Annualization Worksheet

General Information on Annualizing

If your income fluctuates or is seasonal, you may be able to lower the amount of one or more required estimated tax installments by annualizing your income. To see if you can pay less for any period, first complete the estimated worksheet (Form ESW) then complete the annualized estimated worksheet (Form ESA). Complete one column before continuing to the next. This worksheet annualizes your tax at the end of each period based on a reasonable estimate of your income and deductions from the beginning of the tax year through the end of each period. If you use the annualized income worksheet for any payment due date, you must use it for all subsequent payment due dates.

If you use the annualized income installment method, you must file Form ESA. Attach Form ESA when you file your 2004 income tax return.

- Complete an estimated tax coupon (enclosed) if you are required to pay estimated tax.
- Keep a record of your payments.

Who must pay estimated tax?

In most cases, you must make estimated tax payments for tax year 2004 if you expect to owe at least $500 after subtracting any withholding and credits you may have.

If you are required to pay estimated taxes, you must file estimated tax coupons and pay at least the smaller of:

> 100% of your 2003 Montana tax liability (line 54 of Form 2 or line 31 of Form 2S), or

90% of your 2004 Montana income tax liability.

Who does not have to pay estimated tax?

Payment of estimated tax is not required if:

- your 2003 tax period covered 12 months and your Montana tax liability was zero, or
- > you were not required to file a 2003 Montana tax return, or
- in 2004 you retired and were at least 62 years old (this exception pertains only in the year you retire and the year after), or
- in 2004 you became disabled, or
- at least 2/3 of your gross income is derived from farming or ranching operations or both, (note: Montana has no "lookback" provision) or
- the taxpayer died in 2004 (however, estates are subject to the estimated tax requirements), or
- > the tax liability is less than $500 after credits and/or withholding.

Nonresidents and part-year residents

- Nonresidents and part-year residents who are not required to file a Montana individual income tax return are not required to file estimated tax
- Nonresidents and part-year residents are required to make estimated tax payments if they expect to owe at least $500 after subtracting withholding and allowable credits.

Complete the Form-IT Payment Coupon below if you are remitting a payment. Do not type your numbers or use dollar signs. Please print your numbers in the blocked areas like this:

Penalty for underpayment

An underpayment penalty will be assessed if you fail to make required estimated tax payments.

When to pay your estimated tax Calendar Year Taxpayers

You may prepay all of your estimated tax for tax year 2004 by April 15, 2004, or in four equal amounts by the dates below.

2004 Estimated Payment Schedule:

First payment	_	due April 15, 2004
Second payment	_	due June 15, 2004
Third payment	_	due Sept. 15, 2004
Fourth payment		due Jan. 15, 2005

If the installment due date falls on a holiday, payment is due on the next working day.

Fiscal Year Taxpayers

Due dates for fiscal year filers are the 15th day of the 4th, 6th, and 9th months of the fiscal year and the 1st month of the following fiscal year. A penalty will not be imposed on any underpayment of the fourth installment if you pay in full the amount computed on the return as payable and file the return on or before the last day of the first month following the close of the tax year.

Interest on returns filed with an extension

- A valid extension to file your return does not relieve you from interest on tax balances due that are paid after the due date of the return.
- Interest is assessed at a rate of 1% per calendar month, beginning on the due date of the return and continuing until the tax due has been paid.

Avoiding a late pay penalty

This payment and coupon must be postmarked on or before April 15, 2004.

You must check the extension box located below line 70 and attach a copy of your federal extension to your Montana income tax return (Form 2) for calendar year 2003.

- For the additional two month extension, attach a copy of your Federal Form 2688 to your Montana return.
- Fiscal year filers must pay on or before the 15th day of the fourth month after the close of the fiscal year.

If the above requirements are not met, a late payment penalty will be assessed when you file your return. The penalty is 1.5% per month (or fraction of a month) on the amount required to be paid on this form. The penalty may not exceed 18%.

Instructions

An individual or a family farm corporation who has an eligible agricultural business may establish a Montana farm and ranch risk management account and exclude up to $20,000 annually from adjusted gross income deposits made into this account.

To qualify for this deduction the "eligible agricultural business" must be for the production of food, feed, and fiber commodities, livestock and poultry, bees, fruits and vegetables, and sod, ornamental, nursery, and horticultural crops that are raised, grown, or produced for commercial purposes. Eligible agricultural business also means the raising of domestic animals and wildlife in domestication or a captive environment along with silviculture.

Account Information

- Grantor name and identification number: Provide the legal name and identification number of the granter of the farm and ranch risk management trust created.
- > Trustee: Provide the name and address of the trustee.
- > Account number: Provide the account number assigned to the trust.

Deposits

- List all deposits and dates of each deposit made for the specific tax year.
- Deposits for a specific tax year can be made during the tax year or within 3½ months after the close of the tax year.
- > The trustee can not accept any deposits for a specific year in excess of the allowable deduction.
- Assets of the trust must be cash or obligations that adequately state interest and pay interest at least annually.
- Assets of the trust can not be commingled with other property except in a common trust fund or common investment fund.

Deductions

- Net income attributable to agricultural business is the total net farm income reported on Federal Schedule F; net farm rental income reported on Federal Schedule 4835, or the Federal Form 4797 gain from the sale of draft, breeding, dairy or sporting livestock.
- If the deduction is for a family farm corporation the amount of net income attributable to agricultural business is allocated based on your distributive share of the income from the entity.
- There is no carryover provisions allowed. The deduction cannot be greater than 20% of your net income attributable to agricultural business.

