

11th Annual Southeast EPPC Conference

Creating Sustainable Landscapes for the Future

May 13-15, 2009

Georgetown, South Carolina

Presentations are now being accepted for

Proposals will be accepted through January 16, 2009.

Featured topics include, but aren't limited to:

Current Research in Invasive plant Control and Restoration

Building Communication and Consensus among Key Players

Screening Species for Use in Biomass Production

How to effectively work with retailers and the nursery industry to prevent the sale of invasive species.

Building Cooperative Weed and Invasive Species Management Areas

Early Detection and Rapid Response Efforts

Please send an abstract (< 1 page) including title, brief description of the talk, and name of presenter via email to mmalone@tnc.org.

General Information: Robin Mackie rmackie@fs.fed.us

For More Information, see www.se-eppc.org

