Recipient	Name of Program	Date of Program	Program Summary
Atlanta Law Libraries Association	Using Competitive Intelligence to Help Win Clients"	October 10, 2006	The grant funds enabled us to invite a competitive intelligence expert to speak. Without the grant, this would not have been possible. Additionally, the funds provided an opportunity for the association to hire a broadcast specialist to produce its first MP3 file for a podcast.
Private Law Libraries Special Interest Section -Mark Estes	Law Firm Library Management Workshop	October 18, 2006	The program grew out of a PLL survey regarding programming preferences. This successful collaborative effort was well attended. In addition, there have been member inquiries to conduct the program again in other cities.
Regional/Lynn Fogle	Collaborate and Innovate	November 10, 2006	The funds were used to pay a nationally recognized keynote speaker to discuss creative conflict resolution. Since this program was open to many types of librarians, it was important to have a strong program on a topic that would be applicable to everyone. A portion of the speaker's session was audio taped for podcasting.
Northern California Association of Law Libraries	Information Services Program	February 7, 2007	The funds were used to cover speaker travel expenses. The program will focus on web-based information services for library clientele.
Academic Law Libraries Special Interest Section Continuing Education Task Force	Challenging Conversations	February 19, 2007	The grant funds were used to cover speaker travel expenses. The program will focus on strategies and techniques to improve communication skills in challenging situations. This program will be video taped and available via AALLNET.
Academic Law Libraries Special Interest Section - Michael Chiorazzi	Management and Leadership Institute	March 3, 2007	The winter institute was developed out of a desire to help law librarians grow in their professional skills. The Training the Next Generation of Law Librarians Committee proposed this institute to serve as a model for future institutes. Portions of the costs to attend were underwritten by AALL. The institute was facilitated by a nationally known management and leadership expert.
Law Library Association of Greater New York	Private Equity Program	March 14, 2007	The funds were used to cover speaker expenses and program costs. The program will focus on private equity.
Dallas Association of Law Libraries	State Law/Texas History Program	March 17, 2007	The grant funds were used to cover speaker travel expenses. The program will focus on legislative history research.
