

INTERESTED IN TRANSITIONING TO ORGANIC FARMING?

 MOSES CAN HELP!

The Midwest Organic and Sustainable Education Service (MOSES)

is a non-profit education and outreach organization working to promote organic agriculture in the Upper Midwest. MOSES provides a variety of resources for farmers interested in learning more about organic farming. Most resources are available for download FREE from our website: www.mosesorganic.org.

MOSES PROJECTS and RESOURCES

Organic Farming Conference (OFC) is held annually in La Crosse, Wisconsin. The OFC is the nation's largest organic farming conference, attracting 2400+ people, featuring 60+ workshops, over 150 exhibitors and delicious local, organic food!

Organic Broadcaster Newspaper is a bi-monthly newspaper that highlights news, information and innovations about organic agriculture.

Upper Midwest Organic Resource Directory is a 70-page resource book for farmers, agricultural professionals and others in the Midwest seeking information about organic certification agencies, organizations, farmer co-ops, suppliers, buyers and much more.

Organic Certification Guidebook answers common certification questions.

Farmer Transition Hotline (1-888-551-GROW) answers your questions about soil building, weed and pest control, livestock and certification paperwork.

Farm Field Days and Workshops are offered by MOSES. Tour farms, learn first hand from successful farmers. Visit our website for a full schedule of events.

MOSES Online Bookstore contains a variety of the best organic books available.