

NOTIFICATIONS

1. A Combatant Status Review Tribunal (CSRT) has determined that you are an enemy combatant. Because you are an enemy combatant, the United States may continue to detain you.
2. In addition, you have been notified that you may challenge the lawfulness of your detention in a United States court. The following procedures are available if you want to challenge your detention in a U.S. court.
3. You may ask a civilian judge to look at the lawfulness of your detention through a process called a petition for a writ of habeas corpus. You may ask a friend or family member or a lawyer to file such a petition with the court. If you do not have a lawyer or a family member or friend who could file this petition for you, you may file your own petition. According to prior court rulings, petitions may be sent to:

United States District Court for the District of Columbia
333 Constitution Avenue, N.W.
Washington, DC 20001

If you do not wish to file a petition, you do not have to do so. However, a court will only consider your case if you file a petition.
