The Opportunity

The Oregon Parks and Recreation Department is looking for a full-time innkeeper to operate the historic Wolf Creek Inn, near Grants Pass, Oregon. This special property offers a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to combine hospitality, history, fine dining and a lifestyle unlike anywhere else.

The Inn

This beautiful, fully restored Inn dates to 1883, when it was built to capitalize on the stagecoach trade.

- 11,000 sq. ft. two story Classic Revival style architecture
- 9 guest rooms with full service bathrooms
- 3 dining areas
- banquet/conference room
- fully furnished
- ample parking

The Setting

Spectacular southern Oregon is a mecca for outdoor recreation, special events and historic tourism. The Inn is within easy driving distance to the wild and scenic Rogue River, Crater Lake National Park, the Oregon Caves, the renowned Oregon Shakespeare Festival in Ashland, the Britt Music Festival in Jacksonville.

The Candidate(s)

- 7 years management experience at inn, hotel or fine dining
- Strong financial, budgeting and supervisory skills
- Bachelor's degree or equivalent
- Experience with historic inn and facilities management preferred
