General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Use Form 8914 to claim your personal exemptions, exemptions for dependents, and the additional exemption amount for providing housing in your main home to one or more individuals displaced by Hurricane Katrina.

Additional Exemption Amount

You can claim an additional exemption amount of $500 for each displaced individual (defined below). The additional exemption amount is allowable once for a specific individual. The maximum additional exemption amount you can claim for all displaced individuals is $2,000 ($1,000 if married filing separately). The additional exemption amount you claim for displaced individuals in 2005 will reduce the $2,000 maximum for 2006. If two or more taxpayers share the same main home, only one taxpayer in that main home can claim the additional exemption amount for a specific displaced individual. If married filing separately, only one spouse may claim the additional exemption amount for a specific displaced individual. In order for you to be considered to have provided housing, you must have a legal interest in the main home (that is, own or rent the home).

Displaced Individual

For you to claim the additional exemption amount, a displaced individual:

- Must have had his or her main home in the Hurricane Katrina disaster area (for this purpose, the states of Alabama, Florida, Louisiana, and Mississippi) on August 28, 2005, and he or she must have been displaced from that home. If the individual's main home was located outside the core disaster area (defined below), that home must have been damaged by Hurricane Katrina or the individual must have been evacuated from that home because of Hurricane Katrina.
- Must have been provided housing in your main home free of charge for a period of at least 60 consecutive days ending in the tax year in which the exemption is claimed. See Compensation for Housing on this page.
- Cannot be your spouse or dependent.

- Food, clothing, or personal items consumed or used by the displaced individual.
- Reimbursement for the cost of any long distance telephone calls made by the displaced individual.
- Reimbursement for the cost of gasoline for the displaced individual's use of your vehicle.
