Certification in writing from the Management Authority of the country in which the facility is located that the facility has the capability of breeding the species in captivity in the numbers to be traded without detriment to the wild population, and that the operator of the facility has not been convicted of any violations of the country's laws governing trade and export of avian species; and
 - d. A summary of the legislation implementing the Convention in the country in which the facility is located.
- 2. For a foreign breeding facility, provide production information including:
 - a. A statement of the facility's capability of producing captive-bred birds of the species and in the numbers they wish to export to the United States;
 - b. Relevant experience of persons involved in the operation of the facility;
 - c. Current stock of the facility, including total number, ages, sexes, and numbers of breeding pairs;

 - e. Anticipated future production;
 - f. A breeding protocol, including a genetic management plan and a description of breeding methods. Breeding methods shall include whether breeding is continuous or seasonal (including descriptions of photoperiod manipulations used to stimulate or control breeding, if any) and whether breeding birds are induced to produce multiple clutches by the removal of eggs for artificial incubation; and
 - g. Descriptions of incubation and rearing methods, as well as any other methods used to enhance production, including artificial insemination when applicable.
- 3. A statement demonstrating that the facility is operated in a manner that is not detrimental to the survival of the species in the wild, including:

 - d. Certification from the Management Authority in the country in which the facility is located that adequate controls, including inspections, are in place to prevent the use of the facility for the export of wild-caught stock.
- 4. A statement of any anticipated need for augmentation of breeding stock with specimens from other sources; if augmentation is to be from the wild, an explanation as to why the removal of additional specimens from the wild shall be included. This explanation must address whether other captive-bred stock is available and describe breeding strategies employed at the facility to avoid deleterious inbreeding so that the need for augmentation from the wild is minimized.
- 5. A statement describing the facility and demonstrating that it is operated in a humane and healthful manner, including:
 - a. Diagrams or photographs of the facility;
 - b. Descriptions of enclosures, including dimensions, construction materials, substrates, availability of water, lighting, ventilation, the need for supplemental heat or cooling and how these are provided, and shading (for outdoor enclosures);
