DISCIPLINE GUIDANCE:

OSERS Assistant Secretary Judy Heumann and OSEP Director Tom Hehir have issued a memorandum to Chief State School Officers which "provides initial guidance on the requirements of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act Amendments of 1997 (IDEA'97) as they relate to the removal of children with disabilities from their current educational placement for ten school days or less". The OSEP IDEA'97 home page will have this memorandum available by October 1, 1997.

OSEP 97-98 MONITORING SCHEDULE:

OSEP 97-98 Monitoring Schedule: Listed below is OSEP's monitoring schedule for the 1997-1998 year. As past letters to the State Directors have indicated, OSEP plans to conduct on-site visits to each State to facilitate the formulation of State specific "IDEA 97" Implementation Plans.

In a letter to Martha Fields, Director of the National Association of State Directors of Special Education (NASDSE), Montana State Special Education Director, Bob Runkel, stated that the process used in Montana's OSEP Planning/Monitoring meeting (held in August), "worked." He went on to say that he felt, "comfortable that we have focused our energies in a systematic way on the many improvements that came with IDEA'97." Runkel was "truly impressed with OSEP's contribution to the process."

STATE MONITORING SCHEDULE

Aug 25	STATE: Montana	Nov 10-14	STATES: North Carolina, Delaware, Wyoming, Washington

In addition to the State Implementation Plan schedule, OSEP will continue with its standard follow up monitoring visits in States that have had unique or ongoing compliance issues. OSEP's Division of Monitoring and State Improvement Program (MSIP) State contacts will be working to identify the States and to schedule visits between February and May. MSIP staff are also working to identify 4-5 states that will be involved in Part H-focused monitoring site visits.

IDEA '97 PARENT TRAINING INSTITUTE:

On October 26 - 28, 1997, OSEP and the Exceptional Children's Assistance Center will co-sponsor a Training Institute on IDEA '97 for staff from each of the approximately 70 OSERS -funded Parent Training and Information (PTIs) Centers around the country. The Training, which will be held at the Double Tree Hotel in Arlington, Virginia, will provide in-depth information, answers to pressing questions, and materials about IDEA '97 so that the participants can provide quality information and training to parents and professionals in their respective state. The Exceptional Children's Center is an OSEP-funded PTI located in Davidson, North Carolina.

EDITORS NOTE:

As you can see, many activities are planned this fall to assure interaction process you and OSEP in the implementation of IDEA '97. We continue to get positive feedback about this newsletter and about our implementation processes, including the most recent monitoring visits. Thanks for your support.
