

Egypt's Pyramids: Time Travel

Student Name _____ Class _____

You are an historian who is traveling back in time to gather and record facts so you can explain to your friends what actually happened in ancient Egypt. Interview the people listed below and then interview your classmates that are acting as geographers, architects, and archaeologists to identify important artifacts and collect information about life in ancient Egypt.

Use the timeline below from the Metropolitan Museum of Art to help you find the period in which your people and objects belong.

http://metmuseum.org/explore/newegypt/htm/tm\_frame.htm

For more information on dynasties and time periods in ancient Egypt, see <http://www.clemusart.com/archive/pharaoh/time.html>

Find people to interview at

Exploring Ancient World Cultures, from the Cleveland Museum of Art:

Amenhotep

<http://www.clevelandart.org/archive/pharaoh/photos/photo01.html>

Amenemhat III

<http://www.clevelandart.org/archive/pharaoh/photos/photo06.html>

Torso of Queen Sebekneferu

<http://www.clevelandart.org/archive/pharaoh/photos/photo07.html>

Tuthmosis IV

<http://www.clevelandart.org/archive/pharaoh/photos/photo11.html>

Sestostris III

<http://www.clevelandart.org/archive/pharaoh/photos/photo05.html>

Person or object	Dynasty or Time Period	Importance	