

National Violent Death Reporting System Implementation Manual

National Center for Injury Prevention and Control
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

2003

Produced under contract by:

Department of Emergency Medicine
Medical College of Wisconsin

For more information about the National Violent Death Reporting System, please contact Leroy Frazier, Jr. at: LFrazier1@cdc.gov.

The National Violent Death Reporting System (NVDRS) Implementation Manual was developed through an extensive consultation process. It is published by the National Center for Injury Prevention and Control of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Julie L. Gerberding, MD, MPH, Director

National Center for Injury Prevention and Control

Sue Binder, MD, Director

Division of Violence Prevention

W. Rodney Hammond, PhD, Director

Etiology and Surveillance Branch

Ileana Arias, PhD, Chief

Use of trade names is for identification purposes only and does not constitute endorsement by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. This document and subsequent revisions can be found at the National Center for Injury Prevention and Control web site:

www.cdc.gov/injury

Suggested Citation: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. National Violent Death Reporting System Implementation Manual. [Online]. (2003). National Center for Injury Prevention and Control, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (producer). Available from: URL:www.cdc.gov/injury.