

APPLICATIONS INVITED FOR EDITOR,
*THE SAA ARCHAEOLOGICAL RECORD

The Society for American Archaeology invites applications or nominations for the editorship of The SAA Archaeological Record. The magazine, which is received by all SAA members, is one of the Society's major venues for presenting itself to the archaeological community. The four-color magazine encompasses SAA business and commentary, news, regular columns, opinions, and articles related to the practice of archaeology. It is published five times per year.

The editor has overall responsibility for the magazine's functioning and final responsibility for all content. A broad knowledge of the practice of archaeology is important, although the editor also can appoint associate editors who complement the editor's expertise and who assist in soliciting and editing material; traditionally the associate editors have been responsible for the regular columns in the magazine. The journal's production is done from the SAA office in Washington.

The term of the editor is for a period of three years; it may be renewed once thereafter. The editorship is unpaid. The editor will be expected to provide some institutional support and to ensure that he or she has sufficient time to carry out editorial responsibilities; release time of at least 25 percent from university teaching commitments has been customary.

The editor position falls vacant on April 16, 2010 when the present editor, Andrew Duff, completes his term. The editorship is preceded by an overlap period with him beginning April 25, 2009. SAA anticipates making the appointment by Spring 2009.

Available to discuss the post informally are Duff (e-mail: duff@wsu.edu); and the chair of the SAA Publications Committee, Cathy Costin (contact information below), who leads the search.

Applications outlining relevant qualifications and expected local institutional support arrangements, along with a current vita, should be directed to Cathy Lynne Costin, PhD., RPA, Chair, Publications Committee, Society for American Archaeology, Associate Professor, Department of Anthropology, California State University, Northridge, 18111 Nordhoff Street, Northridge, CA 91330, 818-677-3331 (email: cathy.l.costin@csun.edu) by October 1, 2008.
