

National Gallery of Art

Internships in the Museum Profession

2009–2010

Purpose

Internships in the Museum Profession at the National Gallery of Art provide institutional training to students interested in pursuing a museum career. Working closely with professional staff at the Gallery, interns participate in the ongoing work of a department, complete a project or a discrete portion of a larger project, and attend a weekly museum seminar that introduces the staff, departments, programs, and functions of the Gallery.

Eligibility

Although consideration will be given to students with a recent undergraduate degree, preference will be given to applicants who are enrolled in a graduate program or are recent MA, MFA, M ED, or M Arch graduates (degree must have been received no earlier than 2008). Applicants from all backgrounds are encouraged to apply. This is an international program.

Procedure for Application Form

The deadline to submit this application form is January 15, 2009. Applications received after this date will not be considered. Please send one original and five copies of the completed form to our mailing address.
