Complying with the Foreign Trade Regulations (FTR)

Provide Accurate Data and Avoid Costly Penalties and Seizures

New Requirements, Tougher Penalties

It is imperative that you understand the new requirements of the FTR and how to avoid possible penalties and seizure of your commodities. In addition it is vital to provide accurate and complete data in efforts to help the trade make sound business decisions. The Census Bureau now requires mandatory filing of export information through the Automated Export System (AES) or through the AESDirect for all shipments where a Shipper's Export Declaration was previously required. Penalties may be imposed per violation of the FTR from $1,100 to $10,000 – both civil and criminal – for the delayed filing, failure to file, false filing of export information, and/or using the AES to further any illegal activity. In accordance with the FTR, all parties to the export transaction are subject to the fines and penalties. Additionally, all AES filers are faced with new filing deadlines by mode of transportation for reporting export information.

The Foreign Trade Division is actively engaged in educational outreach to help you avoid these costly penalties. We provide seminars and workshops both in English and Spanish to help you understand the new requirements of the FTR.

Agenda

Day 1 – Seminar

The Census Bureau and port officers from the U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) offer an engaging full day of learning. The Census Bureau experts will cover the filing requirements of the FTR, how to classify your commodities by providing an understanding of the Schedule B classification requirements, as well as provide a thorough overview of the AES. The CBP experts will cover port requirements and efforts against terrorism and international narcotics trafficking. The seminar is scheduled from 9 am – 5 pm and continental breakfast and lunch are provided.

Day 2 – Workshop

Get certified training on AESPcLink! Learn how to successfully file your Electronic Export Information (EEI) via the Windows-based desktop PC component, AESPcLink. There are two workshops offered. The AM workshop is scheduled from 8:30 am -12:00 pm and the PM workshop is scheduled from 1:00 pm - 4:30 pm.
