

Agency Certification of Status of Reemployed Annuitants

Federal Employees' Group
Life Insurance Program

Complete this form for all reemployed annuitants who are entitled to elect or continue any Life Insurance coverage(s) as employees with withholdings from pay. If any of the Life Insurance coverage(s) is (are) continued as an employee, annuity withholdings for the coverage(s) will be suspended. If any Life Insurance coverage(s) is (are) declined or waived as an employee, the coverage(s) is (are) also declined or waived as an annuitant. Exception: Additional Optional Insurance is the only coverage in which the employee has the option to continue as an annuitant with annuity withholdings or as an employee with withholdings from pay. However, the employee must continue Basic Life as an employee to have any optional life insurance.

7. Withholdings for Basic Life, Standard Optional and Family Optional must be made from pay as an employee if the employee is eligible for them and does not waive or decline coverage. Coverage as an annuitant will be suspended and withholdings, if any, will stop. If employee waives Basic Life, all life insurance terminates, both as an employee and as an annuitant. If employee declines Standard Optional or Family Optional as an employee, coverage as an annuitant will also terminate.

8. Employee's Additional Optional Election

If an employee has Additional Optional as an annuitant, coverage as an annuitant will continue and withholdings will continue to be made from annuity payments unless the employee elects (on Standard Form 2817, "Life Insurance Election") to have Additional Optional coverage as an employee with withholdings made from his or her pay. Check the appropriate box below to show employee's Additional Optional insurance status.

<input type="checkbox"/>	Continuing as an annuitant with withholdings made from annuity.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Elected coverage as an employee. Coverage as an annuitant should be suspended. →	Date deductions from pay began
<input type="checkbox"/>	Not eligible. Uncancelled declination of Additional Optional is on file.

NOTE: If the reemployed annuitant elects Additional Optional Insurance as an employee and later decides to continue the coverage as an annuitant, the Office of Personnel Management must be notified so that suspended coverage as an annuitant may be reinstated. An employee who wants to cancel Additional Optional Insurance held as an annuitant should notify the Office of Personnel Management in writing, giving name, date of birth and claim number.

9. I certify that the above information has been obtained from and correctly reflects official records and that the employee named either elected, declined or waived Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance coverage(s) as shown above.
