ACTING CLERK OF COURT

March 23, 2007

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Criminal Justice Act (“CJA”) Committee of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit has decided that effective immediately the Court will not reimburse CJA appointed counsel for any costs associated with the production of briefs and appendices other than copying and binding of the necessary copies of those documents, the original text of which, including covers, table of contents, table of cases, and any necessary certifications, should be prepared by counsel using appropriate word processing and formatting in compliance with the requirements of federal and local rules of appellate procedure (e.g., Fed. R. App. P. 32; Local R. 32).

All bills submitted for reimbursement for copying and binding of briefs performed by a printing house or copying service must be fully itemized and must indicate each component of the total charge for such services. Failure to provide such itemized bills will result in those costs being disallowed.
