

King County Metro Transit's Two-Year Mechanic Apprenticeship Program

Metro is hiring a select group of individuals for a two-year mechanic apprenticeship program. This program is geared toward individuals who have completed a vocational school curriculum in either Diesel or Automotive Technology, but who have no on-the-job experience. At graduation, apprentices will be promoted to journey level mechanic.

See how to apply

Alternate Formats Available
206-684-2046
1-800-833-6388 (TTY)

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- Be at least 18 years of age
- Have completed a two-year degree from an accredited heavy-duty diesel or industrial automotive equipment repair within the last 5 years with a minimum 2.5 GPA
- Hold a valid Washington State driver's license and have a responsible driving record
- Be able to communicate verbally and orally in English

To Apply

See the Mechanic Apprenticeship job posting and required safety sensitive application online at the King County web site at: <http://www.metrokc.gov/jobs/Transit/CraftMaint.htm>

Or

Pick up the Mechanic Apprenticeship job posting and safety sensitive application in person in the foyer of the King County Career and Employment Center at: 201 South Jackson Street in Seattle.

For questions and to submit an application, please contact:

King County Metro Transit
Human Resources
Mail Stop KSC-TR-0419
201 S Jackson Street
Seattle, WA 98104
Telephone (206) 684-1087

Realize the Potential of Your Degree in Automotive or Diesel Technology

Work for an organization that offers the best ...

We'll Get You There

... and join a cutting edge team that is the best!

“Environmentally friendly bio-diesel”

“Multi-plex Electrical Systems”

“Hybrid-Diesel-Electric Technology”

Metro's mechanics win national competition

Who Are We?

King County Metro maintains the safety systems, mechanical systems and physical condition of over 1,400 buses – including diesel, electric trolleys and hybrids, in both standard and articulated buses that travel over 47 million miles per year.

Outstanding Benefits Package

- Great pay, starting at $20.29/hr.
- Paid vacation and sick leave
- Excellent healthcare benefits, including coverage for family or domestic partner that begin 30 days after hire
- Retirement and deferred compensation plans
- Regular pay increases upon completion of training

Other Benefits

- Multiple King County worksites
- Clean, well-heated work environment
- No experience required
- Annual tool allowance
- Weekends off during the program
- Uniforms provided
- Build union seniority while in the program
- Guaranteed position upon successful completion of the program