Jane Henney, M.D., <sup>CD</sup> Commissioner
Food and Drug Administration

Dear Ms. Henney,

Please stop the use of antibiotics in raising farm animals. It seems absurd to allow farmers to give ANYTHING to their animals that could possibly harm the consumers. Which is more important here, ~~farmers and their~~ the increased ~~wealth~~ profit of farmers or the future health of us all? Using antibiotics to make animals grow faster is a gross MISUSE of drugs. Hesitation will cost lives. Stop it ~~now~~ before before more harm is done.

Sincerely Jacquetta Napolitan
