Law Ethics Instructor Certification Seminar

Ethics training for law enforcement officers/agents cannot be underemphasized. The Federal Law Enforcement Training Accreditation Board recently added a standard that requires all basic or entry-level law enforcement training programs to include ethics training. Participants completing this seminar become certified as Ethics Instructors by the National Institute of Ethics, a Congressional award winning, nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to furthering ethics and integrity throughout America. Students will learn the most effective teaching techniques, as well as ways to make critical internal improvements in the ethical culture of your organization. This program is not restricted to instructional staff. Topics include:

- Employee Intervention Programs
- State-of-the art ethics leadership techniques
- The Process That Prevents Corruption
- The Ethical Decision Making Process
- Practical Training Problems and Solutions
- Attaining Leadership Commitment for Change
- Participant Video-Taped Teaching Exercises
- Implementing It Back Home
- Solutions to the major causes of corruption
- Overcoming cynical students.
