#	Question	Response
Q-152	In our attempt to provide a compliant proposal, we have some uncertainty regarding the placement of the Small Business Plan and therefore, request your guidance. We understand the requirement found in Section 2, Mission Suitability, Subfactor C Small Business Utilization indicates submitting a Small Business Subcontracting Plan with the proposal (Mission Suitability instructions beginning on page 164 of Amendment 3). We further understand this will be incorporated in Section V as Attachment D of the resulting contract [paragraph (4) on page 165]. We plan to submit the plan in our proposal as a Section in Volume II Mission Suitability, Small Business Utilization section, with the understanding that it will be an Attachment to the resulting contract. Please advise if this approach is not your intent.	Yes, the Small Business Subcontracting Plan should be submitted with Volume II of the proposal. This Plan will be incorporated in Section V as Attachment D of the resulting contract.
Q-153	Per Amendment No. 002 of Solicitation NNJ08ZBG001R, the Deviations and/or Exceptions section was moved from the Mission Suitability volume to the Offer Volume. Since offerors are to return Sections I - III of the Model Contract along with Section IV, Representations and Certifications, it is recommended that any proposed Deviations, Exceptions and Conditional Assumptions be included at the end of Section II, Contract Terms and Conditions, as Clause II.A.30, Deviations, Exceptions and Conditional Assumptions, to allow for consistent formatting throughout the document.	While NASA appreciates your suggestion, NASA does not concur on the recommendation.
Q-154	Due to the large size of the Mission Suitability Volume II, please confirm it is acceptable to provide the electronic files of this Volume in more than one electronic data file. In particular, we would like to submit each Appendix document as a separate electronic file, and submit the Technical and Management sections as separate electronic files.	It is acceptable for an offeror to provide its required electronic version of Volume II using multiple electronic files as well as more than one CD if those files cannot be stored on a single CD.
