualifying widower and reads down the column. The amount shown where the income line and filing status column meet is $3,799. This is the tax amount he must enter on line 39 of his Form 1040NR.

1998 Tax Rate Schedules

If you cannot use the Tax Table because your taxable income is $100,000 or more, or if you are filing for an estate or trust, figure your tax on the amount on Form 1040NR, line 38, by using the appropriate Tax Rate Schedule below. Enter the tax on Form 1040NR, line 39. Even though Form 1040NR filers cannot use the Tax Rate Schedules below if their taxable incomes are less than $100,000 (unless they are filing for an estate or trust), all levels of taxable income are shown so filers can see the tax rate that applies to each level.

Schedule W Estates or Trusts Use this schedule for a nonresident alien estate or trust—  If the amount on Form 1040NR, line 38, is: <table style="width: 100%; border-collapse: collapse;"> <thead> <tr> <th style="width: 15%;"></th> <th style="width: 15%; text-align: center;">But not over—</th> <th style="width: 40%; text-align: center;">Enter on Form 1040NR, line 39</th> <th style="width: 30%; text-align: center;">of the amount over—</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>$0</td> <td>$1,700</td> <td style="text-align: right;">.....15%</td> <td style="text-align: right;">$0</td> </tr> <tr> <td>1,700</td> <td>4,000</td> <td style="text-align: right;">$255.00 + 28%</td> <td style="text-align: right;">1,700</td> </tr> <tr> <td>4,000</td> <td>6,100</td> <td style="text-align: right;">899.00 + 31%</td> <td style="text-align: right;">4,000</td> </tr> <tr> <td>6,100</td> <td>8,350</td> <td style="text-align: right;">1,550.00 + 36%</td> <td style="text-align: right;">6,100</td> </tr> <tr> <td>8,350</td> <td>.....</td> <td style="text-align: right;">2,360.00 + 39.6%</td> <td style="text-align: right;">8,350</td> </tr> </tbody> </table>					But not over—	Enter on Form 1040NR, line 39	of the amount over—	$0	$1,700	.....15%	$0	1,700	4,000	$255.00 + 28%	1,700	4,000	6,100	899.00 + 31%	4,000	6,100	8,350	1,550.00 + 36%	6,100	8,350	.....	2,360.00 + 39.6%	8,350	Schedule X Single Taxpayers Use this schedule if you checked Filing Status Box 1 or 2 on Form 1040NR—  If the amount on Form 1040NR, line 38, is: <table style="width: 100%; border-collapse: collapse;"> <thead> <tr> <th style="width: 15%;"></th> <th style="width: 15%; text-align: center;">But not over—</th> <th style="width: 40%; text-align: center;">Enter on Form 1040NR, line 39</th> <th style="width: 30%; text-align: center;">of the amount over—</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>$0</td> <td>$25,350</td> <td style="text-align: right;">.....15%</td> <td style="text-align: right;">$0</td> </tr> <tr> <td>25,350</td> <td>61,400</td> <td style="text-align: right;">$3,802.50 + 28%</td> <td style="text-align: right;">25,350</td> </tr> <tr> <td>61,400</td> <td>128,100</td> <td style="text-align: right;">13,896.50 + 31%</td> <td style="text-align: right;">61,400</td> </tr> <tr> <td>128,100</td> <td>278,450</td> <td style="text-align: right;">34,573.50 + 36%</td> <td style="text-align: right;">128,100</td> </tr> <tr> <td>278,450</td> <td>.....</td> <td style="text-align: right;">88,699.50 + 39.6%</td> <td style="text-align: right;">278,450</td> </tr> </tbody> </table>					But not over—	Enter on Form 1040NR, line 39	of the amount over—	$0	$25,350	.....15%	$0	25,350	61,400	$3,802.50 + 28%	25,350	61,400	128,100	13,896.50 + 31%	61,400	128,100	278,450	34,573.50 + 36%	128,100	278,450	.....	88,699.50 + 39.6%	278,450
