

District of Columbia

The District of Columbia's 55,139 small businesses provide economic opportunities to diverse groups of people and bring innovative products and services to the marketplace.* This profile from the Office of Advocacy compiles the latest facts and figures on the status and role of small business in the district. (Note that a small business is defined here as one with fewer than 500 employees.)

- The District of Columbia had 15,669 small employers in 2005, representing 93.3% of its employers and 47.9% of its private-sector employment.
- The other services industry was the district's largest small business employer in 2005; professional, scientific, and technical services was the largest overall employer (Table 1).
- Small businesses created all of the district's net new jobs from 2004 to 2005 (Table 2).
- The District of Columbia's real gross economic product increased by 4.3% in 2007. By comparison, growth in the Mid-Atlantic region was 2.8% and the United States, 2.0%. (Source: U.S. Dept. of Commerce: Bureau of Economic Analysis)
