

About the Center

The University of Arkansas's National Agricultural Law Center is the leading national and international provider of objective, scholarly, and authoritative agricultural and food law research and information. Created by Congress in 1987, the Center complements the Graduate Program in Agricultural Law and the new Journal of Food Law & Policy.

The Center Website

www.NationalAgLawCenter.org

Reading Rooms form the heart of the Website by providing a comprehensive list of current electronic resources for 33 agricultural or food law topics. Each reading room features links to statutes, regulations, case law, Federal Register digest, research articles, government and Congressional publications, and an overview article on the history and development of its subject.

Administrative Law
Agritourism
Animal Feeding Operations
Animal Identification
Bankruptcy
Biosecurity
Checkoff Programs
Clean Water Act
Commercial Transactions
Commodity Programs
Conservation
Country of Origin Labeling
Corporate Farming Laws
Crop Insurance
Estate Planning and Taxation
Finance and Credit
Food Labeling
Food Safety
International Law & Organizations
International Trade
Marketing Orders
National Organic Program
Packers and Stockyards Act
Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act
Pesticides
Production Contracts
Secured Transactions
Sustainable Agriculture
Urbanization and Agriculture

Research Publications are a vital part of the Center's mission. The articles published on the Website are researched and written by the Center's staff, leading agricultural and food law scholars and qualified practicing attorneys throughout the country and the world.

The National AgLaw Reporter is a regularly updated electronic newsletter dedicated to reporting developments in agricultural and food law:

Case Summaries of recent judicial developments in agricultural and food law

Federal Register Digest

Agricultural Law Update - professional newsletter of the American Agricultural Law Association

USDA Judicial Officer Decisions

Agricultural Law Bibliography is a fully searchable, quarterly-updated comprehensive compilation of publications on 48 agricultural and food law categories.

Agricultural Glossary is a regularly updated detailed compilation of agricultural terms, programs, and policies.

U.S. Farm Bills provides text, legislative history, and related resources for current and past farm bills and commodity legislation.

CRS Reports are research articles on agriculture and food from the Congressional Research Service of the Library of Congress.

Congressional Links provide access to agricultural law on the Hill.

Reference Desk contains agricultural law and general agricultural resources.

Contact Us

Email: NatAgLaw@uark.edu

Phone: 479-575-7646

Harrison M. Pittman - Center Director

479-575-7640 • hmpittm@uark.edu

Erimar von der Osten - Visiting Senior Fellow

479-575-2636 • evonder@uark.edu

Sally J. Kelley - Center Librarian

479-575-7647 • skelley@uark.edu

Ann B. Winfred - Publicity Director/Webmaster

479-575-7646 • awinfred@uark.edu

UNIVERSITY of ARKANSAS
SCHOOL of LAW