In the Matter of the
REPRESENTATION OF EMPLOYEES
of
PORT AUTHORITY TRANS-
HUDSON CORP.
Transportation Operations
Examiners

34 NMB No. 22

CASE NO. R-7113

DISMISSAL

March 21, 2007

The services of the National Mediation Board (Board) were invoked by the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW) on August 21, 2006, to investigate and determine who may represent for the purposes of the Railway Labor Act (RLA), as provided by Section 2, Ninth, thereof, personnel described as "Transportation Operations Examiners," employees of Port Authority Trans-Hudson Corp. (Carrier).

At the time this application was received, these employees were unrepresented.

The Board assigned Investigator Eileen M. Hennessey to investigate.

FINDINGS

The investigation disclosed that a dispute existed among the craft or class of Transportation Operations Examiners, and by direction of the Board, the Investigator was instructed to conduct an election to determine the employees' representation choice.

The following is the result of the election as reported by Investigator Hennessey

Number of Employees Voting:

	IBEW	Number of Employees Eligible
Transportation Operations Examiners	2	10

The Board further finds that: the Carrier and employees in this case are, respectively, a Carrier and employees within the meaning of the RLA, as amended; this Board has jurisdiction over the dispute involved herein; and the interested parties, as well as the Carrier, were given due notice of the Board's investigation.

On the basis of the investigation and report of election which establishes that less than a majority of eligible employees cast valid votes for representation, the Board finds no basis for certification and the application is, therefore, dismissed subject to Part 1206.4(b) of the NMB Rules.

By direction of the NATIONAL MEDIATION BOARD.
