SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

“FY 2008 Medical Device User Fee Small Business Qualification and Certification” explains how a business headquartered in the United States or headquartered in a foreign nation may qualify as “small business” under the medical device user fee provisions of the act (21 U.S.C. 301). A “small business” may pay certain medical device user fees at a substantial discount from the standard (full) fee rates and may obtain a one-time fee waiver for its first premarket application (a PMA, BLA, PDP, or PMR). The following fees apply for fiscal year (FY) 2008:

Application Type	FY 2008
	Standard Fee	Small Business
Premarket application (PMA, BLA, PDP, or PMR)	$185,000	$46,250
Panel-track PMA supplement	$138,750	$34,688
BLA efficacy supplement	$185,000	$46,250
180-day PMA supplement	$27,750	$6,938
Real-time PMA supplement	$12,950	$3,238
510(k) premarket notification	$3,404	$1,702
30-day notice	$2,960	$1,480
513(g) request	$2,498	$1,249
Periodic reporting on a class III device	$6,475	$1,619
Establishment registration	$1,706

To qualify as a “small business,” the business must have “gross receipts or sales” of no more than $100 million in the most-recent tax year, including the “gross receipts or sales” of all of the business’ affiliates (see sections 738(d)(2)(A) and (e)(2)(A) of the act (21 U.S.C. 379j(d)(2)(A) and (e)(2)(A))). An affiliate is defined by section 737(12) of the act (21 U.S.C. 379i(12)) as a business entity that has a relationship with a second business entity if, directly or indirectly—

“(A) one business entity controls, or has the power to control, the other business entity; or

(B) a third party controls, or has power to control, both of the business entities.”

A business headquartered in the United States must demonstrate that it meets the $100 million threshold by submitting a certified copy of its most-recent Federal (U.S.) income tax return. A business headquartered outside the United States must demonstrate that it meets the $100 million threshold by submitting a National Taxing Authority Certification from the foreign equivalent of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service. Under the guidance, both U.S. and foreign businesses should provide FDA with contact information, identify all of their affiliates, and certify that the information they provide to FDA is complete and accurate.

FDA is making this final guidance document immediately available. Prior public participation is not feasible because it implements statutory requirements that require immediate implementation. This guidance is necessary to help effect such implementation.

II. Significance of Guidance

It does not create or confer any rights for or on any person and does not operate to bind FDA or the public. An alternative approach may be used if such approach satisfies the requirements of the applicable statute and regulations.
