

U.S. Agricultural Trade

In 2005, lower bulk export value (weaker prices & increased competition) offset by record horticultural, pork & dairy exports. In 2006, horticulture and cotton drive export growth, low grain & oilseed prices persist, and some BSE import bans on beef remain. Imports continue rapid rise on strong demand and weak dollar.

