

Grantees for the Research Grants to Improve FSP Access through Partnerships and New Technology

The Food and Nutrition Service received a total of 108 proposals from states, nonprofit groups, and other organizations. The Food and Nutrition Service thanks all applicants who expressed interest by submission of proposals. On January 18, 2001, 14 grants totaling $3,682,382 were awarded to the following organizations:

Organization	Location	Dollar Amount Awarded	Target Population
Atlanta Community Food Bank	Atlanta, GA	$274,500	immigrants and their children; elderly; and, low-wage working families.
Illinois Hunger Coalition, Inc.	Chicago, IL	$300,000	working and unemployed families; former TANF; people with disabilities; immigrants; and, elderly.
The Empowerment Center of Greater Cleveland	Cleveland, OH	$279,480	low-income individuals and families; non-English speaking minorities; elderly; and, African Americans.
Center for Civil Justice	Saginaw, MI	$299,762	low-income families with children; former TANF recipients; and, ABAWDS.
Project Bread	Boston, MA	$300,000	low-income working and unemployed families; ABAWDS; former or current TANF recipients; elderly; and, immigrants.
The Los Angeles Regional Food Bank	Los Angeles, CA	$300,000	elderly; immigrants; and, non-English speaking minorities.
The Hartford Food System	Hartford, CT	$275,036	former TANF recipients; low-income families with children; ABAWDS; elderly; and non-English speaking minorities.
Florida Impact Education Fund	Tallahassee, FL	$294,258	elderly; working poor; and, legal immigrants.

Human Services Coalition of Dade County, Inc.	Miami, FL	$300,000	African-American; Hispanic; and, Haitian agriculture workers.
Asian Pacific Health Care Venture, Inc.	Los Angeles, CA	$210,000	Chinese; Cambodian; Korean; and, Vietnamese.
Hunger Action Center	Harrisburg, PA	$150,000	families who receive needs based public subsidies such as school lunch, WIC, Head Start, and who do not receive food stamps.
New Mexico Advocates for Children and Families	Albuquerque, NM	$300,000	low-income families with children; immigrants; non-English speaking minorities; former or current TANF recipients; and, Native American.
North Central-Flint Hills Area Agency on Aging, Inc.	Manhattan, KS	$299,974	persons age 60+ and their families.
Union Snyder Area Agency on Aging	Lewisburg, PA	$ 99,372	elderly.

January 23, 2001

J:Grantees for Outreach Grants 2001