

Forest Rules you need to know

Shasta-Trinity National Forest

These regulations have been made by the Secretary of Agriculture to assure the enjoyment of recreation in the National Forests. They are common sense rules meant to control actions that cause damage to natural resources and facilities, as well as actions that cause unreasonable disturbances for National Forest visitors.

The Secretary of Agriculture's regulations (36 CFR 261) provide in part for regulating the occupancy and use of developed recreation sites. A violation of these regulations is subject to a penalty of not more than $500 or 6 months imprisonment, or both.

Definitions

The following definitions, which occur in 36 CFR 261.2, apply to all regulations quoted in this publication.

- "Campfire" means a fire, not within any building, mobile home, or living accommodation mounted on a motor vehicle, which is used for cooking, personal warmth, lighting, ceremonial, or aesthetic purpose. "Fire" includes campfire.
- "Camping" means the temporary use of National Forest System lands for the purpose of overnight occupancy without a permanently fixed structure.
- "Camping equipment" means the personal property used in or suitable for camping, and includes any vehicle used for transportation and all equipment in possession of a person camping. Food and beverages are not considered camping equipment.
- "Damaging" means to injure, mutilate, deface, destroy, cut, chop, girdle, dig, excavate, kill or in any way harm or disturb.
- "Developed recreation site" means an area which has been improved or developed for recreation.
- "Forest Development road" means a road wholly or partly within or adjacent to and serving a part of the National Forest System and which has been included in the Forest Development Road System Plan.
- "Forest development trail" means a trail wholly or partly within or adjacent to and serving a part of the National Forest System and which has been included in the Forest Development Trail System Plan.
- "Forest Officer" means an employee of the Forest Service.
- "Person" means natural person, corporation, company, partnership, trust, firm, or association of persons.
- "Permission" means verbal authorization by a Forest Officer.
- "Permit" means authorization in writing by a Forest Officer.
- "State Law" means the law of any State in whose exterior boundaries an act or omission occurs regardless of whether State law is otherwise applicable.

- "Stove fire" means a campfire built inside an enclosed stove or grill, a portable brazier, or a pressurized liquid or gas stove, including a space heating device.
