Thrift Bulletin 1-1

Thrift and Regulatory Bulletins are now available under a subscription service by completing the attached form.

Thrift institutions that are regulated by the Federal Home Loan Bank System will continue to receive one free copy of all Bulletins from their FHLBS District Bank. Bulletins also will continue to be included in the U.S. League of Savings Institutions' Supervisory Service publication. Further, individual copies of Bulletins may be obtained upon written request to the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, Office of Information Services (801 17th Street, N.W., 1st Floor, Washington, DC 20006, 202-416-2777).

Bulletins are also published in the Federal Home Loan Bank System's Regulatory Handbooks, as appropriate, on a semiannual basis when the books are updated.

Subscriptions are sold on a yearly basis for $125. For 1989, a one-year subscription to the service includes Thrift and Regulatory Bulletins issued to date, all Bulletins issued during the year, and a binder and tabs for storing the Bulletins. Bulletins will be mailed First Class to subscribers.

In subsequent years, Bulletins issued in prior years will be available at a separate charge.
