

Lieutenant General JAMES M. DUBIK
Commanding General
Multi National Security Transition Command – Iraq
Baghdad, Iraq

LTG James M. Dubik assumed command Multi National Security Transition Command-Iraq on 10 June 2007. Previously, LTG Dubik was the Commanding General of I Corps and Ft. Lewis. He was commissioned a second lieutenant of infantry from Gannon University as a Distinguished Military Graduate in 1971.

LTG Dubik has held numerous leadership and command positions with airborne, ranger, light and mechanized infantry units around the world. Following his initial assignment with the 82nd Airborne Division, Fort Bragg, North Carolina, he served as a staff officer and company commander in the 2nd Battalion, 75th Infantry (Ranger) at Fort Lewis, Washington. He commanded the 5th Battalion, 14th Infantry, 25th Infantry Division (Light) and the 2nd Brigade, 10th Mountain Division, Fort Drum, New York, during which time he commanded US and Multi-national forces in northern Haiti during Operation Uphold Democracy. He served as Assistant Division Commander for Support, 1st Cavalry Division, Fort Hood, Texas; Deputy Commanding General TASK FORCE EAGLE and Multinational Division (North) Operation Joint Forge, Bosnia-Herzegovina; Deputy Commanding General for Transformation, U.S. Army Training and Doctrine Command, Fort Lewis, Washington, and Commanding General of the 25th Infantry Division (Light), Schofield Barracks, Hawaii from 2000 to 2002.

LTG Dubik's staff positions include; Executive Officer, 1st Ranger Battalion, Hunter Army Airfield; Inspector General, 25th Infantry Division (Light); Instructor, U.S. Army School of Advanced Military Studies, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas; Associate Professor of Philosophy, United States Military Academy; Special Assistant to General Gordon Sullivan, Chief of Staff, United States Army where he also held a fellowship with the Massachusetts Institute of Technology; Executive Officer to General Dennis J. Reimer, Chief of Staff, United States Army; Director of Training, U.S. Army Assistant Chief of Staff (Operations).

LTG Dubik has attended a wide variety of military schools to include the Infantry Officer Basic Course, United States Marine Corps Amphibious Warfare School, United States Army Command and General Staff College and Senior Service College Fellowship. He completed the Advanced Operations Studies Fellowship, Fort Leavenworth; Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government's executive program for national and international security; and the National Security Leadership Course at The Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs at Syracuse University. He holds a Bachelor's of Arts degree in Philosophy from Gannon University, a Master's of Arts degree in Philosophy from Johns Hopkins University and a Master of Military Arts and Sciences Degree from the United States Army Command and General Staff College. His awards include the Distinguished Service Medal, Defense Superior Service Medal, four awards of the Legion of Merit, five awards of the Meritorious Service Medal, and numerous Army Commendation and Achievement Medals. He is ranger, airborne and air assault qualified and holds the expert infantryman's badge, master parachutist badge as well as the Army Staff Identification Badge.