

Dear Ms. Reece,

I am writing you to protest this latest ploy by the drug companies and their allies to fatten their pockets at the expense of our children. Children are not lab rats. They need balanced nutrition, love, respect and an education that prepares them to make their way in the world.

We cannot betray them by letting unscrupulous drug companies prey on them.

Sincerely,

James Monroe Justice