Distributions

- > Deposits must be distributed within five years.
- Deposits distributed within six months of the date of the deposit are income in the year the associated deduction was taken. You may need to file an amended return to report this distribution.
- Amounts not distributed within the five-year eligibility period are considered distributed on the last day of the fifth year the deposit is made. This distribution is taxable income and is assessed a penalty of 10% of the tax due on this amount.
- If at anytime within the five-year period you become disqualified because you are not engaged in an eligible agricultural business, the balance in the trust account is considered distributed and included in income.

Your allowable reduction is the total of column A or $3,000, whichever is less, plus the interest earned on the principal balance.

Attach this form to your tax return. If you electronically file, keep this form for your records (do not send to the Department of Revenue).

For more information regarding the first-time home buyer savings account, please access website http:/ /www.montana.edu/wwwpb/pubs/mt9918.html.

Qualifying taxpayers may exclude contributions made to accounts established specifically to pay eligible costs associated with the purchase of a taxpayer's first home. A qualifying taxpayer (firsttime home buyer) is an individual who has never owned or purchased under contract for deed, either individually or jointly, a single-family residence in Montana or out-of-state. Eligible costs include the down payment and allowable closing costs for the purchase of a single-family residence in Montana by a first-time home buyer.

The maximum exclusion per year, per individual is $3,000. Contributions in excess of $3,000 may be claimed as a reduction from Montana adjusted gross income in subsequent tax years, however, the maximum contribution deduction allowed in any one tax year is $3,000.

Married couples may each claim a first-time home buyer savings account reduction of up to $3,000 if they maintain separate accounts. Jointly held accounts do not qualify as first-time home buyer accounts, unless husband and wife file jointly (both using the same column of the tax return) for Montana tax purposes.

In addition to deducting up to $3,000 in contributions to a first-time home buyer savings account, interest earned on the principal amount in an account is excludable from Montana adjusted gross income. Interest on excess contributions carried over to subsequent years is not deductible until the excess contribution is considered first-time home buyer funds and excluded from adjusted gross income.

No first-time home buyer reductions are allowed after a home is purchased. Any funds remaining in an account after a home is purchased must be included in Montana adjusted gross income in the year the home is purchased. Funds remaining in an account after the purchase of a home are not includable in Montana adjusted gross income if the funds were not claimed as a first-time home buyer reduction.

First-time home buyer savings accounts are selfadministered and can be established with any financial or investment institution. The account must be a new account established in the first year the reduction is claimed. The account cannot be used for any purpose other than for paying qualifying expenses related to the purchase of a first home qualifying for the first-time home buyer provision.

If, after 10 years of making contributions to an account, a taxpayer has not purchased a home, funds in a first-time home buyer savings account will become subject to Montana income tax as ordinary income.

Withdrawals from first-time home buyer savings accounts used for purposes other than qualifying first-time home purchase expenses are subject to state taxation as ordinary income and are also subject to a 10% withdrawal penalty. Money withdrawn from an account on the last business day of the tax year is not subject to the 10% penalty, however it is subject to state taxation.

Taxpayers claiming this exclusion must attach the following to their tax return each year.
Copies of all account statements (monthly, quarterly, annual) from the financial or investment institution where the account is maintained
A completed Form FTB

For the year in which a home is purchased, taxpayers claiming the first-time home buyer savings account reductions must also attach copies of the buy/sell agreement and the closing statement for the purchased home to their tax return.

Additionally, upon the Department of Revenue's request, account holders must be able to provide verification that all withdrawals from an account were used to pay qualifying expenses associated with the purchase of a first home.

> This credit applies to disability insurance as defined in 33-1-207, MCA.

Disability insurance. Disability insurance, including credit disability insurance, is insurance of human beings

- against bodily injury, disablement, or death by accident or accidental means or the medical expense or indemnity involved, or
- against disablement or medical expense or indemnity resulting from sickness.

Transactions of disability insurance does not include workers' compensation insurance.

- Disability insurance in Montana includes, in general terms, any insurance plan offered by an insurance company that provides such coverage as, personal health, disablement, death, medical expenses or indemnity of such, to a human being. Workers' compensation is not considered disability insurance.
- > To qualify for this credit the business must
  - be located in Montana,
  - be in existence for at least 12 months,
  - employ no more than 20 employees working at least 20 hours a week, and
  - pay at least 50% of each employee's insurance premiums.
- If you are claiming this credit you may be asked by the Department of Revenue to provide documentation from your insurance company that the premiums meet the qualifications of the Small Employer Health Insurance Availability Act.
- The credit allowed cannot be carried back or forward. The credit may only be used to offset tax liability.
- Premiums paid by a small business corporation or partnership qualify for the credit. The credit is attributed to the shareholders or partners using the same proportion used to report income or loss for Montana tax purposes.
- > The credit may not be claimed for a period of more than 36 consecutive months and cannot be granted to an employer or it successor within 10 years of the last consecutive credit claimed.
- Non-taxable distributions are distributions not excluded from adjusted gross income in the year of the deposit, or distributions which have already been taxed if not distributed within the five year eligibility period.
