

Highlights

A section 501(c) organizations filing a Form 990 or 990-EZ is required to complete Schedule N to report certain major transactions or events. The 2008 Form 990 expands this reporting to include a significant disposition of assets for which adequate consideration is received.

The instructions provide that a significant disposition includes a sale or exchange of more than 25 percent of the organization's net assets or a substantial contraction of net assets, including:

- A. a sale of exempt assets to another organization;
- B. a sale or contribution of assets to a partnership, joint venture or corporation, regardless of whether the transfer is governed by section 351 or 721;
- C. a sale of assets by a partnership or joint venture in which the organization has an ownership interest;
- D. a transfer of assets pursuant to a reorganization in which the organization is a surviving entity.

An organization changing the composition of its passive investment portfolio does not need to report such a change in Part II of this schedule.

1. one or more dispositions during the organization's tax year amounting to more than 25 percent of the fair market value of the organization's net assets as of the beginning of its tax year; or
2. one of a series of related dispositions or events commenced in a prior year, that when combined comprise more than 25 percent of the net assets of the organization as of the beginning of the tax year when the first disposition in the series was made.
