Dear Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs Hunt:

•As an American citizen who is the grandchild/child/relative of a senior citizen, I find that devaluing an elderly person's life is unethical and unmoral.

You and both know that the underlying reason for this is the huge growth in persons over 50 is going to impact all walks of life. By devaluing what we are worth--you allow industries latitude to continue practices that will affect the future of the planet.

Is a dollar in the pocket of an industry giant worth all of this to you? What if you were not rich and your parents rich? Would you care more?

Sincerely,

Pamela Weiss, Ph.D.
