

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 01-07

It is hereby ORDERED that in cases where a violator is convicted in traffic court the person will be required to complete educational programs from the American Institute for Public Safety.

This referral process does not change any court administrative procedures. Records will be electronically transferred for processing the violator through the educational programs.

Violators who are convicted in traffic court of a coded offense that carries 2-3 points against their driving record are required to take the "Aware Driver" Defensive Driving Course.

Violators who are convicted in traffic court of a coded offense that carries 4 to 8 points are required to take the aggressive driver course, "RoadRageous".

Violators who are convicted in traffic court of a coded offense that carries more than 8 points will be required to take both courses.

This order applies to violators who are residents and non-residents of the District of Columbia.

This order shall be effective May 1, 2001.
