

Resources for the Future

1755 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W.

Washington, D.C. 20036

WORKSHOP AGENDA

RFF/NSF PROJECT: The Implications of Potential Resource and Environmental Constraints on Growth

September 18-19, 1978

September 18 (Monday)

9:00 - 9:15 Welcome and Statement of Objectives of Workshop

John V. Krutilla
V. Kerry Smith

9:15 - 10:30 SESSION I

The Role of Natural and Environmental Resources for Production Processes and Technical Change

Discussion of papers by: M. I. Kamien and N. L. Schwartz; R. Day; and R. J. Kopp and
V. K. Smith

10:30 - 10:45 Coffee break

10:45 - 11:15 Continuation of SESSION I

11:15 - 12:00 SESSION II

The Prospects for Modeling the Health Implications of Mechanisms Used for Resolving Material Scarcity

Discussion of paper by A. M. Freeman, III

12:00 - 1:30 Lunch--Brookings Institution, Room 110

1:30 - 2:30 SESSION III

Non-Market Mechanisms for Revealing Information on Consumer Preferences for Environmental Open-
Access (common property) Resources

Discussion of papers by: P. Dasgupta and G. Heal; and
R. Zeckhauser and A. Hylland

2:30 - 2:45 Coffee break

September 18 (Continued)

2:45 - 4:30 SESSION IV

Measuring the Importance and Availability of Natural Resources for Economic Activity

Discussion of papers by: L. J. Lau; A. C. Fisher and
S. Devarijan; and D. Harris and B. J. Skinner

4:30 - 5:00 Summary

September 19 (Tuesday)

9:30 - 10:45 Executive Session of Advisory Committee

10:45 - 11:00 Coffee break

11:00 - 12:15 Continued Executive Session

Location of Meetings:

Brookings Institution, Rm. 203
1755 Massachusetts Ave., N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20036