Admission Statement

Goshen College has developed a rigorous academic program and lively campus life centered around our core community values which reflect our desire to prepare students to become Christ-centered passionate learners, global citizens, compassionate peacemakers and servant leaders. You will encounter the Christian faith as it is held and lived by our faculty and Goshen students. Goshen College is rooted in the Mennonite Church, one of the historic peace churches, and nurtures development of an active and mature Christian faith through its programs.

Goshen College maintains standards for behavior, which contribute to a strong campus community. Students from different backgrounds may have different values, but the Goshen College community expects a lifestyle that excludes use of alcohol, use or possession of nonmedicinal drugs, use of tobacco, use and/or possession of firearms or fireworks and premarital sex. Racial discrimination and prejudice will not be tolerated. All students are expected to live in accordance with the “commitment to Community Standards”, which is easily accessible on the Goshen College Web site at <http://goshen.edu/aboutgc/community.php>

Response:

1) Did you read the above Admission Statement? (Check one)       Yes     No

2) What is your response to this statement? (Check the statement that matches best.)

The statement reflects my values and I will actively support it.

I can live in harmony with the standard summarized in the statement above.
