THE PEDRO ILIC AWARD IS GIVEN ANNUALLY TO A FARMER AND TO AN EDUCATOR WHO:

- envisions what can be done and has the imagination, energy, and intellect to translate that vision into a successful activity;
- is part of the solution, not of the problem; critical in thinking, but constructive in approach;
- is an advocate and risk taker;
- is an effective teacher, instills self-esteem in others and constantly encourages others;
- is a dedicated professional who believes in his or her work;
- has determination, exuberance, high energy, and genuine friendliness for all people, with the conviction that the smallest is as important as the biggest;
- has high personal and family values.
