To whom it may concern:

I am writing to ask that the administration not move forward with their guidance on cost-benefit analysis (known as the OMB Draft Guidelines for the Conduct of Regulatory Analysis and the Format of Accounting Statements). I do not believe that one life should be valued more than another, and, as a senior citizen, I resent the idea that my and my husband's lives are worth less than that of someone younger.

I am also concerned that this analysis could water down anti-pollution regulations and harm the health of ALL of us, young and old alike.

Thanks you.

Sincerely,

Marjory M Donn
