SBA Offers Disaster Assistance to Kansas Residents and Businesses Affected by Tornadoes and Storms in Dickinson and Riley Counties

SACRAMENTO – Jovita Carranza, Acting Administrator of the U. S. Small Business Administration (SBA), announced that low-interest disaster loans are now available to residents and businesses affected by the June 11 tornadoes and severe storms in Dickinson and Riley Counties.

By declaring a disaster, Acting Administrator Carranza’s action makes SBA assistance available. Carranza’s action responded to a request from Governor Kathleen Sebelius that SBA received on June 18. The declaration covers the Kansas counties of Clay, Dickinson, Geary, Marion, Marshall, McPherson, Morris, Ottawa, Pottawatomie, Riley, Saline, Wabaunsee and Washington.

“We look forward to working with Kansas and the people affected by this disaster to make SBA disaster loans available to homeowners, renters and businesses,” said Acting Administrator Carranza.

“Low-interest Federal disaster loans are available to homeowners, renters, businesses of all sizes and private, non-profit organizations whose property was damaged or destroyed by the tornadoes and severe storms,” said Samuel Jones, SBA’s Region VII Administrator.

“SBA customer service representatives will be on hand at the following Disaster Loan Outreach Centers beginning in Chapman on Tuesday, June 24 at 9 am and continuing on the days and times indicated. The customer service representatives will issue loan applications, answer questions about SBA’s disaster loan program, explain the application process and help each individual complete their application,” Jones continued.
